President Invading Insurgent Land.

Sweeps Through Minnesota in Whirlwind of Speeches; Wisconsin Next.

Jokes at Mankato While Rain Soaks Him to Skin—Some Farmer Himself.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) Oct. 24. After "invading" Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Washington, Oregon and California, States that are properly classed as "insurgent," President Taft swept through Minnesota today, making more than fifteen speeches. He will cross on Thursday into Wisconsin, the home of Senator La Follette, the acknowledged leader of the insurgents, and the man slated to oppose him for the Republican Presidential nomination next year.

President Taft's welcome to Minnesota was cordial. The crowds were as enthusiastic as any he has faced. At Mankato, the President was driven in an open automobile for more than an hour in a cold, heavy drizzle. Rather than change the programme, he entered the waiting automobile and refused to have the top raised. Later he went to luncheon at the Elks' Club in wet shoes and hose. Several Insurgent Congressmen were seated with the President at the luncheon and when he arose to speak he compared political conditions in the United States today with the conditions in the Philippines several years ago.

"It is a little difficult in these days to define what a Republican is, and what a Democrat," said the President. "There are as many shades as there were in the Philippines when they organized the national Assembly."

At Randolph the President chatted informally with the crowd about his car. He referred to the fact that he was in a farming community and suggested that the rain would be good for fall pastures.

"You see," said the President, "I am something of a farmer, myself."

"Are the potatoes all in?" inquired a voice.

"I am gathering them slowly," replied the President.

IMPORTANT DUTIES AWAITING PRESIDENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GLENCOE (Minn.) Oct. 24.—When President Taft returns to Washington next month not the least of his labors will be the filling of judicial vacancies which have arisen since the adjournment of Congress in August.

There is practically no chance now that a successor to the late Justice Harlan will be selected by the President until he reaches Washington. He has received many suggestions as to how he should fill the vacancy on the Supreme bench, and many names, including those of Atty.-Gen. Wickersham, Solicitor-General Lehmann and several others prominent in public life, have been mentioned.

Mr. Taft also probably will fill this winter existing vacancies in New York, Montana and Wisconsin districts, and also a successor to United States Circuit Judge Grosscup of Chicago. In addition to these judicial appointments, the President will name a member of the International Boundary Commission to succeed the late Senator Carter and a United States Marshal for the northern district of New York.

Glencoe was the first stop on the Presidential schedule today. Between this town and Minneapolis, where the President will spend the night, his train was expected to make several stops.

THE CITY. The whole first venire of 125 men drawn for the McNamara jury will be examined today or tomorrow, without one woman being accepted finally as a juryman.

U. S. Atty.-Gen. Wickersham recommended to the Federal authorities yesterday that F. Wilson, who has already served time for swindling and has been held in Indianapolis to the East, be released on his own recognizance, because his wife and children need him to make a living for them.

Land officials in making out plats of the survey on the coast from Santa Monica found that a strip of 200 acres of land claimed by homesteaders is yet unstaken. Nothing is said a boy who had been driven off his wheel and stunned, passed behind the boy's eyes and skin with liquid from a gallon bottle which had been left in the fall, and which turned out to be a strong acid. As a result the lad is in a hospital bandaged from head to foot in an effort to relieve the burns.

A fireman who had laid down a rule in his home that his wife must not argue with him when he is drunk, was sharply reprimanded by Justice Forbes yesterday for threatening that the woman did not have the rights with him in their domestic affairs.

A cornice worker was knocked from a three-story building to the ground by a stream of electricity, but surgeons say he has a good chance to recover.

Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army gave a farewell talk to women of the Army Woman's Boarding Home last night before departing for Chicago.

The Harbor Commission addressed a communication to the Board of Public Works yesterday asking that work be started immediately on the construction of harbor facilities to be ready for the business of the Panama Canal.

Citizens, thrilled by the courage shown by Supervisor Joe Ohnas when he ditched a runaway dirt train, at great personal risk, to save a passenger train, have started a movement to secure for him a Carnegie medal and substantial reward.

A young Chinese of Los Angeles is seeking to hire Yat Yen for sanction to take explosives to China and throw bombs into Peking.

A real estate man, who claims to have been injured in a railway accident and is suing for damages, offered yesterday to pay the Pullman fare into his back to the Pullman if it has been furnished.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Francis Harris, the four-year-old son of Charles Harris, died yesterday after a short illness.

Mrs. Ida Lewis, keeper of the Lime Rock light at Newport, R. I., and the only woman light keeper in the United States, died last night.

Prominent woman doctor was found dead in her bed in an Indianapolis home yesterday morning, with her throat gashed and no clew for the police to work upon.

A warning to conserve mineral resources was sounded in Chicago yesterday by an agent of the French Minister of Mines.

Report was current in Kansas City yesterday that Miss Margaret Swope, niece of Col. William Swope, for whose murder H. Clark Hyde is on trial, is engaged to marry a young Southern Californian.

WASHINGTON. Consideration of the Winslow-Shields Alaska coal land case began in Supreme Court yesterday.

According to a Washington dispatch the Interstate Commerce Commission is amazed at the preferential treatment of sugar by the railway freight rate makers.

FOREIGN. Caucus in Peking of members of the National Assembly yesterday urged the Manchu rulers to adopt radical reforms to end the rebellion.

Chinese rebels were reported yesterday to be organizing another army in the south.

Minister of War yesterday notified Peking that he will not move against the rebels until he receives more guns and a fuller supply of his troops.

FINANCIAL. In the absence of an impelling motive for trading yesterday's stock transactions on the New York Stock Exchange were of a narrow and listless character.

TO CHECK THE REBELLION, REFORMS ARE ADVISED.

National Assembly Promises to Come to Aid of Tottering Manchu Throne.

Surrender of Shanghai Is Demanded by the Revolutionary Leaders to Maintain Order There—Celestials in Hawaii Petition Washington to Keep the Japanese from Meddling—New Army Being Raised in South.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PEKING, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A caucus of the constitutional and progressive parties, comprising a majority of the membership of the National Assembly, this evening formulated a series of demands upon the throne for immediate and radical reforms as the only possibility of averting the disruption of the empire.

The assemblymen construe the overthrow of governmental authority in four provincial capitals and Yang Tse cities as a political rather than an anti-dynastic revolt, but assert their conviction that its spread through the entire south is avoidable only by prompt steps to meet the popular discontent.

The assembly will demand the immediate appointment of a truly responsible Cabinet. Recognizing that the appointive power rests with the throne, the assembly makes no specific recommendation, but this means that the Manchu princes and other incompetents will be removed and that Yuan Shi Kai will be made Premier, with power to name his ministry.

The Assembly demands the election of a Parliament with full powers next year; that the government take no severe measures against the rebels; that the eminent reformers, Kang Hu Wei and Liang Chi Chad, now exiled, be recalled for service; that drastic punishment be meted out to Viceroys Jui Chens and Choa Erh Leng, whose mishandling is asserted to be responsible for the Hu Peh and Sze Chuen revolts.

The leaders announce that if these steps are taken the Assembly will vote supplies and approve the necessary loans to put down the armed rebellion.

The Viceroy of Canton telegraphed to the Chinese Cabinet today that the situation is most critical. He says he cannot rely on the new army and has no ammunition for the old troops upon whom he must depend strongly. He urges the government immediately to grant all the demands of the political agitators, particularizing an early Parliament and the ousting of all Manchus from the Cabinet.

WANT JAPANESE HELD IN CHECK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HONOLULU, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]—Three thousand Chinese at a mass meeting here today passed a resolution to request Secretary of State Knox to use his influence to prevent Japanese interference with the revolt in China.

A cable message was sent to Mr. Knox stating that "America has sanctified the word rebellion in the name of liberty."

The Japanese press publishes a special Tokio cable that the Japanese Foreign Office indorses the new railroad loan to China. Eighteen million yen has been advanced. The Yokohoma specie bank is working with the Bank of Japan.

ASK SURRENDER OF SHANGHAI.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SHANGHAI, Oct. 24.—A Chinese official dispatch from Yin Tchang, the War Minister, reports imperial successes over the rebels on October 20 and 21 at Sin Yan Chow. The dispatch says the rebels had more than 600 killed, while the losses of the imperials were few.

Communication, even by wireless, with Hunan is cut off. Troops in that province were recently disaffected, but the trouble was settled by the payment of their wages.

Hukow, a fortified town fifteen miles east of Kiu Kiang, was captured by the rebels.

The fall of Hukow and Kiu Kiang indicates the spread of the revolution eastward. It also interrupts communication between Shanghai and Hankow. When the rebels took Kiu Kiang and burned the government house it is reported a number of officials were killed. The British, French, German and Japanese warships are sheltering the foreigners. Kiu Kiang has several missionary stations. Americans at Foo Chow in the province of Kiang Si and at Foo Chow in Fo Kinn province have asked that warships be sent there.

The province of Shanghai, Che Kiang and Fo Kion are showing great unrest and in fact the entire southwest corner of the Chinese empire below Hankow and farthest removed from Manchu influence is rapidly becoming inflamed.

Report has it that the revolution-

The Count Slow.

LIGHT VOTE IS CAST IN THE ARIZONA PRIMARIES.

Democrats Seem to Have Been Busier Than Others Owing to Contests in Their Ranks for Leadership. Looks as if Wells and Hunt Have the Gubernatorial Nomination—Falling Off in Socialist Strength.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports from all over Arizona show that the vote at the primary today generally was light. By far the largest number of votes were cast by the Democrats, for there was little contention among the Republicans. The vote was lighter also for the reason that only three-year citizens were eligible as electors. A decided flaw was found in the primary law through the fact that hundreds of normally Republican voters were variously persuaded to support Democratic candidates necessarily on Democratic ballots.

The ballots are long and hard to check and little of general value can be summed up tonight. Fragmentary returns indicate a strong Democratic vote for Ives for Senator with a prospect that Ashurst will beat Mark Smith for the second place. There seems little doubt of the Democratic nomination for Governor of George H. Hunt for Governor. An unexpectedly strong vote has been polled in Phoenix for Territorial Secretary George U. Young, who is contesting the Republican nomination for Governor with the regular candidate, Judge E. W. Wells of Prescott. There is little doubt, however, of the latter's success.

Result From Clifton.

CLIFTON (Ariz.) Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Guthrie precinct today cast six votes in the primary election. They were about equally divided between all candidates. Six precincts in Greenlee county outside of Clifton and Morenci give: Senator, Ashurst 48, Ives 79, Ling 22, O'Neill 11, Pickett 55, Smith 114; for Congress, Cobb 173, Hayden 18, Winsor 17; for Governor, Hughes 42, Hunt 65, Weed 49; Secretary, Osborn 62, Robinson 93; Auditor, Callaghan 65, Thum 86; Commissioner, Cole 130, Geary 94, Jones 107, Melczer 12, Short 69.

HELP THE CONTESTANTS.

YUMA (Ariz.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ling and Ashurst, with Mark Smith a close third, lead the Democratic vote in Yuma county. The Democratic vote was very heavy. Yuma precincts show 382 Democratic and 185 Republican. Hunt, Democrat, is ahead for Governor. Young, Republican, is ahead for Governor, but the Young and Wells vote is very close. The light Republican vote is owing to the fact that there were no contests. One hundred and twenty-five Republicans voted the Democratic ticket to help out the many Democratic contestants. Two hundred voters refused to vote.

From Three Precincts.

SAFFORD (Ariz.) Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Three small precincts in Greenlee county give: Ashurst 7, Ives 11, Long 8, O'Neill 0, Pickett 11, Smith 26; for Representative: Cobb 31, Hayden 2, Windsor 2; for Governor, Hughes 5, Hunt 17, Weedin 7; for Secretary, Osborn 12, Robinson 21; for Auditor, Callaghan 14, Thum 15; Corporation Commissioner, Cole 30, Geary 16, Jones 25, Melczer 1, Short 20.

Ten Complete.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Ten complete precincts in Prescott give Ashurst a strong lead over Mark Smith, with Ling third, for United States Senator. Hayden is leading Windsor for Congress. Wells (Republican) has about six to one the better of Young, for Governor, while Hunt (Democrat) for Governor, is leading Weedin by about three to one.

A Close Run.

HOLBROOK (Ariz.) Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Six large precincts out of thirteen give Democratic Governor Hunt twenty-six majority. Republican Wells 29, Democratic Senators received, Pickett 3, O'Neill 23, Ives 28, Smith 38, Ashurst 113, Ling 68. Mattox for State Representative has 71 majority. For Congressmen, Democratic, Williams 71, Hayden 54, Winsor 55, Cobb 40. The county candidates on the Democratic ticket are running close.

SUFFRAGISTS AVERT SPLIT BETWEEN EAST AND WEST.

BY HELEN M. BENNETT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Emblazoned with banners, fitted interiorly with every necessity for travel, supplied with suffrage literature and conveying suffrage speakers, one of the most wonderful advertising plans of the age may be launched soon by some of the western, middle western and southern members of the National Suffrage Association.

In secret session representatives from these parts of the country met and to them J. H. Braly of California outlined this plan for speeding suffrage propaganda. Mr. Braly is the man who is said to have done so much in Los Angeles towards forming men's leagues and helping to carry the State for suffrage. He is one of California's wealthy men and as many who are interested in this idea are moneyed women, it will not fail for lack of funds.

GRAND TOUR PLANNED.

If the plan is carried out as Mr. Braly suggested, the car will start in California, go up to Washington, come on East, taking in Nevada, Colorado and every State where campaigns are on. It will steam through Iowa and whistle over Illinois prairies; it will rush through the converted States to linger in the South, and, oh! there is no telling where it will stop.

The meeting at which this plan was launched was attended by only a few, among whom were such well-known workers in the cause as Miss Kate Gordon of New Orleans, Miss Mary Johnston of Virginia, Mrs. Katherine Waugh McCulloch and Mrs. George Trout of Chicago, and Miss Emma Gillette of Maryland.

General business occupied the afternoon session of the convention. Reading of reports and routine business was transacted with little enthusiasm. The pledging of funds for the coming year aroused some enthusiasm, and nearly $12,000 was pledged during the session.

ENTHUSIASTIC CLOSE.

The convention closed this evening with a whirl of enthusiasm. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst discoursed on the militant movement in England to the apparent delight of an audience which packed the hall. Her first piece of destructive work was the gentle annihilation of an editorial appearing in one of the morning papers.

Miss Shaw has stood the long strain of a stormy session well, but it was almost impossible yesterday for her to overcome her fatigue, and not until she launched her closing address, and the enthusiasm of the cause and of the orator became uppermost, did she seem like her customary self.

Delegates will leave for home in the morning, all bent upon active campaign work in their various States. The executive board will meet in the morning to transact some routine business, but the association closed the doors of the forty-third annual session of the National Women's Suffrage Association this evening, after a session from the very storminess of which great results are expected to arise.

SPLIT DISPOSED OF.

Fola La Follette, whose engagement to George Middleton was announced some time ago, and the date of the marriage set for the late fall, has changed the date, and will be married in Washington on Saturday, October 28. Miss La Follette's appearance before the National Suffrage Association here was her last public appearance.

Fears that the West and South would break away from the East and establish a new national suffrage body were partially dispelled when the delegates accepted the choice of New York as headquarters. The strife of yesterday simmered down slowly. The first crossing of swords brought up the same line of battle of the preceding day. On one side was New York, Massachusetts, the College Equal Suffrage League and on the other most of the southern and western delegates.

Tonight, however, all seems peaceful.

MRS. O'CONNOR SPEAKS.

Man and his political ways were weighed and found wanting this afternoon by Mrs. T. P. O'Connor, wife of the Irish leader, who addressed the convention on the text, "Let Our Watchword be Unity." Mrs. O'Connor replied to what she termed the "old threadbare arguments" against woman suffrage, outlined what she declared were typical abuses of men's powers, and urged her sisters to "stand shoulder to shoulder and march forward together."

"If the majority of men could be convinced that it would be to their personal advantage and to the advantage of the State to accede the vote to women, our fight would be at an end," she declared. "When you ask them why we don't vote they advance old threadbare arguments, the first being that all women would vote according to the politics of their hus-

Graphic Account of Terrific Storm Which Devastates Mexican Coast.

City of Panama Brings Crew of Wrecked Schooner to San Francisco.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Pacific Mail steamer City of Sydney, Capt. George W. Yardley, from Panama via Mexican ports, which arrived here this morning with twenty cabin passengers, brought tidings of the terrific hurricane off the western coast of Mexico October 17 and 18.

Officers, crew and passengers of the Sydney believe the Mexican steamer Bonito, with thirty passengers aboard, was lost off Mazatlan.

For twenty hours the City of Sydney, which took to the open sea from Mazatlan roadstead, bucked a gale of 100 miles an hour and was almost submerged.

PRAY FOR DELIVERANCE.

Facing death, the passengers, five women and two children among them, knelt in prayer led by the Rev. P. C. MacFarland of Kansas City.

The passengers, in resolution adopted at sea yesterday, declared that Capt. Yardley's good judgment and skillful handling of the vessel in the tempest saved the ship and all on board.

The steamer Curacao suffered in the storm. The German bark Prinz Waldamar, was wrecked at Mazatlan roadstead.

Mrs. Leonore M. Steeam, wife of the captain of the schooner Oliver J. Olson, and eight of the crew of the vessel, which was wrecked off Cape Falso light in the first hurricane October 2 and 3, were passengers on the City of Sydney.

WOMAN A HEROINE.

Eight seamen, members of the crew of the ill-fated four-master schooner Oliver J. Olson, wrecked in the hurricane of October 2 and 3, which swept the western coast of Mexico and blew with terrific fury in the Gulf of California, stood with heads uncovered as Mrs. Steeam left the steamer City of Sydney when the vessel docked at pier No. 44 this morning.

No hero ever was paid more homage than these simple men of the sea showed to the pretty little dark-eyed woman who was a heroine during the terrific storm which cast the schooner Olson on the rocks and left her a total wreck at Cape Falso.

Mrs. Steeam was aboard the schooner when the hurricane struck her just as she was entering the Gulf of California, bound for Guaymas from Gray's Harbor with a cargo of lumber.

CAPTAIN AT WHEEL.

When the hurricane struck the craft Capt. Steeam changed his course and left the gulf and headed south along the coast. When the deck load was carried away and the vessel was stripped of its mast, Capt. Steeam lashed his wife in a companionway and had his mates lash him to the wheel.

For ten hours, while the schooner was being tossed on the heavy seas and beaten hither and thither by the terrific gale, Mrs. Steeam remained below, ignorant of the impending fate of the vessel.

As much as Capt. Steeam thought of his wife under the trying circumstances, he felt that his post of duty was at the wheel of the vessel and hopes that the craft might weather the hurricane.

MEETS ANOTHER STORM.

Mrs. Steeam was the first to leave the wrecked vessel, which was rapidly being torn to pieces on the rugged coast. She was lashed to the back of a seaman, who made his way across the rocks and reached the lighthouse at Cape Falso, a short distance from where the vessel foundered.

The following day Mrs. Steeam was placed on theback of a sturdy mule led by her husband, and they made their way forty miles along the coast to San Jose del Cavo. The crew followed on foot. Mrs. Steeam and eight members of the crew took passage on the Mexican steamer Bonito for Mazatlan.

Mrs. Steeam arrived at Mazatlan on October 16, the morning of the arrival there of the steamer City of Sydney, and was tendered received by the passengers, a nervous wreck when she went aboard the City of Sydney. Little did she think that the next thirty-six hours would bring to her another harrowing experience.

VESSEL NEAR SINKING.

By noon the gale had reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour. An hour later the City of Sydney, accompanied by the steamer Curacao and the Mexican steamer Bonito, left the road-

LIGHT IS OUT FOR IDA LEWIS.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Visits Bedside of Dying Woman.

Famous Character Expires at Post of Duty.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEWPORT (R. I.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With tears in his eyes Rudolph Lewis rowed Dr. William S. Sherman and Dr. Michael Sullivan from Newport to Lime Rock lighthouse today, where they held a consultation over his sister, Ida Lewis, the Grace Darling of America, who was stricken with apoplexy two days ago, and who died late tonight. After an hour in the sick-room, shaken by the firing of mortar shells from Fort Adams, where target practice is being held, the physicians returned to Newport.

A number of society women visited the lighthouse today. Among them was Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt, who returned from New York at midnight purposely to see Miss Lewis, her friend since early girlhood. Mrs. Vanderbilt's home is directly opposite the lighthouse, where Ida Lewis has been for fifty years and whose light Mrs. Vanderbilt has watched many a night.

When Mrs. Vanderbilt entered the sick chamber her eyes moistened as she beheld the unconscious form of the woman whose illness has interested the entire country.

Mrs. Vanderbilt directed that everything needed for the table at Lime Rock lighthouse be cooked in her own kitchen at Harbor View. She also offered Rudolph Lewis any assistance she could render. The Rev. Stanley C. Hughes, pastor of Trinity Church, visited the lighthouse this morning and said prayers over the dying woman.

Rudolph Lewis says that a report that the lighthouse might be closed may have brought a shock to his sister and caused her illness and death. Now comes the denial of any such intention on the part of the lighthouse board. During her career Miss Lewis had rescued eighteen persons from drowning.

TROTH PLIGHTED TO MISS SWOPE?

YOUNG CALIFORNIA RANCHER REPORTED ENGAGED.

Niece of Man for Whose Murder B. Clark Hyde Is on Trial Said to Have Given Heart to Visitor in Kansas City—Unwitting Denials Made.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the romance which ended in the elopement and wedding of Lucy Lee Swope and William B. Byrne in Colorado fresh in the mind of the public, comes a rumor that Miss Margaret Swope has become engaged to Tom Miller, a young ranchman of Southern California. Miller has been in Kansas City for several weeks visiting an aunt, Mrs. F. O. Rugg, who lives just two doors from the Swopes.

"There is not a word of truth in it," said Mrs. L. O. Swope, when told of the rumors.

Mr. Miller, when asked if an engagement existed, said:

"If there is an engagement, I do not know it."

"Then you positively deny that such an engagement exists?" was asked.

"No; I don't emphatically deny it," protested Mr. Miller.

"Then if you do not deny it you must confirm it," was suggested.

"All right, then, I deny it," said the young man with a hopeless gesture.

ALASKA LAND CASE.

Supreme Court Will Decide the Issue Raised by the Municipality and Shields Entries.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The Federal Supreme Court began consideration today of the famous Alaskan coal land case, in which Charles F. Munday and Archie W. Shields were indicted for conspiracy to defraud the government of Alaskan coal lands estimated to be worth $10,000,000.

The point to be decided is whether the United States Circuit Court for Western Washington was correct in dismissing the indictment against Munday and Shields. The court did this on the ground that the land laws applicable to Alaska did not limit the number of entries of coal lands a person or association might make.

It was charged in the indictment that Munday and Shields conspired with each other and with persons unknown to procure for the Alaska Development Company and the Pacific Coal and Oil Company 6000 acres in Alaska.

It was alleged forty persons were induced to make entries, ostensibly for themselves, but in fact as agents of the two corporations.

HOW TO LIVE LONG.

CHICO (Cal.) Oct. 24.—A feature of the session of the Butte county teachers' convention was an address by William Titsworth, 81 years old, on "How to Live to Be One Hundred Years Old." The venerable teacher looks to be less than 60, and recommended the teachers to eat no breakfast, fast one day a month and take a cold bath, followed by exercise, every morning. The Butte county teachers wish to reform the State speller, and the discussion on that subject was an interesting one. The day's sessions were marked by discussions in all the institutes on the course of study in the grammar schools. Tonight the teachers were entertained.

What Now?

HUSBAND YET NO HUSBAND; UNCERTAIN AS TO COURSE.

Man Whose Real Identity Became Known After a Lapse of Nearly Fifteen Years Paces Floor of Seattle Hospital, Worrying Over Woman He Married During Long Period of Sub-Consciousness.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "The relatives of Mrs. Kelly to whom, as George Kelly, it is declared I was married, have asked me to come to their home after I leave the hospital.

"I cannot now tell what I will do regarding her. I have worried about it constantly since I learned from her and from others who knew me as George Kelly, what is related as fact concerning myself.

"I must wait until I can get strong in head and body—my mind is clear enough—before I determine what lies in my power."

Simply, frankly, with utmost candor and honesty, S. Chandler Rogers today answered the question that has been pressed upon him above all others since he awoke at Providence Hospital, October 19, and learned for the first time in fourteen years and nearly six months his true identity. Rogers at the local hospital sought succease from his troubles this morning by dressing and walking about the corridors on the fifth floor. He was visited in the morning by friends of his wife—he always speaks of her as Mrs. Kelly—who had known him as a former member of the United States Marine Corps and a mill workman at Port Blakeley. The fact that Rogers twice was within the shadow of death has not interested him in the least—at least since last Thursday.

He knows also that physicians in a desperate effort to save his life, when almost certain death hovered over him, took away a big slice of his skull, which can never be replaced and that by that operation he has been transformed, as if by a miracle, from George Kelly, mill worker and former United States marine, to S. Chandler Rogers, ex-New York messenger boy. The unfortunate man feels his position keenly. He is, in truth, a waif from a past era, a stranger to the world of today.

Few, if any, plans have been made for the future welfare of S. Chandler Rogers. The skill he exhibited as the mill worker George Kelley is not now a possible factor, for he believes the inside of a lumber mill would seem as strange as his surroundings in his room in the hospital when he awakened last Thursday night.

COMING TO A SHOW DOWN.

State Board of Control to Order Paper Bought by Shannon Removed From the State Printery.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24. — The Governor instructed the members of the State Board of Control today to take steps immediately to cause the removal from the State warehouse of paper stored there by the Zellerbach Paper Company and the H. S. Crocker Company. This is the paper the contracts for which the Board of Control recently held up. It has a total value of about $47,000. The board announces that it will take steps at once to carry out the Governor's request.

While the removal of the paper itself is of some note, it will also have a greater consequence, in that it will probably bring the controversy between the paper companies and the State, over the payment of the contracts, to a head. Thus far the paper companies have claimed that the paper was properly ordered by State Printer Shannon, and indicated that suit would be brought to make the State pay for it.

Just how the removal of the paper will be accomplished has not been announced, but more than likely the Board of Control will notify the dealers to remove it. If this order is disregarded then physical means may be taken to rid the State storehouses of it.

BENGAZI BATTLE BLOODY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MALTA, Oct. 24.—In letters received here from Bengazi, Tripoli, the writers estimate the casualties among the inhabitants resulting from the bombardment by the Italian fleet at 4000. The British Consulate was badly damaged and Consul John Francis Jones was wounded. Several Jews who are British subjects and had taken refuge in the British Consulate were killed or wounded. Numerous buildings, including a Maltese church, were destroyed.

Eight Maltese were killed and ten wounded, it is said.

BOMBARDMENT SERIOUS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The correspondents of the London Times and other English papers at Tripoli have been reporting by way of Malta that the affair at Bengazi was much more serious than the Italian censorship had permitted to be known.

PASTOR'S CASE TO BE HEARD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—In preparation for the special session of the Suffolk grand jury next Thursday when the case of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church of Cambridge, who is under arrest on the charge of murdering Avis Linnell, here on October 14, Dist.-Atty. Pelletier today went over the evidence in the hands of the police officials.

With ample financial backing, Richeson's lawyers will contest the case vigorously.

The report of the analysis of the stomach of Avis Linnell by Prof. Whitney of the Harvard Medical School is being eagerly awaited.

On order of Dist.-Atty. Pelletier the body of Miss Linnell was exhumed today and brought from Hyannis to Boston. It is expected to definitely learn whether the receptacle which contained the cyanide of potassium was left in the pocket of the bathrobe which was buried with the body.

HIGH SCHOOL JOKE.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Mollie Morton and Miss Maud Green, English teachers of the Sacramento High School, with Miss Hazel McMasters and Miss Alice Campbell, Lecturer Holmes and Frederick Von Nordman, were held up and robbed at the points of revolvers in the hands of several masked men last night on the lower Stockton road while the party was on an automobile ride. The robbers took several gold watches and a small amount of money. It developed that the robbery was carried out by High School students playing an alleged joke on their teachers. The police do not take the matter as a joke and are working to establish the identity of the students involved.

"KIMMEL" IDENTIFIED.

MILES (Mich.) Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The man who has posed as George A. Kimmel today was declared by two men who had worked with him for years to be A. H. White, alias "Turkey" White, formerly a conductor on the St. Louis and San Francisco road. They are Bruce L. Cosner of Enid, Okla., a conductor and John W. Burt, an engineer on the 'Frisco.

By 4 o'clock in the afternoon the southeast gale was blowing 100 miles an hour, and waves thirty feet high were breaking over the vessel, flooding the upper and lower decks, smashing cabin doors and carrying away rail and rigging.

At times, according to passengers, it seemed as though the vessel would founder, but she managed to ride out the storm. At 8 o'clock on the morning of the 18th the storm abated and the steamer returned to the roadstead at Mazatlan.

BONITO BELIEVED LOST.

Several times during the storm the crew of the City of Sydney saw the Curacao, heavily laden and lying low in the water, struggling in the heavy seas. They also saw the steamer Bonito blown far out of her course.

As far as can be learned, the Bonito has not been heard of since the storm, and those aboard the City of Sydney believe that she was lost. She is known to have had thirty passengers aboard when she put to sea to face the storm.

Returning to the roadstead, officers and crew of the Cydney saw wreckage which they thought came from the Bonito. Capt. Yardley expressed the opinion that the Bonito could not have weathered the hurricane.

Capt. Yardley said that the Mazatlan water front showed many evidences of the fury of the storm. The large German bark, Prinz Waldamar, which was unable to get out of the roadstead, was a total wreck, having been beached high and dry.

PLOT AGAINST STEPHENSON?

Witness Tells of Alleged Manufacture of Evidence and Attempt to Blackmail Wisconsin Senator.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 24.—Testimony concerning an alleged plot to fabricate evidence against Senator Isaac Stephenson and then to offer to keep it out of the present investigation for a money consideration, was given by M. J. Reagan, a Milwaukee business man, before the United States Senate committee today.

H. W. Wood, a private detective, and Frank T. Souther had testified that they were at a conference with Reagan when the later made a statement to the effect that Robert J. Shields, associated in business with Edward Hines, the lumberman, had come from Washington to "buy up" the Wisconsin Legislature so that Stephenson could be elected in March, 1909. The story which Wood and Souther testified had been given them by Reagan, was:

"That Shields, coming from Washington, had met Reagan by appointment in Milwaukee; that Shields said he had unlimited money to purchase Democratic members who were to remain away so that Stephenson might be elected; that Shields wanted Reagan to go to Madison to carry on the deal, but that Reagan refused and Shields himself went."

Taking the stand after they had given this testimony Reagan declared he had never made any such statement, but on the contrary, Wood and Souther also "had framed up" the story with a view of obtaining money from Stephenson's attorneys to suppress it.

Reagan was still on the stand at adjournment.

DIVORCEE MARRIES COUNT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Dandridge Spottiswood, formerly Miss Woulf of Philadelphia and the divorced wife of a Petersburg (Va.) engineer, was married today to Count Schoenbrun of Budapest. The ceremony was performed by Canon Solange Rodin in the fashignable church, St. Honore d'Eylcau, in Place Victor Hugo.

Although no invitations were issued, some sixty Americans were present, among them Mrs. Marshall Field, Mr. and Mrs. Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carter of Chicago, Maj. Settley Mott, military attache at the American embassy; C. Herreshoff, Mrs. Clinch Smith and Augustus Eddy of Paris.

Replying to the question as to how Mrs. Spottiswood, a divorced woman, could have a church wedding, Canon Solange said:

MILLIONS TO FIGHT GOMEZ.

PANAMA, Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Dr. Rivas Vasquez, who was a member of the deposed Castro government, says he has obtained $2,000,000 in the United States to further a revolution against President Gomez in Venezuela. He left today for Trinidad, en route to Venezuela.

BREAKS A COLD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

Nothing else that you can take will break your cold or end Grippe so promptly as a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

The most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress begin to leave after the very first dose.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

RAISING AN ARMY IN THE SOUTH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—A cablegram to Young China, a Chinese newspaper, received here today, contains the information that the mobilization of a large number of troops is being attempted by the revolutionists in the province of Yunan in Southern China. Troops are leaving the province of Aman, which is neutral, being French territory, and joining the main body of republican soldiers in Yunan. The objective point of the newly-assembled southern army is not known here.

MANCHU STRONGHOLD IN REBEL HANDS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PEKING, Oct. 24.—Native bankers decline to make advances to the government feeling that the utmost they could do would avail little, while the loan of the millions necessary could not be floated in Europe or America.

The City of Sian, regarded as one of the government's surest strongholds, has gone over to the rebels without a blow having been struck. Sian is the capital of Shensi province with a population of 750,000.

Minister of War Gen. Yin Tchang holds his main force still at Sin Yang Chow. He states that the rebels have 400 guns, and he declines to move unless supplied with additional guns and ammunition and pay for his troops.

FOR SALE TO CHINA, ONE CONSTITUTION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Copies of an American-made Constitution for the proposed new republic of China are today on their way from New York to the revolutionary leaders in Hankow. The document is the work of Andrew Jackson Meagher of Brooklyn, who hopes to sell it for a good price to the rebels. Meagher prepared a similar paper for Mexico at the time the Madero revolution broke out, but it was not favorably received by the Madero advisers.

The Constitution proposed for China provides for universal suffrage, the single tax and the election of a President by the people of China.

GREAT FOREST FIRE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SISSON, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A great forest fire twenty miles south of McCloud, at the head of Hawkins Creek, is being fought by a force of more than 100 men. The fire is thought to be of incendiary origin. It has been burning about a week, but it was only discovered Friday. The fire line is now ten miles long. The country in the region of this fire is covered by a heavy growth of brush and very little timber value. A wind would fan the flames beyond control, but fortunately the air is calm and it is expected the fire will be under control in a few days if no untoward circumstances arise.

The forest officials have drafted many men to fight the blaze and the McCloud River Lumber Company has sent in a large force of fighters.

BANK DEPOSITORS TO GET FUNDS.

Miles Anderson Successful in Reorganization Plan.

Shasta County Institution to Pay Up in Full.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDDING, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Alden Anderson returned from San Francisco, today, bearing with him the O.K. of State Superintendent of Banks Williams to the bond for the performance of the contract under which the assets of the defunct Bank of Shasta County were turned over to a new national bank organized by Anderson. Judge Archer later approved the bonds, and Anderson's bank entered formally into possession of the property. The bond is for nearly $1,000,000 and is signed by Herbert Fleischaker of San Francisco and J. C. Chanslor of Los Angeles.

Anderson has been ready for a long time to pay the depositors their money and relieve the situation here of holding. The 1600 depositors, however, have been kept waiting for months while Anderson's successor, State Banking Superintendent Williams, raised one objection after another.

ANDERSON'S TRIUMPH.

The bank failed last March, when Anderson was in Europe. It owed $700,000 to depositors. A hue and cry was raised against Anderson by political enemies, it being asserted that he was derelict in duty as State Bank Superintendent. An effort was even made to indict Anderson on a criminal charge while he was out of the country and unable to defend himself. The depositors were told that they would be lucky to get 50 cents on the dollar.

Anderson returned, defied his enemies, declared that the bank could have been saved, organized a new bank and offered to take over the assets of the defunct institution. Obstacles were placed in his path, but he has finally triumphed. Fifty per cent. dividend will be paid depositors immediately, and 20 per cent more early next year.

SHASTA DELIGHTED.

Anderson has purchased the control of the First Savings Bank of Shasta County, which was carried on by the other failure, and he announces that the depositors will be paid one hundred cents on the dollar shortly.

The county is delighted with the outcome of the controversy between Anderson and Williams. The former is the most popular man in the county today.

EDITOR ON TRIAD.

Will Probably Plead that He Was Insane When He Shot Man as Result of Gossip.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, Oct. 24.—That insanity will be the plea on which the defense will be based in the trial of S. Fraser, the Lodi editor who, on June 17, shot and killed Charles Soldani of Lodi, was brought out this morning at the opening of the trial when questions asked the veniremen. When the case was called the courtroom was filled and the corridors packed by spectators. Over 100 witnesses have been subpoenaed, but, as hope is entertained of getting a jury before the end of the week, court recessed until Monday.

Fraser, editor and owner of the Lodi News, shot Sollars twice as he was getting over his automobile in a garage. He gave himself up and said his action was prompted by stories which had come to him from those of two school teachers who figured in an assault case in this city while driving in an automobile belonging to Axtel and Sollars. The stories he said were started by Sollars, since then he has been in jail, he is charged with murder in the first degree. Four attorneys will defend him.

HOW UNCLE SAM NEGLIGENT.

Union Trust Company of New York Governments Suit for Southern Pacific Lands.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Oct. 24.—Contending the Federal government is guilty of negligence in proceeding to patent to the Oregon and California grant of lands that the outstanding bonds against the road must be protected to the extent of at least $20,000,000 as their security upon these lands, the Union Trust Company of New York has answered in the Federal Court the government's suit.

The method of placing its defense on the ground of innocent purchase, the trust company's answer negatives many important statements upon which the government relies. One of these denials goes to the sufficiency of the transfer, or so-called lease to the Southern Pacific, the trust company insisting this is not a merger nor an absorption, in all respects the trust company appears as the real owner of the lands until its $20,000,000 bonds are paid.

In one paragraph the trust company admits that when the Southern Pacific took over the property of the Oregon and California Railroad, the former guaranteed payment of the trust company bonds, which guarantee yet stands. While the Southern Pacific systems are security for the bonds, the trust company insists that the 2,300,000 acres of grant lands in question are a most important element in the security upon which the bondholders rely to recover their money.

BOY AVIATOR FLIES WELL.

Chico Youngster in Home-Made Biplane Rides Air for Ten Miles Without Mishap.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Thaddeus Kerns, Chico's boy aviator, made his most successful flight yesterday, when he arose from the ground with his home-made biplane, and soaring to a height of 100 feet, flew with the grace of a bird for a distance of five miles and return, making right and left turns as skillfully as an experienced aviator.

He started from his home on the Shasta road about two miles north of Chico, and flew over orchards and farms and returned to the exact spot from which he started.

Kerns's family is proud of the boy and watched his flight with the keenest interest. When the boy returned he was all smiles over his success.

HALF AROUND THE GLOBE.

Life Preserver of Dollar Company Drifts Many Thousand Miles and Will Become a Souvenir.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Drifting half around the globe, a life-preserver from the wreck of the steamer, Stanley Dollar, which went ashore on the Japanese coast in August, 1905, was picked up recently on the beach at Cullivoe, Shetland Islands, according to a letter received yesterday by Stanley Dollar, of the Dollar Steamship Company. The letter was written by John Gear of Cullivoe, whose son is in the employ of the Dollar Company, and encloses a clipping from the Shetland Times, dated September 30.

Whether the drifting cork jacket made its way to the other side of the world by currents sweeping around the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, or navigated the Northwest passage, is a mystery.

Although the life preserver had been in the water more than six years and had drifted more than 10,000 miles, the name of the steamer was said to be clear as were also the words, "Passed by J. G., S. F., Cal., June 1, 1905."

"J. G.," it is said by customs officers to be Inspector James Guthrie, who passed on the safety appliances on the steamer a short time before she left on her last voyage.

The life preserver will be brought here and kept as a memento by the Dollar Company.

SOCIALIST'S FAST.

TWENTY-FOUR DAYS OF IT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERKELEY, Oct. 24.—At the beginning of the twenty-fourth day of a fasting experiment John A. Wilson, a Socialist councilman, announced this morning that this is the first day he has felt perfectly well and vigorous since he quit eating on October 1.

Mr. Wilson said: "I hope to let food alone until Monday night, the 30th, when Sanford Bennett, the 70-year-old boy lectures in this city on how to keep young. If I maintain the fast until that night I expect to tell Mr. Bennett's audience something about keeping well by exercising."

SHIP NUGGETS TO GOTHAM.

BUT LITTLE IS SECRET.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Oct. 24.—Gold nuggets, contributed by Alaska mining men, and worth $125,000, will be shipped from here this week to New York to form part of the Alaska exhibit at the New York lands show November 3 to 12. In order to make the shipment safe the railroad over which the gold will be carried will not make public the day on which the shipment will be made. Other products besides gold will be found in the Alaska exhibit, among them being vegetables raised near the Arctic Circle, grains and grasses of the north, furs and copper and silver ores.

VISIBLE COMET AN AID TO WIRELESS TELEGRAPH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

YERKES OBSERVATORY, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Brooks's comet, which the astronomers on Hamilton declare to be greater in brilliancy than Halley's comet of 1910, is now a clearly defined object at 5 o'clock in the early morning sky, the head of the sky traveler being about seventy-two degrees northeast of the morning star, Venus, and the tail easily traced by the naked eye for twenty-five degrees. Viewed in the rule with comets, the tail is thrown off in a direction away from the sun, and exceeds 40,000,000 miles in length.

Professor E. E. Aitken of the Lick Observatory has found by means of photographic and spectroscopic observations a number of interesting facts about the Brooks' comet. The comet's nucleus and tail consists mainly of gas and streamers, the nucleus and driven out to form the tail by the repulsive forces of the sun. The tail is divided, the nucleus being one long and narrow, probably formed by a light gas, and the other broader, twisted and curved, composed of many strands and formed, apparently, by heavier gases. The tail contains a large percentage of carbon-monoxide gas.

Word has reached the observatory from Mare Island that the presence of Beliawsky's comet in the sky has made possible the exchange of wireless messages between the wireless station at Mare Island and the plant at Fort Meyer, Washington, D. C. While the comet has been near the earth, atmospheric conditions have improved daily. Hence the feat of sending a wireless message 3000 miles overland—the equivalent of 9000 miles over the sea—the Mare Island station also exchanged messages yesterday with the plant at Key West, Fla., 2600 miles away.

TO USE WOMEN FOR JURY DUTY.

San Francisco Police Judges Say They're Eligible.

Advantages of Citizenship Carry Disadvantages.

Sordid Testimony May Be Poured in Gentle Ears.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Have the women of California, now entitled to the ballot, also the right to sit as jurors in the Police Court?

"Yes," say the San Francisco police magistrates without hesitation, and it is probable that before long women will be sitting with men on juries listening to the sordid and heartrending testimony brought forth day after day in the Police Court.

"The privileges of citizenship cannot be assumed by women without their taking up also the duties and burdens of citizenship," is the argument of the local magistrates, and it is probable from the sentiments which they expressed today that they will have no hesitation in summoning women for jury duty as soon as the women have used the ballot.

"Decidedly, women are eligible to do jury duty," said Police Judge Edward P. Shortall, this morning. "Women cannot assume the privileges of citizenship without taking the burdens. From the attitude the men take toward jury duty, they certainly consider it a burden. So I believe that women should share the burden with the men if they are now extended the right of suffrage."

Judge John J. Sullivan, without hesitation, declared that women of California are eligible to sit as jurors.

"There is no doubt about it," he said. "I see by the newspapers that women sat on juries the other day in San Jose. The right to vote takes with it the right to do jury duty."

Police Judge Charles Weller is dubious. He said: "I have not looked into the legal side of the right of women to sit on juries and until I have done so, I do not wish to give a decided opinion. However, on the face of it, I should think that the advantages of citizenship would naturally take with them the disadvantages, the duties and the burdens. For that reason it seems only logical that women are eligible to serve as jurors so long as they have the benefit of citizenship—the right to vote."

Chamber of Commerce Finds that the Former Forester Mistook Common Courtesy for Friendly Endorsement—Will Prepare a Pleading for the American Press.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CORDOVA (Alaska) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Seattle Commercial Club has been relegated by the Alaskans to the same category in which they hold Gifford Pinchot and Senator Miles Poindexter—a place of contempt and mistrust. The conduct of the club responsible for this bitterness was its banquet tendered in honor of Pinchot and Poindexter on October 17. The Seattle organization put itself in the position of standing sponsor for two men who practically the whole population of this section of the territory regards as enemies.

All Seattle had been warned against giving a screen for what the Alaskans call Pinchot's misrepresentations which they felt would be given out as soon as the former forester found an opportunity.

The Cordova Chamber of Commerce met in special session upon receipt of news of the Pinchot meetings in Seattle to adopt a way of refuting the impressions Pinchot had tacked was his declaration in a given out. The one most atspeech to the Commercial Club that he had been received in a most friendly manner in Alaska. Angered because Pinchot, Poindexter and Lathrop mistook common courtesy for friendship the members of the chamber resolved to have printed the truth regarding Pinchot's reception and to forward copies to the press of the United States.

Young Portland Boy Enjoys Life In San Francisco Till Host Flees and Leaves Bills Unpaid.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Being the guest of a young scion of wealth who knew just how to order the nicest dinners and was not at a loss to find the places of entertainment, was the enjoyable experience of 16-year-old Chester McNeil, son of J. A. McNeil, chief clerk of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, until the bubble broke and he discovered he was practically being held in hostage.

With the pleasant sensation of being treated just right tingling in his veins, young Chester bumped squarely into the fact that his "host" had dropped from sight and had forgotten to settle the bill at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, where the youths had been staying.

The Portland boy had gone to San Francisco upon the invitation of an acquaintance whom he knew as H. S. Carr, and whom he met in Salt Lake. He promised to pay all expenses and show his friend a good time. When he disappeared young McNeil was stranded, with a hotel bill on his hands.

News of his son's plight was conveyed by telegram to McNeil, Sr., today, and he wired he would stand good for the bill. He will hasten to San Francisco if necessary to clear up the difficulty.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Douglas Grant, amateur golf champion and one of San Francisco's wealthiest youths, seems about to be solved. And Grant's father, it apears, is the man who will do the solving.

The young bride of Douglas Grant, formerly Ruth Goodrich, who was secretly wedded to young Grant last February, despite the opposition of the elder Grant, today got a writ of habeas corpus from Superior Judge Dunn, which commands Grant, Sr., to produce the bridegroom in court Thursday morning, and show cause, if any, why he should not be restored to his wife.

The elder Grant is accused of forcibly keeping his son from Mrs. Grant. It is said he devised various schemes to effect a separation between the young couple, even attempting to have young Grant take an extended tour through Europe for the purpose of evading his wife.

Douglas Grant is wealthy in his own right, and is, besides, the heir to many millions. Mrs. Ruth Goodrich Grant has not seen her husband for almost two months, and she charges her father-in-law is directly responsible for the prolonged absence.

The Grants wedded in Hoboken, N. J. A honeymoon abroad followed and they set up a home in Los Angeles, where they lived until recently, when they came to this city. Shortly after young Grant was reported missing.

HIGHWAY WORK DELAYED.

State Commissioner Says County Officials Are Slow in Providing Maps of the Route.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—The three members of the State Highway Commission and Highway Engineer A. B. Fletcher left Sausalito this morning on a second inspection tour preliminary to preparing a report on the proposed routes of the new State highways, for which $18,000,000 bonds have been voted. The itinerary includes Petaluma, Santa Rosa, Healdsburg, Ukiah, Willetta, Eureka and possibly Fort Bragg and Point Arena. The commissioners will be away ten days.

Wilson Ellis, a member of the commission, reports the work is being handicapped by the failure of many counties to supply the commission maps asked for some time ago.

"CRATES IS CRATES."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—The State Railway Commission laid down the rule today that shippers must comply substantially with the requirement of a tariff in the manner of packing and freighting goods. This important interpretation accompanied the dismissal of the complaint of the Northern California Power Company against the Southern Pacific. The power company had shipped electrical transformers mounted on skids instead of being crated, with the result that the railway charged one and one-half the crated rate. In the complaint the company asserted that its own method of shipping was much better than crating. "If shippers choose their own methods," the commission held, "endless complications would ensue." It was deemed a better policy "to require absolute compliance with the terms of the tariff."

It is composed of flour, bran, barley, potatoes, lumber, shoes, mattresses, hats, hardware, beer and canned salmon.

Education Board Meeting.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Notices were sent out today calling for a meeting of the State Board of Education at the State capital on Friday, November 3. The purpose of the meeting will be to adopt a new language book for the schools and also to modify the rules relative to computing daily attendance in the primary schools under the new State law which does away with the old school census idea in the apportionment of school moneys. Both questions are apt to cause considerable controversy.

EDNA LOFTUS HYSTERICAL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Steadfastly refusing to explain the cause of her hysterical condition when she alighted from a train in Oakland late today, Edna Loftus Rheinstrom, former actress, and wife of Harry Rheinstrom, son of a wealthy brewer of Cincinnati, who was committed to an insane asylum a year ago, is recovering from her attack in an Oakland hospital, where she refuses to receive visitors.

Shortly before noon she told one of the hospital attendants that it was her intention to come to San Francisco later.

She arrived in the Oakland depot from San Jose at 11 o'clock last night, highly hysterical. Ralph Rose, the former athlete, her lawyer, who accompanied her on the trip, had her removed to the Oakland Receiving Hospital, where she was treated. For a while it was feared she would lose her reason.

The actress and Rose had come to Oakland for the purpose of signing papers relative to an alleged ment on her by Mrs. Rheinstrom, which, it is said, will wind up her difficulties with her mother-in-law.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OROVILLE (Cal.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After six years' yeoman service rendered the Western Pacific Railway, both during construction and operating days, as general superintendent of everything in connection with the road between Stockton and Salt Lake, "Spot," the tramp dog of the road, made his debut into "high society" yesterday when he was operated on for acute appendicitis. It was reported last evening that the aristocratic dog had withstood the effects of the operation as well as might be expected and that his recovery was now almost a certainty.

Yesterday the train crews noted that the dog was acting queerly and decided that he was ill. The sum of $56 was subscribed by engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen, and the dog hastily brought to town, where the trouble was located and the operation was performed.

WHEAT SHIPPING SLOW.

OTHER FREIGHT PLENTIFUL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because they have a great amount of freight of all kinds to handle, steamship companies operating between Tacoma and California ports are having trouble in moving wheat shipments, according to shipping men. A large amount of wheat has been on hand in Tacoma since August destined for California, and there seems to be little hope of moving it soon. Steamship companies offered low rates earlier in the season to eliminate steam schooner competition. Now, it is said, the steam schooners will not handle wheat between the Sound and California at the rates offered.

GOVERNOR DECIDES UPON CALL FOR EXTRA SESSION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—After a conference with several legislators and legislative officials today, the Governor about decided to call the special session of the Legislature for Friday, December 1. The plans are for a brief session, one limited to three weeks, if possible, so that the solons may get to their homes in time for Christmas.

In fixing the time limit of the session it is estimated that one or two days will be required for getting organization under way, four to five days for disposing of the State printing office investigation and consideration of the contempt case against State Printer Shannon, about a week to dispose of apportionment of legislative districts and the remaining time for passing such legislation as may be needed in connection with the constitutional amendments, and for one or two other matters that may be included in the call for the session.

Within a few days now it is expected that the Governor will have his call ready, in which he will set forth in detail all of the matters that are to be considered. His statement at this time is that he is making haste slowly inasmuch as many weighty problems are involved.

Unlike the regular sessions where $500 was allowed the Senate and the House for attaches, the expenses of the special session will be limited to $200 a day. Only a limited number of attaches will be summoned, and these will be the best of the last session. With but a few matters to be considered, the Governor is confident that the work can be accomplished within a short time.

Marvelous.

WRIGHT'S GLIDER BREAKS ALL RECORDS OF FLYING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MANTEO (N. C.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the most wonderful flight ever made in an aeroplane without power, Orville Wright at sundown today broke into minute fragments the world's free-gliding record by remaining in the air 10 minutes and 1 second. This exceeded his own record by 8 minutes and 46 seconds and means that when the present glider is perfected man may soar aloft an unlimited time, provided he is favored by high winds.

It does not mean, however, that the problem of aerial navigation has been solved, as no soaring can be done in a calm.

The sensational flight was made at 5:15 o'clock, following a series of glides such as no man ever before saw. When, at 4:09 o'clock, Wright dropped to earth like a feather from an eagle's wing after soaring aloft for 7 minutes and 15 seconds, he was greeted with cheers by Alexander Ogilvie, his brother, Lorin Wright, and a small group of other men gathered at the crest of Kill Devil Hill, half a mile from the aviator's camp.

A few days ago, when Wright managed to stay in the air a minute and fifteen seconds, the feat was considered marvelous. The new record fairly amazed the witnesses, for, not only had Wright remained up, but flown in the teeth of a forty-mile gale, in a machine not built for such speed, and had maintained a control never before accomplished by man. The record-breaking flight was the twenty-first of the afternoon.

After the flight Wright said: "I could not stay up there any longer because the angle of resistance was so small. The flight was the most difficult that ever was attempted. While we have not solved the problem of aerial navigation, we have established the fact that one can remain in the air without a motor if we can get wind enough."

bands. If this be true, why shouldn't a man want two votes instead of one? Another argument is that if women had votes men would no longer pick up their handkerchiefs. I have lived in England twenty-six years, and during that time I have always picked up my own handkerchief and not had the advantage of a vote either.

CALLS MEN SELFISH.

"And finally, the great and overwhelming argument is that to give women votes would destroy man's home. It doesn't matter about women's, man's home is the thing to be considered. Then there is the last weakened argument, the refuge of the pessimist, that already the franchise is too large, and as women are clamoring for a vote the only remedy is to take it away from a certain number of men who have not gone through a collegiate course and cannot stand well in a spelling connection.

"We may not all have the eloquence of Miss Shaw, nor the energy and sinews of war of Mrs. Belmont, but we can stand shoulder to shoulder and march forward together, and when the gaps rend our ranks, fresh recruits will come forward and close them up. For we must never again stop or turn aside in our onward march. But above all let us, with hands across the sea and clasped together in good fellowship here in America, stand in unity."

SUGAR BARONS ARE FAVORED.

Their Freight Rates Better Than Rebate System.

Interstate Commerce Commission Amazed.

Digest of Data Their Agents Have Assembled.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Agents of the Interstate Commerce Commission have collected figures which they say prove conclusively that the American Sugar Refining Company—commonly known as the sugar trust—enjoys freight rates that are ridiculously low compared to those afforded shippers of other commodities.

The data collected in regard to the sugar company has been guarded carefully by the commission, and few knew of their existence.

NO COMPLAINT FILED.

Because the commission has no complaints on file requesting an adjudication of the sugar rates, it is highly improbable that any remedial action will be taken in the near future unless some shippers, or organization of shippers, make specific complaint of unfair treatment.

The commission's agents discovered that all the known rules of freight rate making are contravened for the purpose of granting the sugar interests preferential rates. A scale of cost prices compiled by the agents for hauling sugar and other commodities from the coast line to interior points shows the following rates:

Sugar, which is valued at approximately $150 per ton, is shipped at 1.1 mills per ton per mile.

Cement, which is valued at only $7 per ton, is shipped at 6.6 mills per ton per mile.

Machinery, the ton valuation of which is almost impossible of calculation, owing to the many classes, is charged 7.9 mills.

Coal, which has a mine valuation of a little more than $1 per ton, is charged 3.39 mills.

Produce, the value of which is variable, is charged 13 mills.

These are only a few of the remarkable discrepancies found in the commodity ratings which are all favorable to sugar.

A rate expert of the commission said:

"The old rebate system has nothing on this rate-making plan; in fact, the shippers of sugar profit more by this plan than we ever imagined they profited illegally under their old system of getting rebates from the carriers."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Algara D. Terreros, second secretary of the Mexican Embassy here, who has been appointed first secretary to the special embassy of Mexico to Italy, to thank that government for sending a special embassy to the anniversary of Mexican independence, will leave here next Monday. Francisco Leon De la Barra, the retiring Provisional President of Mexico, who will head the mission, leaves Vera Cruz November 23, following the inauguration of President-elect Madero and will join Terreros in Paris. It has not been determined whether or not Terreros will return to Washington. The special ambassador was named before the outbreak of the revolution.

PROUTY ON THE TRUSTS.

Interstate Commerce Commissioner Doubts that Any Good Can Come of Decree to Dissolve.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—"There is no greater job in the world today than the treatment of the trust problem by the government of the United States," declared Charles A. Prouty, member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, in an address here.

"Twenty-one years ago," he explained, "the Sherman anti-trust act was enacted. For more than two decades it has been the subject of judicial interpretation. It has often been passed upon by the inferior Federal courts and several times by the Supreme Court of the United States. Yet today no lawyer can advise his client with certainty whether he is within or without the inhibition of that law.

"The greatest commercial enterprise in our country is the United States Steel Corporation. Its capitalization is close to $1,500,000,000. It employs tens of thousands of workingmen, and its transactions run into many millions annually. For ten years it has been in the public eye, and it is generally understood that its operations have been entirely above-board, yet there is profound uncertainty as to whether that great enterprise is legal or not.

"I have come to believe that an indiscriminate prosecution of the great business enterprises, even though it results in decrees of dissolution, will in the long run produce little practical good. If there are evils connected with the organization or the operation of these monopolies—and there are very grave evils—they must be reached by some different method."

Wife of Paralyzed Miner and the Mother of a Large Family Has the Pick of the Acreage in the Sioux Indian Reservation Said to Be Worth Fifty Thousand Dollars.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RAPID CITY (S. D.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Mary J. Kendall of Rapid City who drew No. 1 in the Sioux Indian land drawing in Gregory, S. D., today was the most astounded citizen of Rapid City when told of her good fortune.

"God surely helps His own," she exclaimed as she burst out crying.

The Kendall family is very poor. The husband is a helpless and hopeless paralytic and the wife frail, small and 42 years old, has supported the family for the last six years, weaving carpets in the daytime and sewing for neighbors far into the night. This work is in addition to her services in taking physical care of her helpless husband. Kendall was a miner in the big Homestake and other mines of the Black Hills until paralyzed.

"They tell me it is worth $50,000," said Mrs. Kendall. "What an awful lot of money for one person to have, and to think it came so easy. Why, I've worked for years and been able to save nothing, and then to have all this money come to me right in a big bunch and without working for it, too. It cost me 25 cents, the registration fee. I thought a long time, doubting whether I could spare the quarter which was a certainty, for the chance of a farm.

"But thank God, my husband can now have all the medicines necessary and he can have the very best physicians treat him; maybe he will get so he can walk."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Byron Waters, representing the California interior counties intervenors, argued the Commerce Court today in the proceeding relating to the long and short haul.

WOMAN DOCTOR FOULLY SLAIN.

Mystery Surrounds Death in Indianapolis Apartment.

Body, Gashed at Throat, Is Found Upon Bed.

No Weapon at Hand to Give Clew to Crime.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Oct. 24.—How Dr. Helene Knabe, former State bacteriologist, found in bed today with her head almost severed by the slash of a knife, came to her death remained tonight a mystery.

Jefferson Haynes, the negro janitor of the apartment-house where Dr. Knabe lived, was detained on suspicion for a time, but tonight, the detectives let him go.

The theory of suicide was revived tonight, but the police declared the evidence to indicate murder. The knife with which Dr. Knabe was killed has not been found, and the Coroner and the police were of the opinion that if she herself gashed her throat, she would not have had strength to hide the knife and then return to her bed.

Haynes, the janitor, told the police that he was awakened in the night by screams, apparently in Dr. Knabe's apartments, but he went to sleep again without investigating. Toward morning he said, he heard footsteps in the room above him.

Dr. Knabe was 35 years of age, and of strikingly attractive appearance. She had never married. She was a member of the American Medical Association's Committee on the education of women in hygiene and the pathology of childbirth and was devoted to physical culture progress among women.

Dr. Knabe's body was found when her assistant, Miss Catherine McPherson, entered the apartment. The body and the bed upon which it lay were covered with blood, but no weapon was found in any of the rooms, nor was it apparent a robbery had been committed. All the windows were closed, though the victim, who was devoted to physical culture, habitually slept with the windows open.

Dr. Knabe was last seen alive by Miss McPherson, to whom she had said late yesterday that she intended to spend the evening in study. She lived and had her office on the ground floor of an apartment-house in a prosperous and quiet neighborhood. No persons, so far as has been learned, heard sounds of a struggle in Dr. Knabe's apartment last night.

Augusta Knabe, the physician's cousin, and the latters stepfather, Frank Kropp, told the police that Dr. Knabe had no enemy, so far as they knew.

Mr. White ordered a "little of each." Mr. Dyspepsia Black ordered crackers and a glass of milk. "I had such a big breakfast this morning," he said, "that I'll just take a bite to keep you company." But Mr. White could not be deceived. "I am afraid you can't stand the gleam, Mr. Black. Why don't you say you have dyspepsia and be done with it? You'll always have that hungry look anyhow as long as you have dyspepsia. Now, listen. My stomach was in just as bad condition as yours at one time. But now I can eat anything, at any time. For instance, this clam chowder or sirloin steak, or even the lobster would be just as welcome to my stomach as your crackers and milk. You don't realize how this dyspepsia business is robbing you of your spirit, of your energy and ability to think quickly. I can't help notice it. You haven't the cheer and sociability you had three months ago. Now, I'll tell you what to do," and thereat the cheerful Mr. White took a vial from his pocket and extracted a wee tablet. "There, there is a tablet that contains an ingredient, one grain of which digests 3000 grains of food. For even the worst dyspeptic it's the only thing that really gives relief. The reason is it relieves the stomach of nearly all the work it has to do, digests everything in the stomach and stimulates the gastric juice. I can't get along without them. They are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them anywhere on earth for 50c a package."

Yes, it is true, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely stop heartburn, nausea, indigestion, dyspepsia of the worst type, sour stomach, bloaty feeling and all eructations and irritation, and freshen and invigorate the stomach. They cheer you up, and make you get all the good there is in your food. You will forget you ever had a stomach to worry you.

TROUBLE WITH HYDE JURY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Oct. 24.—A new special venire of 100 men appeared at Judge E. E. Porterfield's court today for examination as to their qualifications to serve as jurors in the second trial of Dr. B. Clark Hyde for the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope. Only a few minutes after the trial opened yesterday all of the first veniremen were excused because the defense insisted the panel had been drawn illegally. Prior to the opening of court today, Attorney Frank P. Walsh, chief counsel for Dr. Hyde, announced his intention of asking the dismissal of the second panel on the same ground.

FOR A PERRY MEMORIAL.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 24.—Final details for the construction of a memorial at Put-in-bay to commemorate Perry's victory and the selection of an architect to design the monument have been announced by the Perry memorial commission. The memorial will consist of a lofty monument with a museum for historical relics at its base, standing on a reservation of fourteen acres, to be erected at a cost of $600,000. The programme of competition for the selection of an architect conforms to the principles of the American Institute of Architects and has interested architects throughout the world. Competitors will have the fullest scope for their artistic imaginations. The prize of the competition will be the appointment as architect to design and superintend the construction of the memorial. There will also be three prizes for the authors of the designs placed next to the winner. George H. Worthington, president-general of the Perry memorial commission, announced committees of prominent men to assist in the Perry centennial celebration to be held in Cleveland the week of June 22, 1913.

PREMONITION COMES TRUE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ELGIN (Ill.) Oct. 24.—Describing a premonition of her own death, Mrs. Cora Etnyre, who was shot by her husband a week ago when I. found her in Chicago with Corporal Barlow of Fort Sheridan, penned several months ago a remarkably graphic story of how she expected to be sought out and killed. The manuscript, found yesterday, among her possessions, gives in minute detail a description of Mrs. Etnyre's meeting with Barlow, an incident to transpire many weeks after the writing. It gives with accuracy an account of how she would visit her mother's home in Chicago with him and how many times she would meet him there. In the story as she wrote it weeks before the fatal night, she graphically portrays the appearance of her husband, his rage at finding her, his accusations and threats and finally the brandishing of a revolver, the struggle which followed and her own death, as well as the injury to Barlow, all of which came about as true to the details of the description as though it were written by a witness.

Helpful Hints on Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to someone else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hat band is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Los Angeles only at our stores, The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Seattle, Spokane, Portland.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Clyde Seavey of the State Board of Control, left today for a ten days' inspection trip of State institutions. He is making the trip in compliance with the new law which requires an annual inspection of each institution. He will begin with those in the southern part of the State. ENGINE HOUSE FIGHT CENTER.

Second-and-Oxford People Do Not Want It.

City Decides to Buy Lot; Suit Threatened.

Councilmen Wrangle About the Transaction.

Flatly asserting that Councilman [illegible]'s son-in-law had advance information as to the intention of the city to build a fire-engine house in the neighborhood of S...ond street and Oxford avenue and had us...l that information to secure an option on a piece of [illegible], Councilman O'Brien raised a storm at the session of the Council Saturday afternoon.

A committee of women from the neighborhood, where it has been decided to put the building, appeared before the Council, led by Mrs. J. C. Wilson and Mrs. W. H. Bayley. Mrs. Wilson's house adjoins the property and she has been active in trying to prevent the city from locating the engine-house there. She and the other residents of the neighborhood declare that it will depreciate property values.

"Brien said he would like to know of the agent was who had acted for the city in the matter. He looked at Councilman Whitten.

"His name is Fletcher," said Whitten.

"Is he any relative of yours?" said O'Brien.

"He is my son-in-law," replied Whitten.

ADVANCE INFORMATION?

It was very plain, O'Brien said, that Fletcher had received advance information that the city was going to buy a lot, that he had used that information. The option had been secured for $2000, it was stated, and he let sold to the city for $2350. Whitten made an indignant reply to O'Brien in which he declared that he knew nothing abou. the real estate transaction whatever, or the option, and that he had not bee. trying to injure anyone's property, as had been insinuated, and that everyone had known as to by the young women of the home and about 100 other guests, the commander spoke of "Ideals of Womanhood," and it was full of a tender understanding of what life means to the young woman who is forced to live apart from her own people, or who is entirely alone in the world. She congratulated the residents of the home and the management upon the possession of such an ideal place, where they can live with home comforts.

This home is in charge of Staff Captain and Mrs. William Webster, and has a capacity of 150 young women. From the time it was opened, two years ago, it has been fully occupied most of the time. The young women who make their home there have the privilege of a roof garden and a delightful music room, as well as of the laundry and sewing-room.

The building, which is four stories high, is equipped with every modern convenience, with hot and cold water in every room. It is elegantly furnished throughout, and as near as may be, is a comfortable, private home. Its privileges are not limited to the members of the Salvation Army, but a cordial welcome is extended to every young woman who finds it convenient to her work and needs. It has been one of the most successful and pleasant enterprises inaugurated by the Los Angeles wing of the Army.

In speaking of her visit here Commander Booth said that her reception by the people of Los Angeles had been of the utmost cordiality, and that the sweetness of her welcome will remain one of her life's choicest memories.

Not Salts, Oil or Pills, But Cascarets.

No Odds How Sick Your Stomach; How Hard Your Head Aches or How Bilious—Cascarets Make You Feel Great.

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

NOBLE IDEALS OF WOMANHOOD.

COMMANDER EVA BOOTH AT THE YOUNG WOMEN'S HOME.

Parting Address of the Head of Salvation Army Delivered to Those Who Have the Closest Place in Her Heart—Highly Pleased With Her Reception Here.

Commander Evangeline Booth's final address in Los Angeles, before her departure for Chicago, was delivered on last night at the Young Women's Boarding Home, which the Army conducts on Grand avenue, near Fifth street.

In her address, which was listened to an engine-house would have to [illegible] in that neighborhood. Stewart Whitten and declared that no one would question Whitten's ideas of propriety or doubt that the transaction had been carried on in good

Mrs. Wilson of the Property Owners' Committee at this point said that she made any accusations against Whitten, but that it is purely a matter of business with the residents there. She said on that site it had been set apart for residence purposes and that when who had bought land had done so with the distinct agreement that only residences would be built there. On Western avenue, which is a section set apart for business purposes, there is where the engine-house should be built, she said.

"How will the city lose anything by this deal?" she said, "for its property is increasing in value rapidly. For instance, the gentleman who got this option got it for $2000, and three months later, it is quoted at $3350. If the values in the [illegible] lue $350 in three months it will be worth quite a lot."

Members of the committee told the Times last night that when the committee had made this selection on Second street and Oxford avenue, he had told his fellow members that there would be no objection and he would like very much to meet the residents' views.

COMMITTEE HEARD.

Mrs. Bayley declared to the Council that it had not been limited to this one site—that there had been one bid on Western avenue for a sixty-foot lot offered to the city for $3550, and another of fifty-foot frontage had been offered by W. H. Newton for $1500 on Western avenue. A small misunderstanding of a technical character in the deed had caused it to be laid aside.

She insisted that Mrs. Bayley be shown—that the only offer of property on Western avenue had been for a piece of property at $4200, and that was too high.

Whitten said the city should not buy the Second and Oxford lot—that the location was unquestionably ill-advised and not in proper form. Whitten, at some of O'Brien's words, said: "I don't like your insinuations." O'Brien was just replying when Washburn called the two to order and on a vote the Council approved the purchase of the lot.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Bayley held a conference with their committee and said that an injunction would be filed against the city in the matter, and that the city will only get

JUDGMENT REVERSED.

The judgment and order of Judge Conrey of the Los Angeles Superior Court, in the case brought by George Kriste and G. Perkucin against the International Savings and Exchange Bank, were reversed by the District Court yesterday. Suit was brought to recover $36,650, alleged to have been deposited with the defendant bank, and $125 damages, and the lower court found for the plaintiffs. Appeal was taken from the judgment and also from an order denying a motion for a new trial.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

"Millionaires and Reds."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—[To the Editor of the Times:] Your editorial in Monday's issue headed "Millionaires and Reds" deserves the most careful reading by all good citizens who desire the welfare and continued prosperity of advanced civilization in this, the greatest country that ever existed on God's earth.

Your article makes a general inventory of "things as they are" and is a true and "reasonable" indictment against "millionaires" and "reds."

To perpetuate individuality and fair dealings between men, the "Sherman anti-trust law" and thousands of other laws have been enacted. This entanglement of law is full of defective and worn-out parts and public opinion, the motive power, fails in performing the reform intended.

A similar condition confronted our forefathers four generations ago. The conditions under which they lived seemed to them unfair; and inventory of things as they were was taken and resulted in the "Declaration of Independence" and the natural birth of a free country followed. Later in our national history things got tangled up: the South and North, from different view-points, made independent inventories of social and industrial conditions. Their trial balances differed. Right prevailed as it always does when men fight fair and "a united people" agreed to stand for and support the great principles of liberty and equality.

"The safety of the republic is the supreme law," but both the "safety of the republic" and the "supreme law" depend upon the establishment and perpetuation of fair conditions that grant equal rights and forbid special privileges. Condition and environments can be changed—human nature remains unaltered.

Ordinarily an editorial only carries its own weight and the weight of its author, but the article on "Millionaires and Reds" is the reflected thought and the expressed opinion of those who have the right to rule, the normal, fair-minded middle class, always composed of the big majority when a great forward movement is being made. Unerringly the "Millionaires and Reds" points to the erring trend of humanity. This editorial should be printed throughout our land so a full and free consideration might be given a subject of vastly more importance than party politics and private gain.

I heartily applaud and approve your opinion rendered upon "Millionaires and Reds." Your article, Mr. Editor, is free from prejudice and ulterior motive and should demand deep thought and discussion that will finally lead to a reasonable readjustment in our social and industrial life and more firmly establish fair dealings on earth, which will promote peace and happiness and inspire a hope for heaven and harmony.

EDNA IS COMING TO PRESS SUIT.

PRELIMINARY CLASH IN THE GOODWIN CONTEST.

Nat Admits His Last Marriage May Have Been a Breach of Propriety, but Asserts He Was the Innocent Victim of a Villainous Fraud—Contentions.

In the final preliminary to the big legal clash pending in the Superior Court between Nat Goodwin and Edna Goodrich, the latest stage star to divorce him, briefs brimful of personalities were filed yesterday by their attorneys. Goodwin admits the marriage pact entered into with Edna may have been a breach of propriety, but charges the actress made him the innocent victim of a villainous fraud.

"The men today are wearing very narrow trousers. They are getting more narrow all the time and it will be but a few years before they will wear the same styles that were in vogue during the days of the last Louis of France, or during colonial times in the United States," he said.

"How much more handsome is the man who can display a good figure in knee breeches than he who wears the present ordinary looking garments which do not show at all the form as the Creator made it. It really seems shameful that men should not have more pride in their figures, carry themselves straightly and correctly, and dress in the things which help in graceful appearance."

When asked whether he would willingly wear such garments he said that he would be among the first to adopt them were they introduced in Paris. Further along he spoke of laced and ruffled shirts, which he said were far prettier than the fearful stiff bosom creations which men wear today. "The hard front shirt is even unhealthy. It restricts in walking, it binds the breathing muscles and should be discontinued absolutely," he said.

"How much better it would be to see a man dressed in a fine silk shirt prettily trimmed in old lace. And silk hose and shoes with buckles would be much more pleasant than our loosely-tied and slovenly-appearing string shoes, or button shoes with half the buttons off."

Bourque thinks that these clothes reforms would be just the thing and also that they will be first taken up as evening dress reforms. He insinuates that men will go so far back that they will willingly wear again the powdered wig and think it smart.

"It is certain that clothing changes radically every century, both for men and women, and we have had a century of men's clothing in the present styles."

Bourque is here for a pleasure tour and will remain a week or more, making visits to many points of interest which he says are as well known in Paris as in most parts of America.

Who Wants It?

FREE LAND LIES FOR THE ASKING.

TWO HUNDRED ACRES WITHOUT PRIVATE OWNERSHIP.

For Years a Man Has Been Living on the Strip Thinking It Was Government Property When He Might Have Claimed It for His Own. Still Subject to Homestead Entry.

In completing the plats of the contention between the owners of the old Spanish grant, known as Rancho Guadalu ca, an the government, about twenty miles north of Santa Monica, the land officials have discovered a strip containing about 200 acres of land running back from the ocean into the hills that is still subject to entry under the homestead act.

On one piece of the tract, containing about twenty-two acres, George Marsh has a cabin and he will, no doubt, be among the entrymen, but as under the laws he can secure but 160 acres of land, there will be a bit left for the first to make entry following Tuesday, December 5, when the plat will be on exhibition at the rooms of the local Land Office in the Federal building. The land is technically known as fractional township one, south, range twenty, west, San Bernardino base and meridian.

Under the provisions of the homestead laws an entryman must live on the land for five consecutive years and cultivate one-eighth of the area, but he may secure leaves of absence from the Land Office, although the period of these leaves is not counted in the five-year period.

This is not the last piece of government land in Los Angeles county subject to entry, as there is quite a lot of it in the northern part of the county. The fact that Marsh has lived on a part of the land for some time indicates that he will be an early applicant for a quarter-section, if he has not already filed his application.

PLANS FOR SHRINE SHOW.

Hundred Thousand Dollars Is to be Raised for Visitors' Entertainment and Many Features Planned.

Motley H. Flint, Potentate of the Mystic Shrine and chairman of the Executive Committee arranging for the entertainment of the visiting Shriners next May, has completed the preliminary arrangements for the Household Show, which will be held in Los Angeles November 6 to 18. This show is being arranged in order to raise part of the $100,000 necessary for the entertainment of the Shriners.

There will be two big features in the Household Show, one being the baby show, details for which are not announced, and the country show, which will run from the opening to the closing night.

Special features have been arranged for each day. After the opening night, which will be in charge of the Shrine, November 7 will be given over to Frank Wiggins as representative of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Auditorium will be given over to the theatrical stars November 17. Society night will be November 8.

The Elks, Moose and Shriners will all have a day to themselves, and on Thursday, November 16, the Auditorium will be given over to the Grand Army.

One of the most unique features of the Household Show will be the cake contest, to which all the most famous chefs of California have been asked to donate a cake, with the recipe attached.

SUCCESSFUL CARNIVAL.

The "Carnival of Nations" held by the Young Men's Institute in the Woman's Club House closed last night. It was such a success that $600 was obtained. The general programme last night was the same as Monday evening except in the ballroom and the Spanish theater. The former consisted of specialties by Baby Claire Connor, vocal solo by Frank Ellerkamp, monologue by Miss Hazel Ryan, vocal solo by Florence Pauly and parodies by Christy Walsh. In the Spanish theater was trick piano playing by Miss Rhea Haynes, character songs by Elmer Odette, Spanish dances by Miss Stella Gonsales, character dancing by Miss Alice Whitacre and a song and dance by Miss Elizabeth Olivas and Master Gonzales. During the evening Miss May McManus played the harpsicord in the Irish booth.

MEN'S KNEE BREECHES MAY COME IN STYLE.

KNEE breeches, silk hose and ruffled lace shirts are things that men are coming to in their wearing apparel within the next ten years, according to Louis Bourque, gentleman of leisure and sartorial expert of Paris, who is staying at the Alexandria.

Bourque came in late yesterday evening and rather than discuss politics he turned to styles.

DUTY NOT IMPOSED.

In the District Court yesterday the writ of mandate asked for Ruth M. Rose as against Harry J. Lelande, County Clerk, was denied. The court held that no duty devolved by law upon the clerk to certify or attest the transcript containing a reporter's notes, or the papers desired to be included therein, not included in the judgment roll.

WHAT HAPPENED TO CRIPPEN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEWARK (N. J.) Oct. 24.—A letter alleged to have been written to Allison MacFarland, charged with the murder of his wife, by Miss Florence Bromley, the Philadelphia girl, who was formerly MacFarland's stenographer, was made public this afternoon. It says:

"Dear Mac: Be careful. You know what happened to Dr. Crippen."

Detectives also intercepted a letter from MacFarland to Miss Bromley, of which the following is said to be a copy:

"Dear Bunny: It is a shame since our affairs were going smoothly. Don't you care. The worst is that we can only die. It was probably a mistake, as my wife did not know of our affairs. She may have done it purposely.—Mac."

Counsel for MacFarland intimated that the defense would be based on the theory that Mrs. MacFarland committed suicide.

WANT OFFICERS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Questions are being prepared by a board of army officers to be propounded to captains and second lieutenants with a view to their selection for a four-year detail in the ordnance department. The examination will be held January 29, 1912. At present there are thirteen vacancies. To be assigned to this select branch of the service, an officer must have had much experience. Only those with at least two years of commissioned service and graduates of the service schools and the staff college who have served two years with the organizations to which they belong are eligible.

A Silken Lustre To the Dullest Hair.

(Fashion's Mirror.)

"Proper care of hair and scalp does not mean time-consuming and expensive trips to the hair-dresser's. Simplicity is the keynote—just an occasional brushing of scalp and hair on which has been sprinkled a tablespoonful of dry shampoo mixture. This is brushed through and out of the hair, and with it comes all dust, dandruff and excess oil.

"To prepare the dry shampoo, mix together either 4 ounces of orris root or corn meal, and 4 ounces therox. Keep in sifter-top can and use once or twice each week. After a few shampoos dull, 'stringy,' lifeless or brittle hair grows wonderously soft, silky and lustrous. Continued using induces a luxuriant growth."

Goulash.

BEAR GARDEN OF CANDIDATES.

Socialists Pack Forum at Luna Park Event.

Mixed Menu of Political Campaign Dishes.

Candidates for Mayor Speak in Evening.

The all-day forum at Luna Park yesterday as a roaring piece of press agency on the part of the park management was a business success. Politically the forum was captured by the socialists, who packed the meeting last night with about 2000 of their supporters. The afternoon meeting narrowly escaped being a case of suspended animation.

Both in the afternoon and at night there was a large attendance of women, but since the new electors have no voice in the primaries the candidates saved their happy allusion to the gentler half of the audience for such electioneering as may be left for them to do after the primaries have reduced the list of candidates for City Council from fifty-seven to eighteen or less.

Last night's meeting was notable for its joyful mixture of political creeds. Four of the candidates for Mayor were heard, as well as candidates for the Council from all tickets. The programme was a sort of political goulash. If it had been soup it would have been made the way people in New Orleans make gumbo. All of the people could not eat all of the ingredients, but most of them managed to find something at which to nibble.

Next to Harriman, whose people had the meeting packed, Mushet received the most cordial reception. He made a smashing speech, in which he declared himself on the proposition of personal rights as opposed to prohibition, and announced himself as safely in the middle of the road between labor and capital. His entrance into the building savored of the dramatic. He opened his remarks with a flat denial that he favored an open town, or anything disgraceful, but declared himself for a progressive city on broad, honest and right lines. He advocated municipal ownership of land under municipal water, said that there was no occasion for taxes having been raised if it is true that the city has a big reserve fund, of which the officials boast, and accused the opposition of trying to confuse the real issue by misrepresenting his attitude as to personal rights.

Louis G. Guernsey was the first and youngest speaker of the evening. The Socialists had not yet taken full possession of the hall and Guernsey made a good impression.

Miles S. Gregory said he favored a new City Hall and that if elected the front doors of his office would be open at all times to the poor as well as the rich.

ALEXANDER SPEAKS.

Mayor Alexander spoke for twenty minutes answering the charges of his opponents as to the alleged mismanagement of aqueduct affairs. He touched upon the contract of the city with the Southern Pacific for the aqueduct freight, showing that it had been decidedly favorable to the city. This point was emphasized later by City Auditor Meyers, who presented figures prepared by an expert, showing that the city is nearly a quarter of a million dollars richer for having its contract rates with the railroad company.

R. W. Dromgold touched on a number of vital points, one of them bearing against the election of Councilmen-at-Large. This feature of the direct non-partisan primary law, he said, has been the scapegoat for the Good Government organization in indorsing a ticket before the primary election against the spirit of the primary law. The Good Government people have given as their excuse for their indorsements the alleged fact that the people at large cannot possibly be acquainted with all of the candidates and that it would not be safe for them to make their own selection. No organization could thus break faith with the primary law and play into the hands of the bosses if city Councilmen were elected by wards, said Dromgold. He thought this would greatly simplify city elections and take the Council out of the hands of a boss or a machine.

The Socialists had the ambiguous experience of being roasted to a turn by another Socialist. Hayden Morgan of the Socialist Labor party, secured the platform for five vituperative minutes to tell the Socialists that Job Harriman is not the man for Mayor and that James O. Becker is their only hope and salvation. Becker had spoken for himself very late in the afternoon, but the audience had dwindled to half a hundred before he was introduced.

Frank Pratt was one of the speakers who was cordially received, but he sprung the Socialist trap by mentioning Harriman, and realized that the meeting was a plant by the applause which greeted Harriman's name.

Other speakers were J. J. Petermichel, H. S. McCallum and Bernard Healy. William M. Bowen presided.

AFTERNOON DOINGS.

Perhaps the two star speakers of the afternoon were L. D. Cannon and Capt. Lewis Hansen. Cannon was interesting for what he had to say and Hansen for the way he said it. The programme could not be called an all-star offering. The event was more like the sky with a good many clouds through which a pale star now and then twinkled in a dull way and then retired to regret it.

Capt. Hansen represented Mr. Mushet and San Pedro. It must not be understood by this that San Pedro is running for Mayor. Mr. Mushet is running for Mayor and Capt. Hansen's part of San Pedro wants him elected. Capt. Hansen's apologies for having supported Mayor Alexander two years ago were received and by the consent of silence they were duly adopted. It had been done in good faith on his part, he said. He simply hadn't known any better. It has been a sort of mistaken identity which he is being careful not to repeat.

Free water, a transfer system which will make transfers good for twenty-four hours and a cross-town car line which would appear to order were some of the features recommended by Cannon, who wants to be elected to the Council independently so that he may work that way when he gets there. He intends to pay for the free water by a system of general taxation.

Other speakers of the afternoon were John R. Hailey, Independent; I. G. Jacoby, Independent, and T. W. Williams, Socialist. These men confessed themselves tremendously in earnest about being elected and promised to be good. All of the speakers were allowed fifteen minutes each, excepting Larry Bradley, who proved himself a remarkable forum ring master by having a watch instead of a whip. This young alarm clock he used with fine effect every time eloquence threatened to become so imposing as to be an imposition.

To Register Women in Park.

J. M. Patrick yesterday received a permit from the Mayor and the Park Commission to register women in Central Park today. Men are welcome to register also, but the idea in thus establishing a registration booth out doors is to facilitate the registration of the new voters. Patrick will have as many deputies as the day's work may require. At 9 o'clock he will start with two near the fountain, and if the number of applicants justifies, he will place two clerks at each of the four entrances to the park.

Patrick is to register all, without regard to party affiliation.

The Truth.

AQUEDUCT LINE PROFITS CITY.

SOCIALIST CLAIMS SHOWN FALSE BY THE CITY AUDITOR.

Contract for the Building of the Branch from Mojave When Analyzed Proves that the City Has Saved a Quarter of a Million Instead of Costing Excessive Sum.

That the contract between the city and the Southern Pacific Railroad for the aqueduct branch line has not been the means of the city losing $660,000 as Harriman and the reds are claiming, but has been profitable, was shown by City Auditor Myers in a statement read at the Luna Park candidate's forum last night. In this statement Mr. Myers said:

"The socialists have charged that in a period of five years, the aqueduct freights upon seven commodities have shown an over-charge to the city of $893,000. The truth is the building of the aqueduct has only been in progress for forty-two months. If this statement were true, the loss for that time would be $415,128.

"O. T. Helping, a well-known freight rate expert, has, at my request, recently made an investigation of the figures used on various occasions by the socialists, with a result that instead of showing a loss to the city, the city has actually been saved, in the period of forty-two months, the sum of $249,937, over and above what it would have paid, if it had not had the contract.

"Since the making of the contract, the tariff schedule has been adopted and put in operation over this branch road, and all shippers, excepting the city, are required to pay the rates thus established.

"It is therefore perfectly obvious to an intelligent man that the city has a better bargain with the transportation company than any of the private shippers. The statements made by the socialist orators are ridiculous on their face, and cannot be borne out by the record. These statements show that the socialists have not reached the facts."

ENDORSE ADMINISTRATION.

Voters of Southwest Urge Alexander's Re-election as an Escape from San Francisco Experience.

After his Luna Park speech last night Mayor Alexander was driven to the West Side Christian Church, Western avenue and Thirtieth street, where the members of the Good Government Club of the 17th precinct were assembled. The Mayor told them of his efforts to preserve civic decency in Los Angeles and his purpose to bring it to a higher level during his next administration. After the Mayor's address came the adoption by the club of the following resolution, prepared by L. R. Wharton, president of the club, indorsing his administration and urging his re-election:

"Whereas, desperate efforts are being made by varied special interests of questionable character to wrest the control of the City of Los Angeles from the forces whose activities, during the past two years have resulted in establishing the reputation of this city throughout the nation as one of the best governed cities in the world, and the model residential city of the United States; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the Good Government voters of the 17th Precinct, that such efforts are to be condemned as unworthy of genuinely patriotic citizens, whether they are exerted by a body of men designated as a political party, or by a body of men seeking to establish conditions dangerously near the low level which for years disgraced the name of San Francisco.

"Resolved, that in this crisis the re-election of Mayor George Alexander and a Good Government Council to uphold him in the work planned for the coming two years is absolutely imperative if the fair name of this city is to be preserved throughout the nation."

FOR CIVIC DECENCY.

Gibbon Urges East Side Voters to Continue Administration—Harriman Against Aqueduct.

"Every law-abiding citizen who believes in true liberty will do all in his power to retain George Alexander as Mayor of Los Angeles, but every black-hearted scoundrel who desires a license to conduct a business for the damnation of the souls of young men and women will vote for Mushet or some other candidate," said T. E. Gibbon, chairman of the Harbor Commission, at a meeting held last night in Conaty Hall on North Broadway.

"Alexander has given this city the cleanest administration in its history," continued the speaker. "A saloon-keeper told me a few days ago that this was the first city administration he had ever seen during which a policeman did not come up every few days holding his hand behind him, soliciting 'hush' money.

"I have been accused of being a socialist. Well, I do want the city to own its own railroad to San Pedro, and I want Los Angeles to own every public service corporation that it is possible for the city to own. I am a socialist that far, but I am not a socialist of the type of Harriman, who bitterly denounced the men who worked hardest to launch the construction of the Owens River aqueduct."

Other speakers at the meeting last night were Frank Cattern and Charles McKenzie, the latter a candidate for Councilman.

THE POLITICAL WATCHTOWER.

In order to facilitate the registration of women, especially those who cannot leave their employment during the day, Thomas McAleer, registration deputy of the County Clerk, yesterday made arrangements to have deputies at the Courthouse and City Hall until 9 o'clock each night. This plan was followed last evening, but there were few callers, as the fact had not been announced. McAleer says this will be continued every night until November 9 in order that all women may register in time for the December election.

While the hour is fixed at 9 o'clock now, it will be made later if the necessities require it. McAleer says all the deputies needed will be furnished.

There is really no reason why every woman should not register and it is expected that within a few days every possible facility will be provided. There is a heavy registration of the socialist women and the reds are actively canvassing from house to house and taking the registration of all who will acknowledge party affiliation.

The night system will be of distinct advantage to all women. The front entrances of both the City Hall and Courthouse will be open and the deputies will be in the corridors or rooms near by.

In addition the force of over 200 special deputies will be at work throughout the city. Special deputies will be placed in department stores and in Central Park. It is also announced that these deputies are required to receive all registrations and return the same to the County Clerk and may not discriminate against any one because of political affiliations. It is understood that socialist deputies have declined to register any but those of their own faith.

Because of the arrangements for women at night it is not intended to say that men cannot enjoy the same privileges. The force will be ample to handle all comers, McAleer announces.

As was expected, the Earl organs are out advocating the scratching of the good government ticket. The reason is seen in the manner in which the names of the Earl slate are printed. They are so arranged that the names of Councilmen Andrews and Betkouski, which head the good government indorsed list, are last and apart from the rest.

And "there's a reason." It was Andrews and Betkouski who were most obstinate, along with O'Brien, in resisting the efforts of Lissner in two different periods of rate-fixing, to increase the rates of the Home Telephone Company. Having failed in this test they are to be branded as no longer "good." Councilmen Whiffen, Lusk and Williams, who with the three named, made up the "solid six" that sent Lissner to the bench and the telephone increase along with him, are in the same boat; but the Earl system prefers to try to "get" two of the six and trust to the three new candidates—Dr. Langdon, McKenzie and Topham—to insure tractibility to Earl's future efforts. Andrews and Betkouski were palpably anti-Earl and anti-Lissner; they were offensive to the boss; their conduct was lesmajest.

However, the Earl saw will cut both ways, and if he works it vigorously enough he will find it out on election day. Independence appeals to fairminded voters.

The reds' windup of a menacing campaign will begin tonight with a meeting at the Mason Operahouse. Another, an "overflow," at Blanchard Hall, has also been arranged. The reds and unionists can count the numbers they can force out on such occasions and have reason to provide two halls. At the Mason Lewis J. Duncan, Mayor of Butte, will speak with Stanley B. Wilson. At Blanchard Hall Alexander Irvine will hold the reds until Duncan gets through at the Operahouse, after which he will speak at Blanchard Hall.

It is expected that both houses will be filled. When the laborites send out their orders, and Pasadena, Long Beach and other towns respond, these are always enough to fill two such places.

It is this method that has led the reds to gain the most improbable ideas of their own strength and to deceive many others. From appearances at meetings it seems that the Socialists have the call on voters. But it is a deception, for their crowds are made up of the same people and they participate nightly in all the meetings held. In addition there are hundreds, not in sympathy with them, who go from motives of curiosity.

It is amazing, the abundant financial means the reds seem to have. Their bills for halls each week must run high—higher in fact than any other organization may incur for themselves. Their's has been the most expensive sort of campaigning. And yet they are always pleading impecuniosity and taking up collections.

The next big meeting will be held Friday afternoon at the Auditorium when Helen McGregor Todd, of Illinois, recently honored and applauded at the City Club, will speak. Duncan and J. Stitt Wilson, Mayor of Berkeley, will also talk. Friday night Wilson will make an address at the Mason and Sunday afternoon the reds' mass meeting will be addressed by ten speakers. A parade and another meeting at the Auditorium Monday night will end the campaign.

Showing his contempt for the civil service law of the city, which he has declared has been nullified by this administration, Job Harriman visited many fire-engine houses Saturday to talk politics, pensions and platoon methods with the firemen. So far as is known, he is the only politician that has made it his business to seek to organize the civil service members of the fire department in his behalf.

The gall of it seems still greater, when it is remembered that Harriman has not been a citizen of Los Angeles more than three months, having moved in from San Gabriel to run for office, and that he is not a taxpayer of the city.

His real pretext for visiting the houses is said to have been to deny that he had decided to reappoint a former member of the commission if he is elected, this former member being now unpopular with the firemen.

Colored voters are becoming active in municipal politics in behalf of Mayor Alexander. Tonight at Scott's Hall, No. 561 South Central avenue, the Afro-American Council will hold a meeting of colored voters, which the Mayor will address. Tomorrow night another meeting will be held at Washington rink, on East Twelfth street, where the Mayor and a number of prominent colored voters will speak.

Because the Good Government Central Committee and precinct workers will meet tonight there will be no meetings other than the two at which the Mayor is to address the colored voters.

Miles S. Gregory, independent candidate for Mayor, will address a meeting tonight at Blair's Hall, Normandie avenue and Jefferson street. There will be other speakers.

While others are busy finding reasons why the city did not get any bids for the harbor and power bonds, political managers with their ears to the ground are learning that public opinion generally is that the threat of a socialist administration in Los Angeles is the real cause. The city has ahead of it a large problem in debt-making and, to insure stability of its credit, it must convince the investors, large and small, that there is no danger of the great projects for which the credit of the people is to be used falling into hands that may wreck them or impoverish the city's ability to pay. The general opinion is that nothing would so demoralize the progressive policies of the city as a socialist regime.

Daily real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 8 o'clock Saturday night. Other classified "Wants," "To Lets," etc., received by mail or by telephone until 11 p.m. Ads. received after closing hours or with dickies will be inserted under the head of "Too Late to Classify." Rates, 25c per word.

On Sunday circulation of The Times exceeds 70,000 copies, and more "liners" are carried printed in its columns than in any other Los Angeles newspapers combined.

Produces your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night and it comes prompt and careful attention.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

—AND—
OWN YOUR HOME.

We want 7 per cent. interest on our money and instead of lending it out we build good homey bungalows on well located lots and sell them on easy terms. That's the way we invest our money.

Now you can take your rent money providing you can pay $100 down to show your good faith and pay it each month on one of these bungalows. In this way we become partners. We furnish the capital—and you get immediate possession of the property. When you have paid one-half the purchase price you can stop the monthly payments by taking a deed and giving us a straight 7 year 7 per cent. mortgage. Could anything be fairer? Save your rent money and you are soon independent.

We sell a 4-room strictly modern bungalow for $1850 and five-room at $2150. $20 per month including interest. If you are a rent payer and have any ambition to lay up something for a rainy day—come in and let us go with you to the property. If you are not satisfied—no harm done.

FOR SALE—
AS GOOD AS THE BEST.
PRICED LOWER THAN SURROUNDING PROPERTIES.
Get your Arlington Square lot NOW, while summer prices still prevail. Quick action will save you money. The demand for these fine lots to the southwest is increasing with every week—and demand is what raises the price, as you well know. Today you can buy one of these lots at only $725 up, on terms of $25 cash and $15 monthly. If you delay your purchase you'll have to pay more. Prices are so much lower now than adjoining properties. Arlington Square has good car service, with five cent fare. It has the conveniences and the fine improvements you want. Moderate building restrictions, graded and oiled streets, cement walks and curbs and wide parkings planted to large shade trees. Gas, electricity, and all the comforts. Level lots, with a fine view of the mountains—right in the fastest growing part of the residence section. Go out and see the property itself. Take Inglewood car to my tract office, corner Arlington street and Santa Barbara avenue, or call at my downtown office.

OR PARTIAL EXCHANGE
100 ACRES
"PALISADES DISTRICT."
SANTA MONICA.
The subdivision of land in this district for high class residence property, makes the safest investment, and guarantees the surest returns to be had in California. There is very little land left in this district yet unsubdivided, and that little is being sold very rapidly. This property immediately adjoins the 150 acres recently purchased by King C. Gillette, adjoins the property lately purchased by C. M. Wood, is surrounded by high-class improvements, lies high, commanding beautiful views of mountains and ocean, has good soil, and has climatic conditions to be found nowhere else on earth. That beautiful avenue known as Montana boulevard is now being built, and the property above described has a frontage of 2100 feet on it. When subdivided and placed upon the retail market this property is sure to sell very rapidly, and to make large profits for the subdivider. We will sell on easy terms, or will take one-half in exchange, one-quarter in cash, and one-quarter in a mortgage back on the property. For further particulars, call or address No. 514 LAUGHLIN BLDG., or A1868, Main 9202.

FOR SALE—I CAN SELL THIS WEEK 2, 3 or 5 acres, at $700 an acre; finest soil, water, lays good and level; high ground, good view, north of Strawberry Park and Gardena; close to two car lines, and between Vermont and Western aves.; it's just half what some others are asking. I know, and if you're posted you also know that this is the best acreage buy around Los Angeles. Think where it is; let subdivisions all the way to the city; just outside shoestring strip; each acre may be made into half a dozen lots in a couple or three years. Call on WARREN F. McGRATH, 147 S. Broadway, with STRONG & DICKINSON.

FOR SALE — WOULDN'T YOU RATHER have an acre than a small lot. I guess so. $700; $70 cash, $15 month; will buy you an acre between Vermont and Western aves.; good soil, water piped and fine high location; they're asking twice the price for close by property; look it up now; get a map. Share in the benefit of Los Angeles growth by investing in well-located real estate, and this is located right; it's the sure way to be independent; the growth of the city doesn't benefit you unless you're a real estate holder. Call on WARREN F. McGRATH, 147 S. Broadway.

—EASY TERMS—

WHERE CAN YOU BUY
IRRIGATED
FOR $27 AN ACRE.

In the Great Yaqui Valley, where your neighbors are the most successful farmers of California, Washington, Idaho, Oregon and Canada.

The rush to Mexico is on. The American farmer is beginning to realize that the only CHEAP land—that is, GOOD LAND—left on the American continent today is in MEXICO. IT'S THE LAST CHANCE. And the American farmer is taking advantage of it.

We have less than 5000 ACRES of this land at this price, and it is going fast. Get in NOW while you can.

Land level as a floor—splendid irrigation system now in operation—railroad transportation—15,000 acres now under cultivation, and American farmers behind the plough—wheat, barley, oats, corn, cotton, alfalfa, hogs.

Buy NOW—later on you'll pay more.

Imperial Valley Town Casts Majority of Sixty in Favor of Opening Up Saloons.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL CENTRO, Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By a majority of sixty votes, Imperial today voted to license saloons. It was the liveliest election ever held in the city and 290 votes were cast. Anti-saloon people challenged many voters, but no arrests were made.

Dist.-Atty. Swing issued an official notice that he would prosecute any one who voted or attempted to vote illegally. Women took an active part in today's affairs and paraded the streets working against the saloon proposition.

It is probable that steps will be taken under the new amendments to the State Constitution to resubmit the question as speedily as possible which will be within about fifty days.

DAIRYMEN IN CONVENTION.

Tulare County Producers Meet at Tulare to Discuss Matters of Interest to Their Business.

TULARE, Oct. 24.—More than one hundred of the leading dairymen and members of the Tulare County Grange are in attendance at the joint dairy and grange meeting which went into session here this morning.

One of the chief features of the meeting is the exhibit of thoroughbred stock. Prof. Thompson, the stock expert from the State Farm, is here to judge the exhibits.

Several of the professors of the State University are here to take charge of general discussions with respect to thoroughbred cattle raising, the elucidation of dairy problems, the production of high-grade cream and other subjects of general interest to the dairymen of this and surrounding districts.

Evening sessions will be devoted to the problems and discussions of the [illegible]

KILLED BY LAMP.

FRESNO, Oct. 24.—W. L. Fuller, a guard employed by the Southern Pacific company in their stockade, was instantly killed this morning when an incandescent light fell from a tall pole and struck him directly on the top of his head, crushing his skull. One of Fuller's duties was to see that the lamp burned brightly all night. Fuller grasped the wire to shake the lamp as he stood directly under the heavy iron affair. The lamp broke from the cable and fell, the iron prong below crashing into the guard's skull.

The Esperanto Society is organizing its fall classes, and the third meeting of the season will be held Thursday evening at the headquarters of the society, No. 421 Blanchard Hall.

John E. Dooly.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] John E. Dooly, retired banker and capitalist, died here today, aged 70, of an affection of the spine. Mr. Dooly, who went to California in 1863, became identified with Wells Fargo & Co. in Sacramento and Truckee, Cal., later going to Ogden as agent for the company. While in Ogden he organized the first bank in this city under the name of John E. Dooly & Co. He was also one of the organizers of the Utah National Bank of Ogden. From 1877 until 1902 Mr. Dooly was manager of Wells Fargo & Co.'s bank in Salt Lake and was prominent in many large enterprises throughout the West.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY LAW DRAFT IS AGREED UPON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—After a two-days' executive session, the employers' liability and workmen's compensation commission reached an agreement today on the basis of legislation to be recommended to Congress, and adjourned until November 6, when the commission will hear suggestions from persons interested in the proposed legislation.

The law proposed will provide for a direct payment by interstate carriers to employees sustaining injury by accident, except in cases of willful misconduct. The compensation is to be paid by the employer directly, and not out of a general fund created by any form of taxation.

Payments under the law shall be made periodically and not in lump sums, with, however, appropriate provision for commutation at any time after the lapse of six months on the application of either party.

The amount of payments to be limited to a minimum and maximum sum, and not to continue beyond a specified term of years. The question as to whether this limitation shall apply to permanent total disability is left open.

The amount of all payments to be based upon a percentage of the wages received by the injured employee at the time of his injury to be hereafter fixed.

In case of death, payments to be made to dependents, including alien dependents.

Alarm.

WARNING TO CONSERVE MINERAL RESOURCES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—A warning for better conservation of mineral resources was sounded by M. De Pulligny, representing the French Ministry of Mines at the opening of the fourteenth session of the American mining congress today.

To permit individuals to skim the richest deposits from a mine and ruin the rest and otherwise to get rich quick from a mine, regardless of the general welfare constitute neglect of the government's fundamental duties, according to the speaker.

"Mineral wealth is not private property to be used or wasted or kept from other folks by the man who claims the surface area," he said.

CHIEF FEATURE.

The congress will have for its chief feature a public announcement of the purposes of the administration concerning the vast unallotted coal fields of Alaska. President Taft and Secretary of the Interior Fisher will deliver addresses, in which it is promised the public policy with regard to the Alaskan fields will be outlined.

Representatives of foreign governments will also take part in the sessions. The Governors will confer on public-land problems, and accredited representatives of Mexico and Canada will explain the attitudes of their governments on mining questions where United States interests and those of their own governments overlap.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

The session will continue over Saturday, President Taft's address on the last day being the closing feature.

Horace Nugent, British Consul in Chicago; Frederick Harnwell, Bolivian Consul, and Thomas W. Gibson, Deputy Minister of Mines of Canada, also spoke today.

Eli T. Connor of Philadelphia was appointed a delegate to the congress last night on special request by telegraph from President Taft.

According to the programme, the coal mining industry will be a leading feature of the convention, but a liberal portion of the time has been allotted to questions affecting the public lands of the West and to copper and other mining industries.

FIGHT ON LUMBER TRUST COMMENCES IN ST. PAUL.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) Oct. 24.—The government's fifth suit in its fight to break up the so-called lumber trust was begun in the United States Court today.

It is directed against the following: The Northwestern Lumbermen's Association, the Lumber Secretaries' Bureau of Information, an Illinois corporation already under fire in another suit against the "trust," brought in Colorado; Luke W. Boyce, owner of a private detective agency at Minneapolis, who is charged with spying on independent lumber dealers who are said to have violated the trade "ethics" laid down by the alleged trust; The Lumberman Publishing Company, a Minnesota corporation, which issues the Mississippi Valley Lumberman, a trade journal which the government charges has been the organ of the "trust" in that section.

Platt B. Walker of Minneapolis, editor of that paper, is made a defendant, as are the following as being members, officers or directors in the Northwestern Lumbermen's Association: W. R. Wood, Parker, S. D.; Charles Webster, Waucoma, Ia.; Willard G. Holds, Minneapolis; George F. Thompson, Minneapolis; C. M. Porter, Oskaloosa, Ia.; E. G. Flynn, Minneapolis; O. M. Botsford, Winona, Minn.; W. H. Day, Jr., Dubuque, Ia.; M. T. McMahon, Fergus Falls, Minn.; W. F. Finkbine, Des Moines, Ia., and John W. Barry, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

As in similar suits now pending against the Eastern States Retail Lumber Dealers' Association, the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers' Association, the Colorado and Wyoming Lumber Dealers' Association and the Lumber Secretaries' Bureau of Information, fourteen members of the latter organization being under criminal indictments charging violations of the Sherman anti-trust law, the government alleges that the lumber trade has been unreasonably restrained by illegal agreements and understandings which prevent the consumer from buying, where and of whom he will; which absolutely forbid competition for trade and which have divided the country into non-competitive territories. It is also alleged that names of lumbermen who have violated the "ethics" have been published to the trade in the Mississippi Valley Lumberman.

The bill alleges many acts in pursuance of an alleged conspiracy, covering several years and that some of them were perpetrated and in force ceased several years ago, but each act is alleged to have been part of a carefully devised plan by which first one restriction and then another was fastened on the lumber trade and when once fixed was to all appearances abandoned and substituted with one less iniquitous.

The government asks injunctions restraining all the defendants from continuing the acts of which complaint is made. The suit is in direct charge of Clark McKercher, special assistant to Atty.-Gen. Wickersham.

BROWN SCALE.

DINUBA, Oct. 24.—Soft brown scale in quantity has been found in citrus orchards in the Orosi district, and through some peculiarity of soil or climate the natural parasites of this pest do not appear to be keeping it in check, as do these parasites in other portions of the Central California district. In all other portions of the orange district the pest is as completely controlled by parasites as is the cottony cushion. Commissioner A. G. Schulz arrived here this morning and with a force of men will start fumigation with cyanide to kill off the scale.

ESCAPE FROM REFORM SCHOOL.

Four Inmates of the State Institution For Boys Take French Leave and Posse Pursues.

WHITTIER, Oct. 24.—Four inmates of the State school escaped this afternoon and a large force of officers from the institution and a number of volunteers from the outside are in pursuit.

Two of the boys, Willie Lane and "Red" McConologue, escaped from the power-house early in the afternoon, and Ramona Amarias, a Mexican, and George Nudson, escaped from the dining-room shortly after 6 o'clock this evening and when last seen were headed toward the river.

All four are among the worst boys in the school and Nudson is the last way from a deputy sheriff, who was bringing him here from Los Angeles when he was committed a few months ago, by jumping from the window of a Pacific Electric car near Rio Hondo.

The Mexican made a former attempt to escape about two weeks ago, and when he left this afternoon, was wearing an Oregon boot. The description of the four escapes is as follows:

Pasadena.

PROVISIONS ARE PECULIAR.

Pasadena Council Will Hold Contractors in Check.

Prepares for the Landing of Aviator Rodgers.

Fourth Annual Flower Show Will Open Tomorrow.

PASADENA, Oct. 25.—That contractors engaged in city work, when they desire extensions of time, must apply to the City Clerk at least three weeks before time for completion of contract expires, and that such requests must be submitted first to the Council and then to the Superintendent of Streets and the Street Commission for a report before action is taken, are the provisions of an ordinance which was placed upon its first reading at yesterday's session of the City Council.

This proposed law is the outgrowth of dissatisfaction over alleged lagging of contractors which has caused considerable comment in the city for the past two weeks.

Andrew Holloway precipitated a crisis when he petitioned the Council yesterday for an extension of sixty days on his California-street paving contract. After a discussion that lasted for two hours, and in which some differences of opinion were expressed by the Councilmen, the desired extension was granted. It is to date from October 27, but for each day elapsing between the 28th inst. and the time of completion of the work he will be assessed $10. This aggregate sum will be deducted from the contract price.

CITY BRIEFS.

The Councilmen put in a busy forenoon yesterday. The first real step toward the construction of the new bridge across the Arroyo Seco, on Colorado street, was taken, when an ordinance, providing for the condemnation of property on the right of way, was introduced. Mayor Thum announced that the plans would be ready for the inspection of the Councilmen next week.

Members of the Council and others yesterday were much interested in the movement looking toward the parking of a section of the Arroyo Seco that is to be launched at a meeting to be held in South Pasadena next Friday night under the auspices of the Woman's Improvement Association.

The Council let the contract for the sale of the walnut crop on the city farm to J. E. Govan and C. F. Willard of Santa Ana. The price provided for in the contract is 1½ cents below the quotations of the Walnut Growers' Association, providing the price shall not be less than 11 cents per pound.

MAKES FAST RUN.

Fred C. Kingsbury of No. 2411 Budlong avenue, Los Angeles, who was arrested by Patrolmen Nicoll and Shelton for driving his automobile along Fair Oaks avenue in excess of the speed limit, won the sympathy of both court and officers when he appeared before Judge McDonald yesterday. It was found that the complaint was defective and all were glad to drop the case.

The automobilist, while in Bakersfield, learned that his uncle, N. W. Mills, who recently came from New York, and who was staying at No. 246 Arcadia street, had suffered a stroke of apoplexy, the third he has had. He started for Pasadena without a minute's loss of time.

Just as he had all but reached his relative his anxiety became so great that the impulse to hasten was irresistible and he opened the engine of his machine a notch too far and the arm of the law descended upon him.

As it turned out, the haste was uncalled for, for the condition of Mills was not so serious as the nephew had imagined.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills left the city yesterday to make their home temporarily with Kingsbury in Los Angeles. They are well known, both in this city and there, having lived much of the time in Southern California.

PASADENA ON ROUTE.

Lieut. John Rodgers, U.S.A., brother of Calbraith Rodgers, the aviator, who is crossing the continent in an aeroplane, arrived in Pasadena yesterday and went straight to the Hotel Maryland, to measure the landing place which Manager Linnard has arranged. The lieutenant has not yet announced definitely whether the space will be satisfactory, but there exists no doubt, it was announced last night, that the aviator will alight in Pasadena as he arrives from across the desert.

It may be that the landing place will be the Hotel Maryland grounds, and it may be that Tournament Park will be selected. Rodgers is now in Texas.

CITY BRIEFS.

Automobile traffic between Pasadena and the summit of Mt. Wilson is now a topic of discussion here. Following a visit of John H. Holmes of San Diego, one of the owners of the hotel on the peak, to the city, it became known yesterday that plans to operate passenger cars on the toll road are under consideration.

The fourth annual flower show of the Pasadena Gardeners' Association opens at the Hotel Maryland tomorrow, and those who are preparing the exhibits say that it will be the most attractive ever held. Numerous prizes will be awarded for the best exhibits of different flowers.

It is probable that several, if not a number, of the aristocratic dogs of Pasadena will have places at the bench show to open next Tuesday in Sacramento, under the auspices of the Northern California Kennel Club.

Pasadena will have two additional letter carriers for the winter. They will begin their service November 1.

A new club to be known as the Plaudertasche Club was organized yesterday at the home of Miss Adele Roth, No. 154 South Euclid avenue. It is composed of German-speaking residents of the city.

The board of directors of the Pasadena Hospital is making an effort to secure more free beds in the institution.

The Board of Education has provided relief at the Madison school, which is overcrowded. A portable bungalow is to be ready for occupancy in ten days.

WILL CROWN HER MAJESTY.

Whittier Selects Fair Monarch to Reign Over the Flower Show Last of Week.

WHITTIER, Oct. 24.—At 9 o'clock tonight balloting for the queen for the fourth annual flower show of the Woman's Club, to be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, closed, and at 9:30 a bulletin was posted, which showed that Miss Edna Thornburgh had been elected by a good majority. The election was the hottest contest of its kind ever held here.

Marjorie Griffin, Myra Watton, Gladys Coffin and Henrietta Woodworth, the next four highest on the list were chosen as the queen's maids in waiting.

Miss Thornburgh is a talented and popular young lady in local society, and a graduate of Whittier College.

The result of the election by vote is as follows: Edna Thornburgh, 11,255; Marjorie Griffin, 8000; Myra Watton, 5197; Gladys Coffin, 2430; Henrietta Woodworth, 305. The total number of votes cast was over 26,600. The coronation will take place at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon.

SUSPECT ARRESTED.

AZUSA, Oct. 24.—Yesterday afternoon City Detectives Boyd and Cowan were out from Los Angeles looking for a man whose name is N. S. or W. Bateman, but who passed here under the name of Morris. He is thought to have been the leading spirit in several of the recent street car hold-ups in Los Angeles. He is also supposed to have robbed a Japanese restaurant and when arrested had on him some of the jewelry taken from that place. He has been here since last Friday, rooming at Robert Pressler's and taking his meals at Reipe's Restaurant. The detectives found him at the latter place at supper time. A young woman named Gibson, of Pomona, who is known to have been traveling with him during the past two weeks had taken the 4:42 car for Los Angeles, but she was arrested there. Bateman is a Canadian, about 23 years of age.

NEW POSTMASTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Nancy E. Babson has been appointed postmistress at San Marcos, vice E. L. Nicholson, resigned.

Long Beach.

TAKING RANK AS A HARBOR.

Long Beach Assumes a New Commercial Importance.

Child Is Killed by Fall from a Park Bench.

Two Political Mass Meetings Are to Be Held.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 24.—The facilities of Long Beach Harbor are becoming widely known, and greater activity in the shipping line is more noticeable here now than at any previous time in the history of the city. Three steamers came into the harbor this morning, two more will arrive within the next few days, and two tugs, a dredge and an extensive mosquito fleet also are occupying the harbor at present. The number of arrivals places the local harbor in the front rank.

To go on the Craig company's drydock for overhauling and repairs, the 666-ton passenger steamer Hanalei came into the harbor this forenoon. This steamer's bottom will be overhauled and several repairs will be made to her machinery.

With a cargo of 200,000 feet of lumber for the Long Beach Improvement Company, the steamer Grace Dollar steamed into the local port this morning, arriving here at 7:30 o'clock. Two more ships are coming with lumber for this concern, also, the Westerner being due now with a shipment from Gray's Harbor and the Crescent being en route here from Eureka with 200,000 feet of redwood.

The Scotia arrived this afternoon from Fort Ross, with 250,000 feet for the new Citizens Lumber Company. This vessel is now running regularly between this city and Fort Ross, under charter by the Citizens company.

Local men are still optimistic in the belief that passenger steamers also may begin to use the local municipal dock in the near future, making this a regular port of call.

BOY KILLED.

Tumbling off a little bench on the Strand walk, Francis Barrett, a 4-year-old boy, sustained injuries which caused his death last night at the Seaside Hospital, his skull being fractured. The little fellow never regained consciousness after the back of his head struck the concrete promenade.

The accident happened just in front of the Kensington apartments, on the east beach, where the lad and his mother, Mrs. Charles Barrett, wife of a division superintendent of the Salt Lake Railroad, had been staying for two weeks. The father arrived here this afternoon from their home in Salt Lake City, Utah, and the boy's body will be taken there for burial.

TWO MEETINGS.

The Progressive party meeting, held in the City Hall last night, was visited by C. D. Hendrickson, chairman of the Charter party's Campaign Committee, who invited the Progressives to attend a Charter party mass meeting at the auditorium Thursday night. This caused a scene, for it developed that the Progressives had planned to have a convention all their own in the auditorium on that night. There was no inclination on the Progressives' part to climb in the Charter bandwagon, and so they declined the Charterite invitation and voted to hold their own convention a night ahead. Accordingly, for the next two nights, the public hall on the pier will be the scene of the opening political mass meetings of the campaign.

The Progressives announce in their public statement that they will meet "to indorse a platform carrying out and ratifying Mayor Windham's policies." This, the Charterites claim, is an attempt to make the public believe Mayor Windham is lined up with the Progressives.

The Charterites contradict any such notion, however, in their announcement, which states that Mayor Windham himself will call their meeting to order.

The Progressives last night adopted the platform which had been drawn up by Miss Fanny Bixby, Mrs. Cora Morgan and others of the committee. It demands that the moral standards of the city be maintained and no liquor licenses be granted; approves the election and appointment of women to public office; favors municipal ownership of public utilities when the best interests of the city demand it and the public funds warrant it; favors an early settlement, in a court of last resort, of the fight between the city and the Strand company over beach titles; favors the building of new comfort stations and the parking of the bluff; and approves other matters which no local platform ever leaves out. Herbert Haskell, president of the School Board and an attorney, was chosen president of the part. L. C. Ohls was chosen secretary and John H. Betts was made treasurer.

SEA SPIDER.

A huge sea spider was caught off the local pier this morning by Mrs. E. Manning, a fisherwoman who has made a record for successful angling both in salt and fresh water. Visitors to the outer wharf were informed at the Pacific Fish Market, where the spider was exhibited, that it was a gigantic flea, probably the daddy of all Long Beach fleas, and had taken up its abode in the sea years ago when civilization threatened to make flea life in Long Beach miserable.

NEWS BRIEFS.

A Masonic club was organized here tonight, with about seventy members. It will be a permanent organization, growing out of steps taken to prepare for the coming of the visiting Shriners. The new club proposes to use the five front rooms on the second floor of the Masonic Temple for its headquarters.

The local lodge of Elks had an unusual form of entertainment last night, at its club rooms, when kodak pictures which had been taken of scores of the lodge members, without their knowing it, were exhibited. Naturally, many laughs resulted, as some of the poses were not at all what the members might have selected had they known they were to be photographed. The pictures were shown by being thrown on a screen with a stereopticon.

The California Moving Picture Company of this city has reorganized, electing A. B. Snow, president of the Snow Lumber Company, as president.

John Bowers, who was shot to death a year ago on the doorstep of his East Ocean-avenue home in this city, was reported in this morning's dispatches to have been granted a patent on a photographic device. Bowers, who was shot by a young acquaintance, who said he thought Bowers was a burglar, was a photographer and dealer in postcards which he made. He applied for the patent a few months before his death.

Thieves who are supposed to have used a wagon, stole 350 pounds of lead last night from a water main in an alley between Ninth and Tenth streeets, near American avenue.

LAST HONORS TO DEAD.

Azusa Pioneer Is Laid Away With Many Manifestations of Esteem on the Part of Friends.

AZUSA, Oct. 24.—In the beautiful house which he had built, in the midst of the orange grove which he had planted, many relatives and friends from Azusa, other towns of the valley, and Los Angeles, gathered yesterday to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of Otanis F. Wright.

Rev. J. D. Roberts, pastor of the M. E. Church, of which Mr. Wright was a member; Rev. S. M. McGee of San Dimas, a former pastor, and Rev. Charles F. Richardson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, took part in the services. Music was furnished by a choir of ladies.

The interment was in Oakdale Cemetery, and was in charge of W. Q. Custer of Covina. It was an automobile funeral, and a long line of cars followed the body to its last resting place. The pallbearers were: F. C. Carpenter, F. L. Dingman, T. F. Heth, George Martens, W. J. Wade and W. I. Rury. There were many floral tributes. Among the associations that sent were: The official board of the M. E. Church, the Ladies' Aid Society and the W.C.T.U.

LEECH FUNERAL.

This afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the funeral services of Mrs. W. H. Leech were held in the Methodist Church. Mrs. Leech, whose maiden name was Katie Robinson, was the daughter of W. A. Robinson, long a resident of Azusa. She was born in the East, and came with her family to California a quarter of a century ago. Mr. Leech was an engineer on the Santa Fe Railroad when he lived here. He moved to Bakersfield ten years ago, and is now connected with the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Leech died in Bakersfield. She was buried in Oakdale Cemetery, beside her father and mother. The services were conducted by Rev. S. M. McGee of the M. E. Church of San Dimas.

Mrs. Leech leaves a widower, a son, Roy Greer Leech, who is an engineer in New Mexico; a brother, W. S. Robinson of Bakersfield; a brother, G. L. Robinson, and a sister, Miss Alice Robinson of Azusa.

SOUTH PASADENA NOTES.

SOUTH PASADENA, Oct. 24.—The marriage of Miss Helen J. Dowd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton C. Dowd of Pasadena, to J. Humanson of this city was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the bride's home, No. 123 Elvado drive, Rev. Daniel Fox, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Pasadena officiating.

F. N. Finney, No. 216 Oakland avenue, with his niece, Miss Reynold Finney, has returned from a summer spent in Switzerland.

The Lincoln Park League met last evening in the Lincoln Park schoolhouse and discussed a great deal of routine business, the most important of which was the authorization given the Street and Alley Committees to install waiting stations at car crossings on Palm avenue, El Centro street, Indiana avenue, Pasadena avenue and Mission street.

Charles J. Bridgeman, principal of the El Centro school, was appointed vice-president of the parent-teachers' organization for that school at their last meeting, in the place of F. H. Shackelford, who was principal last year, and accepted a position in Pasadena this year.

Pomona.

LEGISLATORS WERE IMPUDENT.

POMONA WOMEN DISLIKE TO SWEAR TO AGE.

Newly Created Voters Think Details of Birth Are Entirely Unnecessary and Movement for Change in Law Is Contemplated. Automobiles Disturb Aristocrats.

POMONA, Oct. 24.—Anticipating the election which will soon be held here when the advisability of issuing $200,000 worth of school bonds to provide for the needs of an increasing school population and realizing that there are only a few days left in which those women who wish to exercise their new right of suffrage may be legally registered, scores of local suffragists are flocking to the recently appointed registration clerks and having their names enrolled upon the city's voting lists, 700 having already registered.

Many of the would-be voters are surprised and not a few are annoyed when they learn that it is necessary to swear to their ages and that the same will be posted in public near the polls on voting days. One near-young spinster has been heard already agitating the idea of amending some of the present laws governing ages, she maintaining that if a woman is over twenty-one years of age that ought to be sufficient without any further attendant red tape. Many of the prominent women of the city have already placed their names upon the register and the school bond election is being awaited with interest.

DUTIES UNPLEASANT.

Police Commissioner Tarr under whose supervision comes the enforcement of the city's new traffic ordinance by Chief of Police Tracy and the local "cops" thinks he is occupying anything but a bed of roses these days. A while ago a prominent citizen of Chino was apprehended on one of the down town streets here because he had unwittingly violated some part of the new ordinance and there was immediate complaint to the city department of which Tarr is in charge, the Chino contingent believing that rank injustice had been done to one of their residents without warning.

Some of the residents of Holt avenue, this city's exclusive residence street, are now circulating a petition to be presented for attention by Tarr's department of the City Council asking that early morning automobiles slipping along that thoroughfare at the time the cock crows, be compelled to use mufflers as they now make an illegal racket greatly to the disturbance of the slumbers of respectable sleepers. Another contingent of residents near the railroad tracks is agitating against the blowing of whistles and shooting off of steam by break o' day freight and passenger trains, that go lumbering through the city and Police Commissioner Tarr is wondering whether a delegation will soon interview him in regard to an ordinance requiring mufflers on Pomona Chanticlers.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Miss Susie Dewey pleasantly entertained the members of "Our Times" Club at her home, No. 482 South Gordon street yesterday afternoon. Current events were discussed. Mrs. C. R. Spencer read an interesting paper on "Conditions in Russia." Miss Helen Dewey of Portland, Or., gave several readings and musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. M. Perton. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Boake of West Center street.

Two new sections of the Ebell Club are being formed, one to be known as the Civic section and the other as the Domestic section. Meetings will be regularly held at the Ebell Clubhouse on North Carey avenue.

If in doubt try Coronado Beach.

Girl's Work.

TWO HUNDRED GUESTS VIEW WORK OF SCULPTOR.

PASADENA, Oct. 24.—"Columbia Hill," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Daggett, was thrown open yesterday between 4 and 6 in the afternoon and 8 and 10 in the evening to some 200 of the older and more intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Daggett, and the artists of Pasadena and Los Angeles, who were invited for a private view of the sculptured work of their youngest daughter, Miss Maud Daggett, who has won enviable recognition in the world of art both in Europe and this country. These pieces of sculpture exhibited arrived recently from abroad, where Miss Daggett has spent two years in the studios of Rome and Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Daggett were assisted in receiving their guests by their daughters, Miss Daggett and Miss Maud Daggett, who was the recipient of quantities of flowers and sincere congratulations upon her notable work. The house was decorated with roses and other blossoms which harmonized effectively with the mural tones of the rooms which were illuminated with tall white waxen tapers and properly lighted to show to best advantage the sculptured work.

The most impressive piece, the design for a fountain, known as "The Goose Girl," was made in Rome in 1910, and accepted in the Paris salon, where it was most conspicuously and flatteringly placed that same year. This was exhibited in the west drawing-room and placed before a background of palms and ferns. The base was suggestively wreathed with slender Italian cypress. The central figure is a nude, graceful child with a goose at either side, the grouping being of wonderful naturalness and the handling original and masterly.

In the drawing-room an ideal head called "Lucia" attracted admiration, the life likeness to the model of which is said to be marvelous. Here also was shown a bas-relief of a fountain design, in which the artistic ability of the sculptor is exquisitely depicted. The low relief with its clear-cut outlines is strikingly suggestive of the work of the famous Italian sculptor, Donatello, and the three infant figures are cherubic. This piece was exhibited also in the Paris salon in 1911 and was made in Miss Daggett's Paris studio that year.

On the drawing-room wall was seen also a portrait relief miniature of a young Russian countess, which is one of the smaller things Miss Daggett has done which has brought her great distinction.

Assisting in entertaining with Mr. and Mrs. Daggett were Mmes. Franklin Booth, Joseph H. Johnson, George E. Hale, Charles Frederick Holder, Albert Sherman Hoyt, Henry Vilas, Henry T. Fuller, B. M. Wotkyns, Adelbert Fenyes, Robert Pitcairn, William R. Staats, W. S. McCay, G. Lawrence Stimson, the Misses Alice Coleman, Marjorie Bolt, Edith Rowland, Theresa Cloud, and Genevieve Stehman. Mrs. Fred Elmer Wilcox and Mrs. John W. Hugus presided in the dining-room, where refreshments were served during the afternoon, and Mrs. Reginald Johnson and Mrs. Rufus Spaulding presided during the evening. Miss Ruth Hoyt and Miss Margaret Hale served punch in the afternoon and Miss Barbara Blankenhorn and Miss Louise Updegraff performed this service in the evening.

Porter in the Fourth Ward, F. L. Berkley in the Sixth Ward, and George T. Little in the Seventh Ward. No other nominations were made. Of those present at the meeting one-third were women.

NEWS BRIEFS.

James Pearman, the pioneer Santa Monica resident, is lying at the point of death, having recently suffered a stroke of paralysis. Pearman came to this city in 1874 and has made it his home continuously since that time. This was two years before the first public sale of town lots and before any thought had been given to the founding of a city here.

Phoebe Rood, wife of Stanley [illegible] died at the family's seaside home this morning. Deceased, who was 80 years of age, had been ill but a few days. She was married to her late husband but little more than a year ago. She is survived by a daughter, whose home is in Oregon.

Frank Domingues, held to answer to a charge of burglary, was sent to the County Jail today to await the action of the Superior Court. The accused, who is but 19 years of age, had in his possession when he was arrested, the clothing alleged to have been stolen.

SENTIMENTALISTS SHOCKED.

Famous Santa Barbara Mansion Is to Be Occupied by a Curio Dealer. Women Indignant.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 24.—The De la Guerra mansion, one of the oldest Spanish structures in California built about 125 years ago by Don Jose De la Guerra, a Castillian who is said to have been the first Spanish Governor of the State, is to be occupied by a curio dealer, a lease having been secured on the home for a period of three years.

So heartbroken over the affair is Mrs. J. W. Dibblee, grand-daughter of Don Jose De la Guerra, and a leader in society circles, that she will make every legal endeavor to have the lease cancelled and the romance of the old home kept intact.

There is scarcely any romance of early Santa Barbara history that is not connected with the De la Guerra mansion. It was given a prominent part in Dana's novel, "Two Years Before the Mast," and also is one of the settings in Mary Garden's latest success, "Natoma."

No one professes to having witnessed the show places of Santa Barbara who has not visited this mansion and now that it is to be the scene of a commercial venture is deplored by all citizens.

WOMAN POUNDS JUDGE'S CHAIR.

SAN BERNARDINO TRIAL HAS SOME ODD FEATURES.

Relatives of Woman Who Is Asking for Damages for Breach of Promise Display Intensity of Feeling—Defendant Claims It Is Collusion to Avoid Paying Debt.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 24.—Minnie S. Figueiredo seeks a balm of $10,000 from Joseph A. Cravalho, wealthy Portuguese contractor and orange grower of Redlands, for alleged breach of promise.

The suit was commenced over four years ago, and only got to trial today. Exciting in the extreme was the first day's hearing. Witnesses for the plaintiff, members of her family, were greatly worked up and one, a married sister, after pounding heavily on the judge's chair to emphasize her statments, challenged her attorneys and those for the defense to ask her more questions, declaring that she could talk until tomorrow.

The plaintiff claimed her lover set the date for the wedding, that her friends were invited, and all arrangements made, when he suddenly broke off the engagement, and he has since refused to keep his promises. As a result she claims she had been physically a wreck, through nervousness and shame, being pointed to as the girl whom the wealthy Cravalho refused to marry.

The defendant claims that she and her father were in collusion to get him to make no claim to $600, which he had loaned the father, and that when he learned this he broke the engagement.

REITERATE STATEMENT.

Railroad men here today reiterate that the Santa Fe Railroad had laid off fifty mechanics, despite the denial of General Manager Wells, made in Los Angeles yesterday.

According to these men, several mechanics also quit of their own accord to accept employment in the Harriman shops in Los Angeles.

CUT OFF LEG.

The horse of S. L. Gowell, contractor, ran away on Third street today, and after a short dash down the street, ran into the plate glass window of the County Savings of San Bernardino. One leg was almost severed on the glass. The animal had to be shot.

BONDS SOLD.

Bonds to the value of $100,000 of the Chaffee Union High School of Ontario and Upland, were sold today by the Board of Supervisors to N. W. Halsey & Co., of Los Angeles, for a premium of $2000. The purchasing company was the only bidder.

ELSINORE.

ELSINORE, Oct. 24.—A carload of black bass arrived last evening from the State Fish Commissioner and were received by Supervisor J. A. Crane and taken immediately to Lake Elsinore. The fish arrived in fine condition and it is believed that they will thrive here, as fish of considerable size and various kinds have been found in the past few years in Lake Elsinore.

The Lake School will give a basket social Friday evening, October 27, in the Lake schoolhouse, the proceeds from which are to be used for securing improvements at the schoolhouse.

The Elsinore Parent-Teachers' Association has issued a general invitation to all interested in schools to be present at the meeting Friday afternoon, October 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes of Anaheim have rented the Ludlow cottage and will remain here for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wellington of San Diego have rented the Chamberlin cottage.

H. W. Wills is now manager of "Hotel del Coronado."

ORANGE.

ORANGE, Oct. 24.—This morning an automobile driven by A. C. Tiede, secretary of the Santa Ana Valley Walnut Growers' Association, was struck by a Santa Fe freight car at the Chapman street crossing. The freight train backed to the crossing, and the edge of the car caught the front of the automobile. The machine was dragged several yards, and was badly damaged. Tiede was not injured.

FIRST ANNUAL EXHIBITION.

Home of the Big Red Apple Is Exploited.

Hundreds of Redlands People Attend the Show.

Prominent Woman Dies from an Apoplectic Attack.

REDLANDS, Oct. 24.—Yucaipa Valley, the home of the big red apple, is today holding its first annual New Home Day in the way of a typical country fair with exhibits of fruit, vegetables, garden truck, grain canned and preserved fruit and fancy poultry.

Automobiles and carriages have carried hundreds of people from Redlands up into the fertile valley today, and the fair has been a great success. The biggest display of "big, red apples" was made by the Peters and Evans ranch, the varieties shown including Rome Beauty, Arkansas Black, King David, Winesap, Kentucky Red Streak and Bellefleur. Other notable displays are made by H. E. Webster, Mark Whitesides, W. A. Davis, D. Matties, S. A. Wilson, the latter showing fine Rome Beauty apples grown on one-year-old trees. Leon A. Atwood had a unique display, a large swastika being worked out in yellow apples on a background of rosy-cheeked ones. E. Katzung had his fruit and vegetable exhibit arranged in a novel individual display representing the wheel of fortune made entirely from apples, and an immense horn of plenty from which rolled all kinds of fruit and vegetables.

The vegetable display showed all varieties of potatoes, tomatoes, pumpkins, squashes, melons, cabbage, cauliflower, peppers, onions, summer squash, egg plant, etc. Many of these things had been grown without irrigation and were fine advertisements of what fertile soil and right climatic conditions will do even without water. The poultry display included different kinds of chickens, turkeys, ducks, pigeons, etc. The grain display included wheat, oats, corn, barley and Egyptian corn, all of fine size and quality.

Throughout the day a committee of ladies received the visitors in one of the rooms of the hotel and there dispensed sweet cider pressed from Yucaipa apples. This afternoon there was a ball game between the Johnsons's of Redlands and a picked team of Yucaipa players.

MALLARD'S DEFENSE.

City Assessor Explains Misstatements of His Administration of Office—Shows Tax Rate Charges.

At a Good Government meeting at Central Hall, No. 1824 Central avenue, last night, the speakers were Lewis R. Works, president of the Board of Public Utilities, Councilman George Williams, City Assessor Walter Mallard and Ernest Rogers. The meeting was well attended. It was Mallard's first speech in the campaign and he made it in order to answer the attacks made upon him by Charles M. Smith, who is an independent candidate against Mallard and the Socialist, Salyer. In his defense Mallard said:

"When I came into office the finances of the city had been handled in such a way that I found it would be necessary to raise taxation to make up a deficiency of $750,000, and to take care of other things which had run behind, making it necessary to have at least $1,000,000 in excess of the revenues of the previous year. I went to work checking up the office to learn in what way I might raise this money, and I found that the corporate franchise assessments had been the previous year about $2,800,000 in writing my first year's assessment, bringing these companies up to where they should be, my franchise assessment jumped from $3,800,000 to over $25,000,000. In this way I was enabled to make up the large deficiency in the city's treasury, and at the same time not hurt the small taxpayer, who is already paying his just proportion.

"Since that time, I have kept up this standard of taxation, and have been instrumental in keeping the finances of the city in a first class condition. This year, by the operation of Amendment No. 1, the city lost 20 per cent. of its assessable value, which incresed the taxes of the general taxpayer proportionately without any compensation. While in the county tax, it is true Amendment No. 1 had the effect of raising the county rate from 50 cents to 60 cents, which is a horizontal raise of 20 per cent. In the general tax, they had also the compensation of 40 cents in their tax rate by having the State taxes cut off, reducing the county rate to $1.07, while the city rate is $1.48. Therefore the county taxes should be 28 per cent. less than the city taxes on a general average.

"An opponent of mine wilfully tells you that your tax rate is $16.23 on $1000, while as a matter of fact, the highest rate is $14.80 per $1000. The county rate being 28 per cent. less than the city rate would make a man's taxes where he pays $100 to the city, $72 in the county.

"In his circular he gives a list of property in the down-town portion of the city, which he claims is assessed too low. As a matter of fact, there is no property in the city of Los Angeles that is assessed higher in proportion to its value than the business portion of the city."

EXPLORER COOK ROTTEN-EGGED.

Riotous Scenes in Capital of Denmark at Lecture.

Chinese Revolutionists Gain Two Important Towns.

Fears Felt for Safety of Four Torpedo Boat Destroyers.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 25.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook's theatrical attempt last night to vindicate his reputation by a lecture in the hall where two years ago he addressed the royal family and some of the most prominent people of Denmark on the occasion of his triumphal entrance into the capital resulted in extremely riotous scenes. Dr. Cook finally was compelled to retire ingloriously by the back door.

Fifteen hundred persons assembled in the hall last night and a great crowd outside assailed Dr. Cook with a roar of insulting cries. He was escorted by police, however, and no violence was attempted.

The meeting was turbulent. A small fraction of the audience supported Dr. Cook and applauded his efforts. Others hissed continually, with the result that the two sides almost came to blows.

Dr. Norman Nansen, the Danish explorer, who formerly supported Cook, started the trouble by loudly denouncing Cook as a swindler. The climax was reached when an alleged picture of the North Pole was thrown upon the screen. Cook stopped his lecture and withdrew.

On the return trip to his hotel, Cook's carriage was bombarded with eggs and apples. A police guard was stationed in the hotel tonight.

LATE CHINESE NEWS.

PEKING (Wednesday) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Two important towns, Kiu Kiang, in the province of Kiang Si, and Sian, capital of Shensi province, have fallen into the hands of the revolutionists, materially extending the area of the uprising, disheartening the government. Sian was regarded as a government stronghold.

Consular reports from Kiu Kiang say the Taotai's yamen was burned. The imperial troops made no serious resistance.

A steamer from Ichang crowded with Chinese soldiers reached Wu Chang yesterday under a white flag. Ten Meter point, which is being fortified by the rebels, is considered of the greatest strategic importance, as it commands the railway and river approaches of Hankow.

A message from Hankow says the revolutionaries have advanced to a point eight miles north of that city near to where the imperialists, in unascertained numbers, are entrenched, protected by swamps on both sides of the railway.

One of the latest messages from Sian says the rebels are making overtures to the Mohammedans, in the province of Kansu, who have been in open rebellion since August, and the sender of the messages believes the two revolutionary parties will join forces.

Pessimistic reports are at hand from Soo Chow, Tsi Nan Fu, and other centers. Numerous sailors have deserted the Chinese gunboats and joined the rebels.

It is reported officially that no news has been received from the tenth division, which left Chinwangtao, Chi Li, by steamer, on October 17, for Hankow.

Fears are entertained for the loyalty of the garrison at Kiang Yin, a strong fort on the Lower Yangtse.

There is no information here as to the whereabouts of Admiral Shah's gunboats.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A special from Peking dated last evening says that throughout Monday there was continuous firing and skirmishing between the rebels and imperialists near Hankow. The insurgents displayed bold tactics and engaged the imperialists at many points. Meanwhile, says the correspondent, the northern army is pushing its way to the south, advancing with caution and clearing the ground in front scientifically with artillery. The rest of the government forces are fighting without any regard to order or method.

INAUGURATION DATE.

RODGERS PROGRESSING.

SPOFFORD (Tex.) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Aviator C. P. Rodgers arrived here last night from San Antonio on his coast-to-coast flight. He covered the 132 miles in five hours and twenty-two minutes.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

BUTTE (Mont.) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Fire in the dry room of the Butte Reduction Works destroyed the concentrator last night. The loss, to a large extent expensive machinery, is estimated at from $250,000 to $300,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FAIR FOR SACRAMENTO.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] At a mass meeting last night at the Chamber of Commerce, attended by city and county officials and prominent citizens, a plan was approved looking toward the holding in Sacramento in 1915 of an exposition to celebrate the discovery of gold in California. It is not the intention to hold anything like a rival exposition, but to furnish an inducement for the thousands of visitors from the East on their way to or from San Francisco to stop over a day or two at the capital city.

LATE ITALIAN NEWS.

ROME (via Frontier) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Messages from the interior of Tripoli say that troops of flying Italians with "machines" are everywhere causing destruction and terror.

Some of the native tribes have decided to migrate to points farther into the interior, while others are burying their valuables. Bolder tribesmen are devising means to attract the aeroplanes into positions where they can be fired upon.

WASHINGTON Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The American Consul at Tripoli has been informed by the Italian Governor-General of that city that the blockade of the port of Tripoli will be raised.

ANXIETY OVER FLEET.

NORFOLK (Va.) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Alarmed because nothing has been heard from the torpedo boat destroyers Barney, Craven, McDonough and Wilkes, which left Charleston, S. C., several days ago bound for Norfolk, naval authorities have dispatched the destroyer Reed and the tug Potomac to search for the missing craft. A meager report telling of the bursting of a steam pipe on the Wilkes is all the news navy yard officials have received from the boats since they left Charlestown. The flotilla was due to arrive here yesterday.

HUNT IN LEAD.

BISBEE (Ariz.) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Returns from Cochise county at midnight indicated that Hunt leads Weedin for Governor by a substantial majority, and that Wells had beaten Young decisively. At that hour Mark Smith had received the largest number of votes counted for any one candidate. Ashurst was a close second. Lamar Cobb of Clifton had a slight advantage over Hayden and Windsor for Congress. A vote of 2500, it is estimated, was polled.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Partial returns at midnight gave Hunt a slight lead over Weedin for Governor, Ashurst leading Ling, Smith and Ives in the order named, and Hayden had a decided advantage over Windsor and Cobb. Wells (Rep.) was beating Young about five to one.

BISBEE (Ariz.) Oct. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] At midnight following the day of Arizona's first primary election, it is practically decided, so far as Cochise county is concerned, who will be the standard bearers of the two big parties in the first State election. Hunt leads his opponent, Weedin, the Florence editor, by a good majority, and Wells will receive a good majority over his opponent, George U. Young, present Secretary of State.

PARLIAMENTARIAN DEAD.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Issues Three Thousand Invitations.

The Hollywood Civic Association sent out 3000 invitations yesterday for its meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in Wilcox Hall. Rabbi Meyers will speak on "What Constitutes a Perfect City."

Lecture On the Bible.

Rev. Robert Renison will lecture this evening at 8 o'clock, in Christ Episcopal Church, on the subject: "The Fulfillment of Prophecy; a Proof of the Authenticity of the Bible."

Will Talk of China.

At the noon luncheon of the Federation Club today, the speaker will be Frederick O. Leiser, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. at Canton, China. Those who hear him will undoubtedly be edified with some first-hand information from the Orient.

Goes Sight-Seeing.

Three-year-old Rosamond Fields wandered away from her mother, who was writing a letter in Central Park yesterday, and eventually wound up at the Hayward Hotel, where Miss Hortense Boatner, in charge of telephones, F. L. Bartlett, a Chicago manufacturer, had great fun entertaining her until the child's frantically frightened mother rushed in to claim her. The police aided Mrs. Fields in locating the wandering Rosamond, as Miss Boatner had notified the station of the lost baby.

To Begin Work Among Italians.

The Men's Brotherhood of the First United Presbyterian Church met last night in the social parlors of the church, at which about 100 men sat down to a banquet. After-dinner speeches were made by the pastor of the congregation, Rev. J. C. Pinkerton, George C. Hill, Samuel Downs, D. A. Brown, B. Incho and others. Missionary enterprises in connection with the church were discussed and steps taken to begin a work among Italian residents of the city. The young men's Baraca class gave a black-face entertainment at the close.

JUSTICE RULES THAT TIT FOR TAT GOES NOW.

Row Over Domestic Rules Gives Opportunity for Handing Down of Learned Opinion on Status of the Opposite Sides of the Family Since Suffrage Election.

Justice Forbes impressed upon Miguel Rodriguez that this is the United States and not Mexico in an action heard against him yesterday. Guadalupe Rodriguez, his wife, charged him with failure to provide. Rodriguez had testified that he had become angered with her because she had not obeyed certain rules that he had laid down for the government of the Rodriguez home.

"What were the rules?" inquired the court.

"Well," said the witness, "she was to obey me in everything, and it was against the rules for her to speak or argue with me when I am drinking."

Justice Forbes looked sharply at Rodriguez, and said: "Rodriguez, this is the United States and not Mexico. In this country the wife has equal rights with the husband. If you slap her she has a right to slap you; if you speak harshly to her she can speak the same to you; and if you get drunk, she has a right to talk to you about it in spite of your rules. They may be all right in the Madero country, but they don't go on this side of the line. The wife is the equal of the husband in every respect—especially so since the vote on the woman suffrage amendment to the Constitution."

Rodriguez promised to pay his wife $5 a month, and he was released.

CLAREMONT.

CLAREMONT, Oct. 24.—The current event section of the Cactus Club met in the parish house on Tuesday evening. The first number on the programme was a talk on "Taft's Swing Around the Circle" by Mrs. E. C. Norton. Judge Charles G. Nelley followed on "California Under the Amended Constitution." The Summer Toil of Prominent Men" was given by Mrs. Robert D. Williams. The programme closed with a talk on "The Italian-Turkish War" by Dr. F. W. Thomas.

The pupils of Mrs. Ida Blakeslee gave a recital at Mrs. Blakeslee's home on College avenue this afternoon.

It has been interesting to note that the raising of the speed laws in Claremont has made no difference in the number of automobilists who break the speed regulations. Claremont came into the limelight some months ago on account of its strict speed laws, but it now appears that those who broke the stringent laws break the higher speed limit as well.

NEITHER HIGH VOLTAGE NOR LONG FALL KILLS HIM.

Cornice-Worker Knocked from Roof of Building to Pavement by Contact With Electric Cable Is Frightfully Burned but Doctors Say He May Recover.

Though a powerful current of electricity passed entirely through his body, knocking him from the roof of a three-story building to a cement sidewalk, John A. Boyer, a cornice worker, is believed by Dr. Stadfield of the Emergency and General Hospital to have a good chance to recover.

Boyer was working on the roof of the new Odd Fellows' building, North Broadway and Workman streets, yesterday afternoon. While setting a cornice he happened to raise a strip of metal above his head, touching a high tension wire. The electricity flashed brilliantly and passing through his body to the metallic roof of the building burned him badly on the arms and legs. He instantly toppled over the edge of the roof and with the metal strip still tightly clutched in his hands fell to the sidewalk.

The police ambulance was called and Boyer was hurried to the Receiving Hospital. The burns were found to be very deep and extremely painful, but, because of his condition, no close examination could be made to determine if any bones had been broken.

As electric burns do not indicate their extent until from twenty-four to forty-eight hours after they are received, it was thought best to transfer Boyer at once to another hospital, where he can be given treatment.

INDUCEMENT TO CALIFORNIANS BY SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

Considerable Space Will Be Occupied at the Chicago Land Show by Los Angeles, Tulare, San Diego and Alameda Counties—Railroad to Have Largest Area.

So that every California community may have an opportunity to exhibit its resources and products at the Chicago land show, to be opened November 18, the Southern Pacific, through Passenger Traffic Manager Fee, has made an offer to transport free of cost all of the material to be placed in such exhibits.

The Southern Pacific Company itself will have the greatest floor space of any individual exhibitor at the show. Considerable space will also be used by Los Angeles, Tulare, San Diego and Alameda counties.

BIG TRAIN OF PIPE.

The Santa Fe is handling the second of a series of through trains of pipe to San Diego. The pipe is from Birmingham, Ala., and was delivered to the Santa Fe by the St. Louis and San Francisco at Avard, Okla., yesterday. There are forty-three cars in the train, which is an installment of a 7000-ton order placed by the city of San Diego. Every length of pipe is labeled with an advertisement of the Panama Exposition in San Diego in 1915.

Rates to Redlands.

The Santa Fe Railroad has put in a reduced rate for the Merchants' Carnival at Redlands. Tickets will be on sale beginning today. The rate for the round trip from Los Angeles is $2.75.

To Test Scales.

The Southern Pacific company has adopted a system of testing scales over its lines. Throughout the entire year a scale test car is taken from one end of the system to the other and every scale at the depots and at the freight sheds is carefully tested as to its accuracy.

The scale test car is much shorter than the ordinary freight car, being only twenty-seven feet in length, while the box car is forty feet long. Three men, two of whom are employes of the railroad, and the other a representative of the Transcontinental Weighers' Association, accompany the car on all of its trips. The car is equipped with a blacksmith shop and all tools necessary for the repair of scales and every bit of weighing apparatus is kept in perfect order throughout the entire year.

GREAT BLOCK AND CHURCH.

Trinity Methodist Congregation Making Financial Arrangements to Rear Costly Structure.

Following the exclusive announcement in The Times several weeks ago that Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church South of this city would build at Ninth street and Grand avenue a great institutional chur structure after the general plan of the Auditorium, it was made public yesterday that the directors of the church board and the building committee of the congregation will at once make definite financial arrangements for the project. The first step to this end was in fact taken yesterday, when the church committees, under the chairmanship of Nathan Newby, incorporated as the Trinity Building Company, with a capital stock of $500,000.

The church owns a frontage of 110 feet on Grand avenue and it is proposed to improve this site with a nine-story reinforced concrete structure which, while characterized architecturally by many ecclesiastical features, will at the same time conserve the utilitarian purposes of an office or business block. The style will be classic insofar as the church part of the building is concerned. The cost will be about $250,000.

The structure will contain one of the largest church auditoriums on the Coast. The institutional features will include dormitory facilities for young men, together with educational departments.

Class of Novices Who Would Like to Enter the Government's Forest Reserve Service Are Drilled.

Forest Supervisor Charlton, who has been in charge of the examination of applicants for positions in the forest reserve service, took his class over a practical programme of instruction in the hills back of Sierra Madre, yesterday. There were ginally about fifty in the list, but in the face of the strenuous exercise five of that number backed out and concluded that they did not care to be forest rangers.

The exercise consisted in saddling, cinching and riding horses, the packing and transportation of supplies and work in the latest methods of fire-fighting. Quick rides down the canyons, the use of signals to inform neighborhood ranchmen that fire was raging in the mountains, formed some of the exercises.

It was a sore and sorry lot of would-be fire fighters that came stringing into the city last night, tired as harvest hands. Under the revised regulations of the forest service, a man must understand practically everything there is to do in fighting forest fires.

"Price" Not "Talk" Is What Makes This Illustrated Sale of Coats and Dresses—at $12.50 of Such Tremendous Importance to You—Today, Third Floor

We Are Not Going to Do Much Talking About These Coats and Dresses they will speak for themselves in value-tones louder and more convincing than any words we can voice.

THE triple-figure illustration at the top portrays three of the garments on sale and does but scant justice to their rare style and smartness. Coats and dresses not nearly as desirable are offered in Los Angeles at twice what we ask—that is why we emphatically emphasize the price—$12.50.

The Coats at $12.50

THE hobbiest styles of the hour in the cleverest materials, including Herringbone Reversible Cloths, Plaid and Plain Reversible Cloths, elegant Zibeline Mixtures, Serges and Diagonals, etc. Hundreds of the swell "either-side" or "two-in-one" models; notch, large rolling or sailor collars; velvet and kay buttons trimmed; all colors and sizes.

The Dresses at $12.50

THE center figure in the illustration depicts one of the many charming styles in Afternoon Dresses offered at this popular price—$12.50. Dresses of Broadcloth, Cashmere, Messaline Silks and Satins; low neck styles; others with long sleeves; collars and deep revers; braid, lace and embroidery trimmed; Empire sash, finished with plaited Peplum; plain model Skirts, closed front and back. Again we emphasize the price—$12.50.

We show complete assortments of both Uprights and Grands in these four great instruments—affording the prospective Piano Purchaser the widest possible selection in all these makes—each the leader in its respective class.

Steinway—
The Steinway is, of course, the standard Piano of the world—the acknowledged BEST Piano. Just now we are showing, by actual count, more than forty Grands alone in this superb stock, including some beautiful Art Grands. Steinways are priced at $575 up for Vertegrands and at $850 up for Grands. Can be purchased on favorable terms.

Sohmer—
The Sohmer is a favorite with professionals—a most "artistic" Piano. Its tone is exceedingly full and rich—owing to the extreme string tension afforded by extraordinary strength in frame construction. You'll find the Sohmer always up to pitch—an Ideal Piano for either the Concert-Room or the Home. It is priced at $450 up. Purchasable on terms of $10 and upward monthly.

Kranich & Bach—
The Kranich & Bach is especially distinguished for its beautiful, harplike, singing tone. It is an instrument of extensive constructional features, through which its wonderful tonal quality has been developed. The Kranich & Bach is a favorite with both pianists and singers, and this famous old make is an ideal home Piano. Priced at $525 up. Purchasable on terms of $10 and upward monthly.

Kurtzmann—
The Kurtzmann is the best medium priced Piano produced—an exceedingly popular instrument—more than fifty-one thousand now in use. It is a favorite with schools and colleges because it withstands the hard practice of the student—really improving in tone and musical quality under hard use. Musically it is a perfect instrument, a sound Piano investment. It is priced at $375 up, and purchasable on terms of $6 and up monthly.

The Laffargue Piano at $275

A procedure ordinance submitted by the City Attorney was adopted by the City Council yesterday which paves the way for the sale of a franchise for a cross-town car line.

The failure of bond buyers to submit offers for the Electric Plant and Harbor Improvement bonds was freely discussed by Councilmen yesterday, and a report was prepared by the Finance Committee.

At the City Hall.

PAVING WAY FOR CROSSTOWN LINE.

LOS ANGELES MAY SELL ROAD FRANCHISES SOON.

Temporary Obstacles Raised by Adoption of Recent Amendment to the Constitution Will Be Removed in Thirty Days Through the Adoption of Procedure Ordinance.

Los Angeles will be the first city of California ready to proceed with the sale of railway and other franchises under the amendment to the Constitution adopted this month. For the City Council yesterday, despite long side discussions of the so-called "cross-town" road and possible model franchises and other matters connected with the fight for a southern line, went ahead and adopted the procedure ordinance submitted by City Attorney Shenk as requested by the Council's committee. This will be effective in thirty days.

Last Tuesday the Council adopted a resolution directing the City Attorney to draw an ordinance at once offering for sale a cross-town franchise. The next day the City Attorney explained that the old Broughton act is no longer effective, and that a new "enabling act" would have to be adopted. Yesterday he filed an opinion with the Council explaining why the Broughton act was abrogated, and he also sent the procedure ordinance that will now be necessary.

The ordinance provides for the sale of franchises in three ways; on the basis of net annual receipts, on the basis of gross annual receipts, or by compensation, either through a flat rental rate or a reduction of fares.

It took two hours for the representatives of the cross-town project and the Councilmen to discuss the ordinance, and President Works of the Board of Public Utilities made several explanations during the course of the talk, while Attorney Walter Haas asked for information for his clients, the cross-town people.

When the ordinance shall have become a law in thirty days it will be the first time the cross-town people will have to come in and ask for the sale of the franchise, but they will now be unable to get the liberal terms for which they asked a week ago. The cross-town lines are to run on the following streets:

"Commencing at the intersection of Ascot avenue and East Thirty-eighth street; thence westerly along Thirty-eighth street to Central avenue; thence northerly on Central avenue to Jefferson street; thence westerly along Jefferson street to Main street. Also commencing at the easterly city limits on Vernon avenue; thence westerly along Vernon avenue to Vermont avenue; thence northerly on Vermont avenue to First street."

CITY'S DEBTS.
FINANCE FIGURES.

That the harbor improvement bonds and the Electric plant bonds bonds and the electric plant bonds owes too much money, is the statement of the Finance Committee of the City Council, signed by Councilmen Washburn and Stewart. The other member, J. J. Andrews, did not sign the report and took a less gloomy view of things. He favored a conference with the bond buyers who have dealt with the city heretofore.

The failure to dispose of the bonds is to be considered again by the Finance Committee, the Council having turned the matter over to that committee yesterday afternoon. The committee's report is already on file. In the course of it, the committee says that there are before the Council requests for additional bond issues and that the situation must, therefore, be thoroughly understood. The debt of the city is given as follows:

Bonds outstanding	$24,926,287
Bonds voted but not yet sold	10,718,400
Total	$35,644,687

This represents 10.8 per cent. of the assessed valuation of $330,482,965.

"In addition to the above indebtedness," says the Washburn report, "there has been promised for San Pedro harbor $7,000,000, and the Department of Public Service has recently asked for a bond issue of $5,500,000. The auditor reports that $1,000,000 additional will be needed for water distribution and reservoir and $4,000,000 for additional power development. Two millions are wanted for a municipal railway. The park commissioners intimate that they will ask for bonds to the extent of $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 for park purposes, while an estimated sum of $3,500,000 is said to be needed for storm drains.

"It will be seen that these amounts will aggregate between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000, which is at least $10,000,000 beyond the limit of indebtedness authorized by law. Some of these matters pertain to the future. Those for harbor and additional power development will not be needed for some time.

"In addition to these amounts there are bonds outstanding of the Los Angeles school district (which is not counted as a debt of the municipality, but nevertheless is to be paid by the citizens of Los Angeles.) to the amount of $1,324,000 and a recent published statement by a school official is to the effect that $2,000,000 more will be needed in the near future.

"The limit of indebtedness of municipalities authorized under the State law is 15 per cent of the assessed valuation. The average debt of fifteen American cities of more than 300 000 population, according to the United States government reports for 1907, was 8 per cent. It will thus be seen that the debt of this city authorized and outstanding at the present time is 35 per cent, more than the average for other cities. Los Angeles is paying nearly 4½ per cent for the money which it is borrowing at the present time. Some cities are borrowing at 4 per cent. or less."

When the official notification from the City Clerk was read, telling the Council that no bids had been received for the bonds, City Clerk Handley addressed the Council and said representatives of eastern financial papers had informed him that not sufficient time had been given to produce responses to the advertisements of the sale of the bonds.

Councilman Andrews thought the bonds could be disposed of, if the city entered into communication in a general way with the people who had bought other issues of the city's bonds. The Finance Committee will report again.

MAY NOT RENT LINE.
ARNOLD REPORT DILEMMA.

The city cannot build an electric or any other railway and then rent the tracks to the Pacific Electric Railway Company or to any other railway corporation. City Attorney Shenk told the City Council so yesterday in a long report. He goes to the heart of the Bion J. Arnold report by which two plans for the use of San Pedro street from Seventh to Aliso for the municipal railway were offered—one calling for the city to build and rent the tracks to the Pacific Electric, and the other calling for the Pacific Electric to build the tracks, the city to have the right to buy them at any time.

Of Arnold's first plan—that the city build the tracks on an agreement with the Pacific Electric for their use by that company on a rental basis, Shenk says: "Such an arrangement would be in conflict with the terms of the charter, unless the rights thereby granted to the railway company be granted by ordinance. . . . My conclusion on this phase of the matter should not be construed as an indication that there is any objection to the city itself constructing the tracks on San Pedro street."

Even if the Pacific Electric is to build the tracks, it will have to take out a franchise in the usual way, according to the City Attorney's views. He says:

"As to the second suggestion of Mr. Arnold, that an arrangement be made whereby the Pacific Electric Railway build the tracks with the right reserved to the city to purchase the same at any time at actual cost, I beg to state that such an arrangement is entirely feasible and would be in accordance with the charter provisions, provided the right to build the tracks and operate cars thereover be granted to the company by ordinance in accordance with the mode of procedure contemplated by the charter. Such a franchise could adequately safeguard the rights of the city in providing for the purchase of the property by the city upon six months' notice, or providing for a joint use of the tracks whenever such joint use should be required by the city. Such other terms and conditions as might be necessary or desirable to further protect the interests of the city could also be inserted in such franchise."

COST TO PRINT.
ARNOLD REPORT FLURRY.

The Bion J. Arnold report rests now in the hands of a special committee of the City Council composed of Betkouski, Whiffen and Williams. When the report came up early yesterday morning, President Gibbon and Secretary Fleming of the Harbor Commission were in the Council chamber to explain if called upon to do so, and they had the chance.

Stewart insisted that the commission had never been authorized to print the report of Arnold in pamphlet form, as was done. The printing cost $282, and the committee reporting the fact asked that the appropriation be made by the Council.

Gibon explained that he understood the Municipal Terminal Railway Committee appointed by the Council and the Mayor had been authorized to print the report, and that there had merely been a misunderstanding. The bill was authorized.

Chairman Betkouski of the special committee has no plans yet as to meeting and discussing the report.

"ASK FOR MORE CARS.
MONETA AVENUE PROTESTS.

More cars, better cars and a better service generally, are the demands of the Moneta Avenue Improvement Association, filed with the Council yesterday. The evening and morning cars, the association says, are over-crowded, and the tracks are over-crowded, many times fast cars running empty, but the association says the people there can get no relief.

"Give us more action and fewer speeches," says the association in its letter, and it insists that other sections of the city are being favored in car service at the expense of the Moneta avenue district.

Picture Censors.

The Mayor yesterday sent a recommendation to the Council that a room be fitted up in the Temple Block where the board of moving picture censors, recently appointed, may pass on all films to be displayed in the city. The Mayor believes this would be the only feasible way in which the censors could see every film every week, as it would take more time than they have at their disposal to go from theater to theater to inspect films. The recommendation was referred to the Supply Committee.

City Loses Boyle Heights.

W. Hendricks, a contractor of Boyle Heights, was charged in a complaint filed in Police Judge Fredericksen's court yesterday with having taken the map of Boyle Heights from the City Engineer's office, contrary to an ordinance. J. W. Johnson, assistant engineer, swore to the complaint. He declared that Hendricks asked to see the map Monday and when the clerk who showed it to him was momentarily called away he carried it off. A city ordinance fixes a punishment of $500 fine or six months in jail, or both, for the removal of official maps from the possession of the city.

Police Court Brevities.

Seward Cole of the Colegrove Water Company pleaded not guilty in Police Court yesterday to a charge of having neglected to secure a permit from the city to excavate in the streets of Colegrove to lay water pipes. He will be tried by Police Judge Chambers Saturday morning.

Frank Smith, charged with having stolen $25 from A. Knetchel, No. 413 West Fourth street, was sent to jail for 150 days by Police Judge Chambers yesterday.

NEWBERRY IS PREJUDICED.

In the United States District Court yesterday John R. Newberry, a grocer, was excused from jury service on account of a slight prejudice he entertained against the enforcement of a Federal law. He was the only one of the panel who entertained such views. The case was that of Dan Radovitch, a bar tender at the Martin Cafe on North Main street, who was found guilty of having sold beer and whiskey to Louis Majal, an Indian of the Saboba Reservation at San Jacinto. He is to be sentenced Monday.

At the Courthouse.

SAYS HIS BACK IS PINCUSHION.

ASSERTS COLLISION ROBBED IT OF ALL SENSATION.

Real Estate Operator Who Was Injured While Crossing Car Tracks Has Invited Attorneys to Stick Pins in His Flesh and the Test May Be Made This Morning.

Baring his back this morning in Department Five of the Superior Court, C. A. Cook, a real estate man, who is suing the Los Angeles Railway Corporation for $150,000 damages, will invite attorneys for the company to stick pins in his flesh to prove he is benumbed.

Cook's action, brought for him by Crouch & Crouch, is based on injuries he alleges he sustained when his automobile was struck by one of the company's cars on April 23 last at Beaudry avenue and Temple street. He declares that the nerves radiating from his spine were so wrenched and torn that a greater part of his right side from the shoulder down is deadened to all sensation.

Attorney Sterry, for the railway company, yesterday questioned the plaintiff's injuries are as severe as he claims, and after an exchange of opinions Attorney George W. Crouch told his client to divest himself of his upper garments and began looking about for pins to enable Sterry to prod Cook's flesh and be convinced.

Judge Conrey was agreeable, but as Cook neared the proper stage of undress, Sterry halted him with the request that this part of the suit be left until this morning, saying he wanted time to look up authorities.

Cook testified yesterday that the car which struck his machine was running down grade at a speed of thirty miles an hour and crashed into him without warning of any kind. He said the brakes were defective.

According to the testimony, Cook had cleaned up $20,000 a year for figured his earnings at $3500 a month, but stated that since the car struck him he has not made more than $800.

The company in its answer enters a general denial of the allegations of Cook. It disputes his figures as to his earnings and charges that the only negligence in connection with the accident is attributable to the plaintiff, asserting that he was operating his machine without due caution.

PROPERTY INVOLVED.
GUARDIANSHIP CONTEST.

Susan I. Gillespie, 60 years old, was the cynosure of all eyes in Probate Court yesterday, where her daughter, Mrs. Grace L. Phillips, and her son, Clarence, made ugly charges against each other in a contest to be appointed permanent guardian of their mother and get letters on a small estate in which she is interested. The case was continued until tomorrow by Judge Houser.

Mrs. Gillespie is said to have property valued at $22,000 and the estate which will probably be added to this is that of Mrs. Alice Asebes, whose mysterious death on September 4, last, caused the authorities to exhume her body, only to find that she died of natural causes. Mrs. Asebes's property is worth $1300.

Clarence Gillespie asserted that his sister, Mrs. Phillips, visited his mother but twice in the past four years up to the time of Mrs. Asebes's death. He declared that on September 11 Mrs. Phillips, her husband, Randall Phillips, and Frank and Jennie Gillespie, a niece and nephew, removed his mother from his home to that of Phillips against her will.

He asserted that on several occasions he went to the Phillips home to see his mother, but was denied admission. In 1906, he said, the Phillips's had living with them Martha M. Taylor, who had property valued at $37,000 in Alameda and Contra Costa counties, and his sister and brother-in-law inveigled her into conveying it to them, he charged. Mrs. Taylor, Gillespie stated, later married a man named Thorne and regained her property from the Phillips's.

Mrs. Phillips testified that she had often tried to resume friendly relations with her mother, but Mrs. Gillespie told her the attitude of Clarence and the other children would not permit it. She said she wanted to be made guardian of her mother because her mind appeared blank relative to certain deals involving her property, and she seemed to need more care and attention than she was receiving.

She denied the charge of her brother that she took her mother from the home of Clarence against her will.

On cross-examination Mrs. Phillips identified a letter written to her by Mrs. Gillespie in 1909, in which her mother told her she could not regard her as she once had, as Mrs. Phillips had "cheated Clarence and tried to get him in prison, and when you harmed Clarence you harm me."

Mrs. Phillips asked Judge Houser if she might explain matters, but the court informed her she must confine herself strictly to answering the questions asked.

TAKING A HAND.
BROTHER IS INTERESTED.

Pointer in hand and brushing elbows with some of the jurors, Charles F. Reynolds, on trial before Judge McCormick for the murder of his wife, yesterday traced on a big diagram of the interior of his home near Lankershim his movements as he struggled with and finally shot his wife. His voice broke with emotion several times and once he brushed tears from his eyes, but he quickly regained control of his feelings and returned to the stand to the stiff cross-examining of Deputy District Attorney Keetch.

Reynolds was on the rack from the resumption of the trial yesterday morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Once or twice he became confused as Keetch led him back over the story he told of the shooting on direct examination. He seemed to have forgotten details as to his actions as he struggled with his wife, as he alleges, to wrest a knife from her.

Walter Herzinger, brother of the slain woman, prompted Keetch many times while the prisoner was under cross-fire. His zeal in the prosecution of the man charged with her murder has never lagged and he frequently propounds questions to be asked of other witnesses.

Another interested person in the courtroom is a big weather-beaten man, whose attention is centered mainly on the prisoner. He is J. G. Davis of Sacramento, who knew Reynolds when the two were gold-seeking in the early days of Alaska. Like the prisoner, his quest was successful. Davis is to take the stand in Reynolds's behalf as a character witness.

UNABLE TO JUDGE.
QUESTION OF SERVICES.

According to the statement of Attorney Charles S. Bunnell before Judge Finlayson yesterday, he does not regard a lawyer competent to take the witness stand and fix the worth of his services to a client. He committed himself on the subject in the case of W. S. Kelly against Marie and Cal Forrester to collect $425 for legal services the firm of Hammack & Hammack is alleged to have extended the Forresters. The case will be resumed today.

The action is the outcome of a suit Hammack & Hammack brought against Oscar Lawler for the Forresters to secure a settlement of a $2400 claim. The attorneys assert the plaintiff in the Lawler suit agreed to give them 25 per cent. of the amount they secured, but declined to pay for their services on this basis when the case was finally settled.

The unusual procedure of the plaintiff's attorney taking the stand as his witness was a feature of yesterday's proceedings. The Hammacks are representing Kelly, to whom they assigned their claim, and it was when D. M. Hammack started to take the stand that Attorney Bunnell, for the Forresters, raised the question of whether a lawyer is a fit judge of his worth to his client.

Yesterday's Incorporations.

The following concerns filed articles of incorporation yesterday: Los Angeles Ladies' Tailor and Dressmakers' Association, incorporators, Benjamin W. Hahn, Joseph P. Keogh, Joseph A. McBride, D. M. Schuman, George F. Collins, Richard Ingalese, G. R. Brown: Model Poultry Company, capital $200,000, subscribed $500, incorporators, C. G. Hoover, C. N. Sweet, L. A. Maxfield, G. H. Blair, C. H. Hawkins.

IN THE INFERIOR COURTS.

Three Notaries Charged With False Acknowledgments are Arraigned in Police Court.

On charges of having affixed their seals to acknowledgments they knew to be false, George D. McClure, J. M. Gaige and J. W. Burns, notaries public, were arraigned in Police Court yesterday before Justice Frederickson. They asked time in which to consult their attorneys and were given until tomorrow to plead. Bail was set at $500 each and they were allowed to leave the courtroom with officers to secure the bonds.

W. W. Anderson, the fourth notary against whom Detectives Beaumont and Roberts complained, was not arrested yesterday, but it is the intention of the police to bring him to court today.

James A. McLaughlin, the young man who the police say hired horses at livery stables to sell to persons advertising for them, was arraigned on a grand larceny charge and will be given a preliminary examination next week. It was on his evidence that the notaries were taken into custody.

PARISH CIRCUS BAZAAR.

St. Mary's People Put on Show and Society Women Act as "Barkers" for Charity.

The circus bazaar of St. Mary's parish opened last night with all the eclat of a real circus in the big tent at Fourth and Chicago streets.

Father Joseph McManus, pastor of the congregation, has arranged a systematic registration service in order that he may know his parishioners in the future.

All sorts of side shows were arranged around the edges of the tent after the style of a circus exhibit. They are managed by women barkers instead of men. They also sold the popcorn, peanuts and other goodies. A wheel thirteen feet in diameter was presided over by Edward Roche.

Robert Xetimaier is one of the chief ring masters of the week and has a large pavilion at one end of the tent, where his subjects go through the gyrations of fancy dancing. Near by is the mystery show of the Junior Holy Name Society. Weighing machines, punching bags, [illegible] machines and other devices in charge of J. J. Hickey, who claims the police protection of Frank Murphy, captain of the specially deputed police who keep small boys from sneaking under the edges of the canvas.

Supervising the circus is a committee of management composed of J. O'Sullivan, M. F. Campbell, Patrick Griffin, J. Mooney and A. Mieth. Four electric planos give diversity to the programme offered by the orchestra.

The choir of St. Mary's school opened the formal programme of entertainment. Father McManus gave a few remarks on the interest displayed by his parishioners and their friends and read a telegram of congratulation from Bishop Conaty, who announced in it that he would return from the East in a few days. The circus bazaar will last until Saturday night.

On Probation.

GIVE HIM A REST SAYS UNCLE SAM.

SWINDLER IS RELEASED AFTER SERVING TWO TERMS.

Indictments Still Hang Over Man Who Fleeced Ranchers and Hay Dealers but Attorney-General Recommends in His Favor Because Wife and Babies Need Him.

On the recommendation of U. S. Atty-Gen. Wickersham, John F. Wilson, who has just completed a term of three months for conducting swindling operations under the name of the J. W. Taylor Company, at San Diego, will be released today in the United States District Court on his own recognizance, in spite of the fact that indictments remain in force against him for operating under the name of the California Hay and Produce Company in Los Angeles, and F. J. Webb & Co., Detroit.

When Wilson, on July 13, was sentenced to ninety days in the Los Angeles County Jail, he had just completed a sentence of one year in the Alameda County Jail at Oakland, having been found guilty of fraud in connection with the operations of the J. W. Warner Company in Sacramento.

Ranchers and dealers in hay and grain had unwittingly sent Wilson carload lots of this produce only to find when payment was due that the purchaser had disappeared.

The clemency of the government authorities was secured on the representation that Wilson had already spent about two years behind the bars, and the further fact that his wife and family need him. None of the indictments will be dismissed, but they will be held as a club over the head of Wilson and he will be brought back to jail as soon as he commits any infraction of the law, no matter how slight.

It did not appear in the investigation of Wilson's operations that he ever had any assistants in the game, but he was successful under a half dozen aliases.

Valuable Coal Mine

I have a coal mine in Oregon, on navigable water, no railroad haul, that will make a dozen men rich. Engineers' reports and development work done show 12,000,000 tons in sight. Profits, per ton, net $2.00. $7500 will tie this up for a year and $20,000 will make it a shipping proposition paying $200,000 or more annually.

What Makes Gold Notes Safe

The safety of any security is determined by the strength of the issuing company.

Gold Notes are issued and backed by the Los Angeles Investment Company, the largest financial institution in the Southwest. Its combined capital and surplus totals nearly $7,000,000. The indebtedness of the company is $73,608.68, and there is outstanding only $408,000 in Gold Notes, and $237,500 in Home Certificates. So for every dollar of debt there is nearly $10 in the capital and surplus. For every $100 Gold Note there is more than $1600 in security.

The Gold Note

Gold Notes are issued for $100, $200 and up to $8000. They pay six per cent interest for small and large amounts alike.

You can withdraw your investment with interest in full in from ninety days to five years, as you wish.

No investor has ever failed to have his money back on demand, even in the case of Gold Notes presented before due.

You can buy Gold Notes on installments of $1 or more.

Send for full Gold Note information, or mail a check and your Gold Note will be sent by return mail.

Drs. A. J. & G. W. Shores have spent their lives in the study of Chronic, Nervous and Private diseases of Men, Women and Children. They have treated over 100,000 cases in the past nineteen years, an experience rarely ever granted any specialists, and have gleaned therefrom information that is invaluable to sick people. They would not attempt to treat Scarlet Fever or Diphtheria at any price, not because they don't know how, but because they have not given it the thought and constant study that other doctors have, and, in short, it is not in their line of specialties. Every moment is given to studying CHRONIC, NERVOUS and PRIVATE DISEASES. That is where they excel and that is where they can serve you better than most anyone else. Don't be a permanent invalid. They know what causes Catarrh. They know how to cure. They know what causes Stomach Troubles. They know how to cure it, instead of merely relieving it. They have studied the Liver, the Kidneys, the Ears, the Throat, the Lungs, and Private Diseases, and they know what to do for these troubles.

The Oil Industry.

REFINERY IS BEING RUSHED.

Standard's Big Plant Going Up at El Segundo.

Monthly Payroll of Hundred and Fifty Thousand.

General News of Interest from Oil Fields.

Under the supervision of R. J. Hanna the big refinery of the Standard Oil Company at El Segundo is rapidly taking shape, and Hanna expects to have it in operation by January 1, 1912. Present indications are that the refinery will become one of the largest in the entire country. In making a selection of a location the officers of the company used great care that every convenience necessary in the handling of the business of the plant shall be conserved.

Among the many improvements projected by the Standard is a pier ninety feet wide and extending 4000 feet into the ocean. This will allow a double line of railroad track to extend to the end of the pier, and sufficient depth to accommodate all ocean-going vessels. It is said the company expects to do a large amount of export business from the El Segundo plant.

Since the breaking of ground wonderful progress has been made in construction. Four miles of railroad, a spur from the Santa Fe, has been built, and a concrete sewer has been laid down. A high picket fence completely surrounds the works and office buildings.

This precaution was made necessary by the constant annoyance to the workmen by labor agitators, who have been trying unsuccessfully to organize them. The boiler house and other buildings are all built of concrete, and the fifteen 1000-barrel stills are of similar construction, and of an eventual five 55,000-barrel steel tanks are being built. These will have a common outlet to the plant. A trunk pipe line will extend from the tankage at El Segundo to the company's tank farm at Los Nietos.

Superintendent Hanna is now employing nearly 400 men, and 500 mules are used in the work of excavation. The monthly payroll runs up to $150,000, which is an indication of the real value to Southern California through the building of this big refinery. When the company's refinery at Point Richmond started operations ten years ago it had a daily capacity of 2000 barrels. Now it is handling 30,000 barrels daily. The El Segundo plant has a tract of 442 acres, and its capacity will be increased to 90,000 barrels should conditions ever demand the handling of such a large amount of oil. The initial capacity, however, will probably be 5000 barrels a day.

The new industrial city of El Segundo, being not a Standard enterprise, is growing steadily, and many buildings are being erected.

RED GRANITE FIND.

RAILROAD BROUGHT HERE.

The first carload of red granite ever brought to Los Angeles is now at the Diamond stoneyard. It was shipped here by the Pitney brothers from their farm, and comes from the eastern part of Inyo county. The vein is 200 feet wide and 6000 feet long. The granite is good for building and ornamental purposes, such as monuments. The deposit, nine miles from Haiwee, is the only known red granite in existence. J. G. Pitney prospected for material for twenty years before he was successful.

Old Salt Lake Field.

The old Salt Lake oil field, west of the city, is once more coming to the front. The September production showed an increase of 1000 barrels over August. Well No. 44 of the Amalgamated Oil Company on the Wolfskill property, which started at 1000 barrels a day, is still producing 700 barrels a day, while other companies are also showing a good production from their wells.

MANY NEW WELLS.

ADELINE AND FULTON.

The new owners of the Adeline and Fulton oil properties in the Maricopa field are actively after oil. They have drilled several wells lately, and have erected a topping plant. Five strings of tools are going on the Fulton and it is the intention to drill many more wells, bringing the field up to a high state of development.

The Fulton already has fifteen wells and the twenty extra will show one of the most extensively developed areas in the Maricopa district.

Town Notes and Personals.

Charles C. Conroy, formerly a telephone operator, and later located in the Texas fields, is now boring an oil near Newhall. He is interested in the Los Nogales Oil Company.

Conway Brothers of Coalinga have been awarded a contract by the Associated Oil Company of Los Angeles for the construction of a 130,000-barrel concrete reservoir to be located on section 24, 20-14.

T. Laymance, Howard Smith, Theodore Brown and L. B. Frick, wealthy men from Oakland, made a tour of the west side oil fields of Kern county last week.

Charles Barrett, one of the owners of the Lakeview ground, now a resident of Los Angeles, motored to Maricopa a few days ago for quail hunting.

George H. Metcalf, an official of the K. K. and T. Oil Company of the Midway field, came down from San Francisco the other day to take a look at the property.

Thomas Cheney of Coalinga, who has been in Bakersfield for a few days on business, has returned to his home.

Fred Richards of the Pacific States Oil Company of Coalinga, has gone to Tonopah, Nev., to look after the interests in that town.

Frank Lombardi, general production superintendent of the Kern Trading and Oil Company, is in the field from San Francisco. He is the proud father of twin boys.

J. C. Hunter and J. Howlett of New York are in Coalinga for a few days. Mr. Hunter is heavily interested in Berkeley and Spokane oil properties.

J. Bayside, Samuel Lowenstein and Frank Pauson of San Francisco, who are interested in the W. K. and T. properties, have gone from Coalinga to the Lost Hills for a few days' inspection of the new field.

Charles Kazmore of the Coalinga Oil Company, accompanied by his wife, is taking a motor trip to San Francisco. He will be absent about a week.

To Business Men,

Everywhere.

Gentlemen:-

We have prepared Steel Die Embossed Letter Heads for some of the largest and most representative firms and corporations in this city and elsewhere in California.

If you are skeptical of the real value of stationery produced by this process and the extra profit which you could secure by using the right tone in your correspondence, we should like to have the opportunity of calling on you.

Our handsomely gotten up sample book of Steel Die Embossed Letter Heads will be sent you free if you phone or drop us a card.

Our representative will call if you say the word--Main 1050--Home 10959.

Very truly yours,

W. P. JEFFRIES COMPANY.

WHOLE FIRST VENIRE.

city, having come here from Chicago. His father was in the woolen business in that city. Mr. Mullen said he occasionally read The Times, but never paid especial attention to its attitude upon labor questions.

"What is your present attitude of mind regarding labor organizations?" asked Darrow.

"Well, I am not opposed to organized labor," replied the talesman, "but I am opposed to certain lawless elements, who have pinned themselves to the unions. I don't approve of the anarchistic element."

The prospective juror went on to say that the same class of persons apparently attached themselves to other organizations, citing the recent Mexican junta here.

"Do your feelings about unions preclude giving this defendant a fair and impartial trial?" was the next question.

Mullen replied that he had nothing against unions.

"Have you ever said that Gen. Otis deserved great credit for keeping down unionism?"

"I think not."

"Have you ever held that opinion?"

"I might have. I don't remember expressing myself in that way. I might have said something about the suppression of lawlessness," was the reply.

"Then you associate unionism with lawlessness?" said Darrow quickly.

"I think I do."

Mullen said when he lived in Chicago he had heard and read of lawless acts by members of labor unions.

"You have expressed your opinion as to the cause of the destruction of the Times Building, have you not?" continued defendant's counsel.

"Yes, many times."

"You said that there was no doubt but what dynamite was responsible?"

"I don't think I put it as strong as that. I probably said it was my opinion," replied Mullen.

"Can your presume this defendant innocent?"

"I can."

"And yet you believe him guilty?"

"Yes, that is my opinion."

The talesman explained this seeming contradiction by stating that he could lay aside any previously-formed opinion when he entered the jury box.

"Do you believe the truth of the so-called McManigal confession?" pursued Darrow.

"It had some weight with me," was the reply.

"I do."

Darrow showed the talesman a copy of a newspaper containing the report of the committee appointed by the Mayor to investigate the cause of the explosion on the morning of October 1, 1910.

"You read and believed this report, didn't you?" inquired the counsel for the defense.

"Yes."

"You read this and believed it, didn't you?" queried the lawyer.

"I read part of it. I think it impressed me," was the reply.

Attorney Darrow then challenged the juror upon the ground that he entertained a fixed opinion concerning the guilt of the defendant and that in other ways he showed bias and prejudice. The challenge was resisted.

From questions put by counsel for the defendant and prosecution, it appeared that somebody, giving the name of "Pitkin," called upon Mullen some time ago and asked his opinion regarding some of the issues involved in the case. Mullen said his caller represented himself to be an eastern newspaper man, looking for information. The prosecution believes that the man was one of the detectives employed by the defense to interrogate prospective talesmen. "Pitkin" did not appear in court yesterday.

The court asked Mullen a series of questions in order to bring out if possible whether the man's opinion would legally disqualify him from serving on the jury.

Challenged by the defense for alleged bias, the court said he would defer ruling until today.

PASSED FOR CAUSE.

Walter L. Coward, a farmer of Artesia, was evidently pleasing to the defense. Attorney Darrow handled him lightly and swiftly passed him for cause.

The prosecution, according to a temporary agreement made between opposing counsel, has not been examining any of the talesmen until after the defense has finished. This practice, Darrow insisted yesterday, is manifestly an advantage to the State, since it gives detectives an opportunity to look up the records of some of the men. Just what procedure will be followed after today remains to be seen.

Coward said he is not interested in labor union questions. He has taken The Times and is familiar with its attitude toward labor unions and their leaders, he stated.

Pressed by Darrow, the prospective juror said his reading had not influenced his mind in the least. He stated he had served on several juries and knew that a defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Though Coward declared he had read much concerning the disaster to the Times Building and the loss of the lives of twenty employees, he said he could fairly and impartially try the defendant. He was passed for cause.

CHALLENGED AND EXCUSED.

George E. Anderson of Covina said he is well acquainted with John L. Matthews, Covina postmaster, and secretary of the 1910-1911 grand jury, which recently concluded its work.

"Have you had any recent talk with him?" inquired Darrow.

"Well, I saw him Sunday and told him I was summoned on this venire. He said: 'Well, you will get your medicine.'" [Laughter.]

"What else did you talk about?"

"Oh, about the weather."

"You don't have to talk much about it out in California, do you?" said Darrow, smiling.

"Oh, I suppose we spoke of other subjects," was the answer.

"Where did you used to live," then asked Darrow.

"Wherever I put up my hat was home, sweet home," replied Anderson, laughingly.

He went on to say that he was a railroad conductor for many years before coming to this State.

"How long did you stay with the railroad?" was asked by Darrow.

"Until the road stopped my pay," was the response.

"Have you any prejudice against labor unions?"

"Well, I have a prejudice against the lawless element in them," was the reply.

Anderson went on to say that under the circumstances he thought he could not be a fair and impartial juror. He was challenged and excused for cause.

THEY COME AND GO.

Thomas J. Foley was examined by Darrow after E. Huntley was excused because Huntley's name does not appear upon the last assessment roll.

Foley said he is a real estate agent at Long Beach. He was in Seattle on a business trip at the time of the explosion. He reads The Times and other papers. He said at the outset that he is personally prejudiced against labor unions. He also stated to the court that his health is not of the best and he feared the effect of long confinement if chosen as a juror.

"But this health consideration would not influence you in your answers?" inquired Judge Bordwell.

"Certainly not," was the reply.

After Foley said that it would take considerable evidence to remove his opinion of unionism Darrow challenged him, but later withdrew it.

G. M. Jones was next excused after he stated he had served on a jury in the Superior Court within a year.

B. W. Clark, a coal merchant of this city, was examined by Leo Compte Davis of counsel for the defense.

He said on the day of the explosion he had formed the opinion that no one could be so evil as to blow up a structure filled with workingmen. Later he admitted changing his opinion. He told of talking with various persons about the case.

While believing that laborers have a right to organize, he said he felt unions were a menace to a certain extent.

He was excused after he stated that he had told a man that he was to serve on this case as a talesman and that the other had said: "He hoped he would be qualified."

Judge Bordwell quickly asked the defense if it was ready to challenge. The challenge was made and allowed without protest. The court then warned all talesmen to be careful not to say anything about the McNamara case to anybody and to refrain from mentioning that they had even been subpoenaed.

A. C. Winter, a builder of this city, was under examination by Attorney Scott of the defense when the session adjourned.

He said he was once bitter against unions, but had forgotten the matter since then. He had read much about the present case and was inclined to believe that dynamite caused the wreck of the newspaper plant. He also said he placed some reliance upon the reports of the arrest of the McNamaras, and the proceedings before the grand jury and in court.

It is expected Winter will be challenged this morning by the defense.

MONOTONOUS ROUND.

HOW TALESMEN KILL TIME.

That the position of talesman in the case is devoid of all pleasure is the common opinion of the hundred or more citizens who have had a taste of it to date.

From waking time, which is usually about 7 o'clock each morning, until the lights are put out at night, shortly after 9, the jurors lead a monotonous grind. The thoughtfulness of the Sheriff in obtaining a dining-room for the jurors a mile from the Courthouse has afforded them the pleasure of a good walk three times each day.

According to Bailiff Cochran the talesmen with few exceptions have a leaning toward vegetarianism. Fruit, unpreserved, and teeming with nectar, is a keen favorite with them. Meats, however, and highly-seasoned dressings and weird concoctions that find ready favor in the hearts and stomachs of "good livers" seem to be unattractive to these men.

The talesmen for the most part prefer the brand of food that mother used to take from the oven. A distinct fondness for green things, salads, and so on, is admitted by the most of them. Crabs, oysters, lobsters, and the balance of gout-inducing appetite ticklers are not in demand.

Drinkables, the kind that effervesce and lend warmth to the inner man, are taboo. The State and the lawmakers long ago stipulated that intoxicants should not be on a jury's bill of fare. Good, homelike pots of tea are placed beside each man's cup, and if not tea, pure coffee is substituted.

Each night after dinner the jurors and bailiffs take a long ramble on their way back to their quarters in the Hall of Records. The return is usually made by 8 o'clock, and from that time until the lights are turned off, the talesmen amuse themselves telling stories, playing cards, and singing old folk songs and lullabies.

The card game "five hundred" is the joy of the talesmen during the dull moments of the evening. The greatest rivalry is enjoyed by the various players. Tuesday night four of the talesmen who have been in the jury box since the opening of the trial played for the championship. F. D. Green and Robert Bain won. The losers, Seaborn Manning and George McKee, were then presented a booby prize of a specially perfumed bunch of carrots. During the game the other talesmen, Walter L. Coward, George Anderson, F. J. Mullen, Charles F. Binder and Emil Ramband, lent enthusiasm by cheers and advice of the first-base bleachers sort.

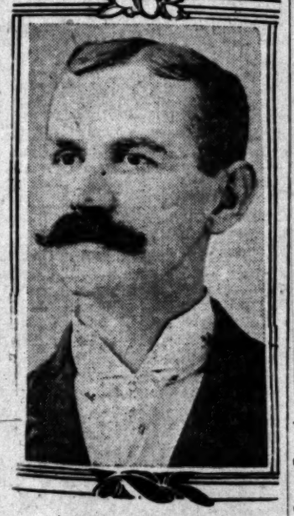
When the final selection of the jury is made Bailiffs Cochran and Henry propose to organize two indoor baseball teams. Toward that end the supervisors have been requested to include the necessary paraphernalia among the gymnasium apparatus which is to be installed on the ninth floor of the Hall of Records for the jurors' exclusive use.

COST LIFE AND FORTUNE.

Former Wealthy Business Man Succumbs to Paralysis Caused by San Francisco Fire, Which Ruined Him.

John H. Post, aged 64 years, a veteran of the Civil War, who for years has been prominent in business circles in both the East and West, is dead at his home, No. 949 West Ninth street. Paralysis, caused by the fire at San Francisco, was the cause of death.

Post came to Los Angeles immediately after the disaster, in which he lost a fortune. Their beautiful home on Valencia street was totally destroyed by fire and from the shock of the quake Post received a paralytic stroke from which he never recovered. Mrs. Post, a daughter of Col. Anderson Davis of Civil War fame, is the only surviving relative.



John H. Post,

Formerly a wealthy resident of San Francisco, whose death and the loss of whose property were alike the result of the disaster which laid waste that city five years ago. Funeral services for him will be held in this city today.

Post was born in Hebron, Ct., and entered the Union army at the age of 14 as a drummer boy. He served for nearly four years in the Eighteenth Connecticut under Col. Ely. He belonged to the Tyler Grand Army Post of Hartford, Ct., and was a member of a Masonic Lodge in Evansville, Ind.

The old veteran seemed to have had a premonition of his death. A few hours previous to his death he said to Mrs. Post, "Please bring me my best shirt and put my diamond in it. Then lead me to my big chair. I am going to be the old J. H. Post once more."

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Lewis G. Morris at 1 o'clock this afternoon from St. John's Episcopal church. Following the services the remains will be given in charge of the local Masons and interment will take place at Rosedale.

THE BIG FEAST.

Will Italy have her Thanksgiving Turkey stuffed with Tripoli chestnuts? After the feast will Italy want any Moor? Now let some member of the Amalgamated Association of Baldhead Paragraphers come back with the query that if Turkey were cooked with Greece would Austria be Hung(a)ry?

AN ADVANTAGE.

An The advantage of being a flea is brought to mind by the scientific statement that the power of one horse would serve to operate 270,000,000 watches, while the mainspring of a watch has exactly the power of four jumps of a flea. A watch may have a four-flea power and still miss the fun of jumping. The advantage over a watch in being a flea lies in the fact that the flea knows about it.

RUNNING A RACE.

Gerhart Hauptman and Hermann Sudermann seem to be running a race in literary production. This time Hauptmann has dropped both poetry and symbolism to write a novel called "The Fool in Christ." Sudermann is probably blunt enough in his new story, but his title suggests a maze of fancies. It is the "Indian Lily," and he called his last book the "Song of Songs." Regardless of the meaning and morals of the two men both are consummate artists.

A MAGICAL NAME.

Los Angeles will entertain more than a score of large conventions during 1912 and this city should secure a hundred when San Francisco holds her fair. There was a time when eastern officers of the more important orders were afraid to bring their gatherings this far west. They have long since learned that the magic in the names Los Angeles and California appeals to a larger delegation of membership than the lowest railroad rates to some city close at hand.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BUGS.

John L. Cowan has contributed an article to a current monthly on the subject of bug-hunters in which he explains the comparatively simple process of setting a harmless bug to work at the destruction of those insects which damage fruits and melons. The lady-bird beetles are gathered in the Sierras by the hundreds of pounds, kept on cold storage at the State Insectary at Sacramento until March, when they are shipped to Imperial Valley, where the sun brings them to life with an insatiable appetite for the malicious aphis. Nature has set some form of life at variance with each of her multiple forms and the science of parasitism consists in bringing natural enemies into relation.

WASTE OR COMBINATION?

The decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco Company cases were an effort to carry out the true intent and meaning of the Sherman act and to substitute competition for combination. Whether this can be done, either by statute or by court decree, remains to be seen; and if effected it will remain a problem not immediately capable of solution as to whether the wastefulness of competition or the extortion which may result from combination is the greater evil. Combination can perfect economies not possible under competition, and the tendencies of commercial life all over the world are toward that economy in production and in distribution which combination assists.

GHOSTS.

An eastern scientist claims to have sighted the ghost of Prof. William James and to have partly established communication with the late Harvard professor. In time, he says, nearly anyone will be able to talk with ghosts. If Prof. James ever speaks from the silence there will be nothing uncertain about it and nothing hazy in what he says. For the life of us, however, we cannot see the advantage in talking with ghosts. We have enough ghosts of tradition holding us in mental and spiritual thraldom as it is. All intellectual effort trends to blaze the way through the mists of the dimly surmised into the clear light of reason. The great idea, as Whitman says, is the mission of poets; and pure knowing, according to Schopenhauer, is the goal of true philosophy. The sort of ghosts meant by Ibsen in his play of that name are those principles and results of the past which are ever unfolding in the present. These ghosts belong to the eternally present and can never be escaped. The ghosts which fetter men with forms which the spirit of the age no longer finds useful are the sort of ghosts which must be left in their graves.

Elevated trains, municipal subways and tunnels go to make up the sum of many of the improvements that will be needed in the very near future in this city to solve the question of transportation in the congested district. It is none too soon to begin to discuss improvements that in the very nature of the present situation must soon demand the attention of the city. Present conditions are well-nigh intolerable.

The special session of the California Legislature will be called the first week of December, just long enough after Thanksgiving to allow the members to have the turkey stuffed with Tripoli chestnuts?

THE LAW AS TO EXPLOSIVES.

Among the laws enacted at the last session of the California Legislature was one for which it deserves commendation. It is the act relating to explosives and prescribing regulations for their transportation, storage and sale. It defines the term "explosive" to include every substance having an explosive power equal to or greater than black blasting powder. It provides that, except at an explosive manufacturing plant, no person shall have, keep or store explosives except in tight metal, wooden or fiber containers, and that, except while being transported, they shall be kept and stored in a magazine constructed and operated as in the law prescribed.

No matches, fire or lighting device of any kind shall be permitted in any magazine. No package of explosives shall at any time be opened in any magazine, nor shall any open package of explosives be kept therein. Blasting caps, detonators and electric fuses are required to be kept in magazines which must be detached and located at least 100 feet from any other structure.

Explosives must not be carried on any vessel, car or vehicle of any description carrying passengers for hire. Every package containing explosives, when presented to a common carrier for shipment, must have its contents plainly marked on the outside thereof and the agent of the transportation company must be informed of its true character.

Every person selling, giving away or delivering explosives within this State shall keep a book of record in which shall be entered a complete history of each transaction stating the name and quality of the explosive, the name, place of residence and business of the purchaser or individual to whom delivered. This book shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the police authorities, and an explosive shall not be delivered without taking from the purchaser a statement in writing of the place where and the purpose for which the explosive is intended for use. This statement must be witnessed in writing by two credible witnesses, residents of the county, who shall certify that the purchaser is personally known to them, and that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the explosives are required by such person for the uses and purposes set forth in the statement.

Failure to comply with these provisions is made a misdemeanor punishable with a fine of not less than $100 or more than $2000 or by imprisonment of not less than six months or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

In addition to such imprisonment and as cumulative penalty the offender shall forfeit for each offense the sum of $250 to be recovered by the informer who brings suit for it. The suit cannot be dismissed without consent of the court, nor shall any judgment recovered be discharged save by full payment with costs, and by order of court.

No person except a peace officer or an authorized agent of the owner shall enter any explosive manufacturing plant, magazine or car containing explosives in this State.

It is made a felony punishable by not more than two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for any person to wilfully carry any explosive on his person while on board a car, vessel or vehicle that carries passengers for hire, or to place an explosive in any baggage checked, or in any hand baggage carried.

The act is made non-applicable to any shipment of explosives from a point within this State consigned to a point without this State.

This last provision offers a loophole for the violation of the law. A dynamiter might purchase an explosive and consign it to himself or another at Reno or Yuma and return on the next train bringing it with him.

NOT SO SUGARY.

Whatever else may be said of the descendants of the Pilgrim Fathers, their patriotism and their fearlessness may not be decried.

"They love their land because it is their own,
And scorn to give aught other reason why.
And think it kindness to His Majesty.
A hardy race, fearing and flattering none.
Such are they nurtured, such they live and die."

To awaken a Yankee to combat for what he believes to be his "rights" an appeal to his patriotism will be most effective. Next to that a wrench of his pocket nerve will serve to send the blood of Lexington and Bunker Hill coursing in hot tumult through his veins. The Nutmeggers of Meriden, Ct., have arisen in wrath against their oppressor. The oppressor is the sugar trust. Within the past few weeks the price of "short sweetening" has nearly doubled in Meriden and the citizens are—metaphorically speaking—up in arms. By the banks of the noble Connecticut, which for more than a century has "brought shad to South Haddam and freedom to man," they "resoluted" against saccharine oppression and addressed the following letter to President Taft.

"We wish to call your attention to the fact that since the adjournment of Congress the price of sugar has nearly doubled. No reports have appeared in the public press of any shortage in the sugar crop, and no good reason has been given for the increase in price. But the 'sugar trust' has been to great expense for defense of charges of grafting and for heavy fines for being caught with the goods; and we believe the price of sugar has been advanced to cover these expenses. . . .

"The jail is the place to punish the 'trust' pirates. Fines have no more effect than shot blown from a bean-blower. We are heartily sick of seeing the American people stand like helpless cattle and be robbed by these 'trusts.'

"We believe there is a splendid opportunity for our President to serve the people; and, as American citizens, we request that the secret service and the Department of Justice be instructed to camp on the trail of the 'sugar trust' till its hide is stretched on the wall."

The indignant remonstrants were a little off in their facts, for there is a shortage in the sugar crop, both in Cuba and Germany. Yet the shortage is not great enough to warrant an advance of 100 per cent. in the price of refined sugar. It has not advanced reason appears why it should have been advanced so much in Connecticut. Possibly the retail grocers of Meriden have taken an unwarranted advantage of the situation and organized a trust inside of a trust, a sort of imperium in imperio. The indomitable Connecticut Yankee will not run. He will fight it out where he is. If it were not for his disposition in this respect we would advise the Meridenians to leave the chilly clime where the oppressor tramples on their sugar bowls and depletes their bank accounts and come to this land of cheap sugar and bask in the sunshine.

FUNERAL REFORM.

About the solemn figure of Death has accumulated too much dark and dismal imagery; about our funerals too costly a ceremonial. Instead of robbing death of its terrors we add to the sorrow of the bereaved family, in too many cases, a heavy financial burden. Very few people today, unless they own a three-figure balance in the bank, can afford the luxury of dying; that is, if they think first of their friends and families. Yet seeing that the best-intentioned man, the model father and husband, must sooner or later perform this unkind act, good sentiments should prompt us to make the loss fall as easily as we can upon the survivors.

The actual sadness accompanying all disruption of families and breaking up of old ties and friendships is manifested only too inevitably in that cruelest of all separations which we call death. On the side of sentiment the balance must always be against the bereaved ones; by making the financial balance also fall so strongly against them they are hardly taking the proper course to heal the wound. To the one who has been taken away expensive oaken caskets with brass fittings, trains of carriages, glittering ritual, oceans of flowers, marble monuments can bring no benefit, can have no meaning; while his spirit, if after death it can revisit the scene of its earthly pilgrimage, must suffer intensely at seeing the ones he loved in life with their backs against the cold wall of bare existence, through the heavy cost incurred in putting away his perishable body under ground; a process necessary for sanitary rather than religious reasons.

Society, custom and general usage are responsible for the present excessive cost of funerals. Sentiment has become so confounded that the ability to dissociate in the mind the living soul from the dead body seems to be paralyzed by sorrow. So honors are paid to the corruptible part of humanity, the flesh that perishes. As though one would cover with vast ceremonial an empty and tottering house because its owner had once been near and dear to him.

The cost of funerals does not hurt those who are left with a generous supply of this world's goods; in a way, it is a tribute to the memory of a benefactor, as are also the funerals of public men. But many a poor laborer has had his last moments darkened, lest his death should make him a burden to his family. No good man ever asked for an extravagant funeral beyond the means of his station in life. Great men have always asked for simple burial. Yet a strange mixture of pride and love, of grief and display, nearly always impell even the poorest to add to their misery the burden of debt in seeing—as the phrase is—that every fitting honor and respect are shown to the remains of the dear deceased. And in a few years the honored body and the money spent in the honoring have passed away forever, while in an extreme case the memory of the first may be embittered by the exigency of the latter.

The poor man who has stinted himself in life to pay a small premium on a modest life insurance never wished that insurance to be buried with him in the tomb. Such insurance is not for the dead, but for the living. For when everything is over and time has softened the shock that little anory of him who provided it than all the funeral pomp or marble slabs in the cemetery.

Even the well-to-do may be harassed in their last moments by the knowledge of the care and trouble to which their loved ones will be put in arranging for the funeral.

"While some discuss if near the other graves
Be room enough for this, and when a day
Suits best for carrying the corpse away,
With care about the banners, scarves and staves;
And still the man hears all and only craves
He may not shame such tender love and stay."

There will always be a host of business details connected with the departure of every being from this world which of course must be attended to, and human wisdom has very properly organized a profession of trained men to attend to these important matters, so as to take them off the shoulders of those who are often incapacitated by grief at the supreme moment. Their valuable and important services should be paid for in proportion. But, as it seems a hopeless problem to reduce the price of living, we might at least make dying as inexpensive as possible.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

To save the forests and the coal, we meet betimes in Kansas City, and spring a good long rigmarole, and sing a soul-inspiring ditty. We talk at dinner and at lunch, on how to save the country's bacon, and then we go, the whole blamed bunch, to have a fine group picture taken. Long may our golden banners wave! Long may we wage this noble battle! The land's resources we shall save, if we must pow-wow at Seattle! We'll scourge the pillagers away, and drive the Morganheimers batty, e'en though to win the fateful fray we have to meet at Cincinnatty! The talkfest is the shining sword with which we'll stop to spoilers' capers! So let's orate till crowds are bored, and read our long and prosy papers; on all who don't agree with us we'll pass our caustic, savage strictures, and after all the pleasant fuss we'll go and sit for moving pictures. We battle for eternal right, for home—be it a hall or shanty—and we shall win the sacred fight, though we must meet at Ypsilanti!

PRATTLE OF THE YOUNGSTERS.

[Brooklyn Eagle:] Willie: What's bein' an orphan?

Tommy (who never knew his parents:) Guess it's when the stork drops you before he gets to the house he's goin 'to.

"I know how people walk," said Willie to his grandmother. "They put one foot down and let it stay till it gets 'way hind, then do the same with the other foot, and keep on doing it."

"Now, Thomas," said the teacher to a small pupil, "what is a demagogue?"

"A demagogue," replied the little fellow, who was thinking of a demijohn, "is a vessel for holding whisky, wine or any other kind of liquor."

Any May: Johnny, you bad boy, you have molasses taffy all over your new suit! What will mamma say?

Johnny: Oh, it doesn't make much difference what she says. She never lets me have any fun in new clothes until I get them spoiled.

Little Lola: I think it's a shame for mamma to put us out of the room just because company came.

Little Lola: I'm afraid not. You can trust company with cake.

"Why, Willie, what kept you so late? Did you have to stay after school? I'm afraid you have been naughty.

"No, ma'am, I ain't never naughty. Bobby Jones was licked for bein' naughty an' I stayed after school to hear him yell."

Tamed.

[Kansas City Journal:] Mr. Taft found the insurgents of Kansas and Iowa so tame that he had to attend a Wild West show at

MEN AND THINGS ACROSS THE SEA.

The cost of the insurance schemes of Germany, according to Sir Francis Oppenheimer, is becoming such as to tell against the country in foreign markets. "The limit of a bearable burden" is being approached. Already the outlay on insurance has mounted to $40,000,000 a year, yet further additions are to be made to it; and in future it will involve a daily expenditure of no less than £150,000. As Mr. Lloyd George is proposing something of the same insurance character for England, the German situation is having a disquieting influence. One peculiar result of the German insurance schemes is that the members of the medical profession of that country have risen in revolt and complain that any raising of the number of insured will cause their practice to be ruined. They have consequently given notice that all contracts with the insurance societies will cease next year, and they have determined to demand a fixed fee per visit, payable in cash.

The Duke of Newcastle, who recently celebrated his 47th birthday, is physically frail and feeble, but he has a great store of energy and originality, much of which is expended in furthering the cause of the High Church movement. At Clumber he built a private chapel which cost, with its adornments, a sum of £70,000. The services are ornate, the ceremonial being most imposing, and as admission is by ticket, they are free from interruption. The Duke is one of the ablest amateur photographers in society and has thousands of plates—which he develops himself—stowed away at Clumber, where he has a collection of over thirty cameras. The Duke owns nearly 40,000 acres, and it will be remembered that he provided a glove and supported his Majesty's right arm while he was holding the scepter at the Coronation.

Official statistics recently issued show that the Kaiser is the greatest land owner in Germany. He possesses eighty-three estates, covering an area of approximately 250,000 acres. The revenues from these estates flow into his pocket quite apart from his allowance of nearly $5,000,000 per annum from the treasury. With the exception of the Czar, he is the best-paid monarch in the world. The King of England, with probably heavier personal and state expenses, only gets £711,000 as opposed to the Kaiser's £1,000,000. The King of Italy gets £640,000, the King of Spain, £370,000, the Mikado of Japan £325,000, and King Manuel used to get as King of Portugal £120,000.

Sir George Ranken Askwith, the well-known Controller-General of the Commercial, Labor and Statistical Departments of the Board of Trade who, as Board of Trade intermediary, has settled thousands of industrial disputes to the satisfaction of both sides, has been knighted by King George. In a long series of labor troubles—going back to a big Scottish coal dispute in 1909, and including the serious lock-out in the cotton trade last year—Mr. Askwith has been almost uniformly successful in bringing about peace. He has been described as "patience personified—a man of very quiet demeanor, never in a hurry." The result of all these labors is that the old reluctance of both employers and men to submit difficult questions to arbitration has given way; and the new conciliation methods are every day extending their popularity.

With regard to the recreations of society, Queen Mary is bringing about a change rapidly. Card playing is a diversion not looked upon with favor at court. The King enjoys a game of bridge now and then, and from time to time patronizes the race course, but he makes neither a hobby, and is content to divide his time between the cares of state and the society of his family, with fishing and shooting by way of recreation. The Queen cares very little for racing and still less for card playing. Therefore this diversion will not be the fashion for ladies during the present reign, except among a certain set, which is, after all, a small section of society.

The German passenger-carrying airships already rival the ocean steamers in the elegance and comfort of their cabins. The "Schwaben," the new Zeppelin airship, carries twenty-four passengers and a crew of nine airmen. The metal work of the interior of the cabins is covered with mahogany, while even the ceiling panels and other inlaid parts are finished in the same expensive wood. The ceiling beams and the pillars of the cabin are inlaid with mother-of-pearl. The floors are thickly carpeted. The chairs and tables are of wicker-work to economize weight. While dinner is served in this luxurious cabin, the passenger enjoys an uninterrupted view through the broad plate glass windows. The regular daily trips are two hours in length, but the airship often is chartered for a longer air journey.

A GOVERNOR SHOULD BE A GENTLEMAN.

[Brooklyn Eagle:] Gov. Johnson of California, shortly after his election, was praised in Brooklyn and Manhattan by an editor from Oakland, in addresses to church friends, in a way which created favorable anticipations of his courtesy and ability. Ability he may have. Courtesy he lacks, if the concurrent report of correspondents with President Taft on his speaking tour in California are to be credited. Credited they will be, because though the correspondents represent papers of different sentiments, all of them agree in ascribing to Gov. Johnson a want of civility with which the hospitable inhabitants of his progressive commonwealth cannot be supposed to sympathize. It is a fine thing to be a Governor, but it is a better thing to be a gentleman, and gentlemanliness lasts longer than Governorships or than political insurgency, while want of the quality, in the long run, brings about the overthrow of those who need it, but lack it.

Exchanging Courtesies.

[From the Red Hen:] The late Sir W. S. Gilbert, the librettist, once met Liebling, the pianist, and the following interchange of courtesies occurred between them. Liebling was introduced to Gilbert, and Gilbert said:

"Sir, I have heard Liszt——"

Liebling bowed his head in acknowledgment at what he supposed was the coming compliment.

"I have heard Henry Hertz," continued Gilbert.

Liebling bowed still lower.

"I have heard Paderewski."

Liebling made a genuflexion even unto the ground.

"Well, sir," continued Gilbert, in abrupt tones, "not one of them—not one of them,

EVENTIDE.

There comes a voice from far away
To all who, sad, their vigils keep,
When o'er the once too brilliant day
The heavy clouds of sorrow sweep;
Tho' hour by hour the shadows creep
And thicken with the plumes of night,
Ere the tense eyelids close in sleep
"At eventide it shall be light."

As when a midday storm appears
With misting cloud and slanting rain
And turns a smiling dawn to tears
And veils the mountain from the plain;
Though through the drift we seek in vain
For the fair promise of the morn,
The evening sky turns bright again
And lo! a rosier hope is born;

So one, perchance, o'er whose young years
The flowers of hope, so freely spread,
Are trampled in the dust of strife
When the storm gathers overhead,
Just when the last poor flower seems dead
And the last lingering hope denied,
Sees on his autumn pathway shed
The softening glow of eventide.

It was not meant that aught should die
It cannot be that aught shall fail;
Though many a life whose aim was high
Seems wasted and of no avail,
The good ship, driven by the gale
Far from its course o'er ocean wide,
May yet come safely home, and sail
Into its port at eventide.

AIMS AND AIMS: Independent, uncompromised, unshackled, unpurchasable, unafraid and unencumbered. THE LOS ANGELES TIMES is devoted to the great principles of Liberty under Law, Equal Rights in all fields of lawful human endeavor, Industrial Freedom, and to the upbuilding of Los Angeles, the State of California and the great Southwest.

TO LABOR: The Times champions the principle of "equality of opportunity," to all that it means to independent labor and the average good citizen. It is the undeviating friend of all honest toilers of all unshackled law-abiding workmen everywhere; and while never denying the right of workmen to organize lawfully, it is the unyielding foe of lawless, destructive, monopolistic and exclusive labor organizations, because they are the deadly enemies of their own class and the common industrial weal. Our position is unalterable and will be maintained. The long record of The Times as a just, fair and reliable paymaster is unassailable. During the period between August 6, 1890, and September 30, 1910, there was paid to its corporate cash sum of $4,625,173.25.

EDUCATION: The Times stands for the conservation of human life and character, with all their tremendous potentialities; for the conservation of home and country; of the Flag and its glorious traditions; of national life and national honor. and their pregnant possibilities; of true, advanced and enlightened moral ideals; for the conservation of a free, virtuous, patriotic citizenship, without which no nation can be great and good.

Music and Stage.

AMATO, THE ACTOR-SINGER.

HEAT YOUNG BARITONE TRIUMPHS AT AUDITORIUM.

Mirrored in the Acting Singer of Sundays and the Mere Vocalist of Years Gone by Finely Illustrated in This Man—Tanara and Longari, His Talented Assistants.

BY JULIAN JOHNSON.

Pasquale Amato, with the exception of Caruso the best representative of the modern style of Italian operatic singing known to America, lifted his audience, the town's critics, and incidentally the roof of the Auditorium last night.

Regular cartooneery—which is in that subjects a pitifully backwoods type—depicts the Italian opera star as a unmanned, pompous little individual, all narrow of shoulder, with a waxed mustache and the cheap braggadocio of a melodramatic villain. Even art is true in that just such figures flourished in the days of Bellini and Verdi music. But such an insect could not stand about as much chance of Verdi realism. Leoncavallo virility and Mascagni passion as a Shubert chorus man in a bull-ring.

When Amato, a magnificent specimen of the modern type. A clean-faced gentleman, with the strong countenance of the born actor; tall, as a man of the world; broad of shoulder and with a chest [illegible] and a half in depth—in all, a remarkable combination of art and nature plus physical strength and virile power.

Amato's entire programme was a thing de force. He was encored on every number, and his finale, the "Pagliacci" prologue, was greeted with a genuine demonstration. Amid these a little girl in a front box threw him a big pink rose. Her breath was not sufficient to get it over the footlights, and it fell into the charm of the orchestra. Lest she be disappointed Amato added acrobatic to vocal agility, and clambered down into the vacant orchestra after the flower. Then, holding the rose in his right hand, he sang the "Toreador song" from "Carmen" as a finale.

Amato is the beau ideal of the opera singer. Just how good an actor he was shown in the fact that he was able to deliver his entire dramatic outpourings last night minus any accompaniment whatever, and yet remain at ease, natural, relaxed. Only the little feline touches in Leoncavallo's operette—with a few affected motions, head waggings and finger-wavings, seems not to be able to restrain his wiggles on the platform. These fellows are not of the elect. They could never be as Jack Rance, as did Amato, and the metropolitan dramatic critics declare that in subtlety and dramatic force, as well as in keen characterization, the performance was the equal of Frank Keenan's memorable presentation.

It is significant of the entire dramatic observancy of Puccini's latest work that not an aria from it was sung on last night's programme. In this Strauss Puccini seems to have become—temporarily, we trust—addicted to the concert stage. Amato was silent as far as his great dramatical role was concerned.

Tanara, too, that the decidedly uninteresting "Ballo in Maschera" air at the opening had been omitted, substituting with same-type and better known, even more familiar "Dio Possente," which Amato would sing in gorgeous style. Or if he preferred dramaticism from the contest, Scarpia's denunciation from Puccini's "Credo."

Longari, however, may be picked in the programme does not merit comment, and the rest of the programme does not merit comment. The brilliant "Drinking Song" from "Hamlet," the stupendously difficult, but wonderful "Serenade" from "The Barber," the "Don Gio anni" duet, a selection of ballads, and the hilariously humorous finale, with various and sundry encores in between, form a group of gems seldom heard in one programme.

Amato's voice, splendid in the middle register, without which it is impossible to properly interpret modern music-drama, and rich, soft, youthful, brilliant and vast of range in lyric passages, was slightly husky at the beginning, but cleared as he progressed, and the Prologue, after an hour and a half of strenuous vocalizing, was given in perfect voice.

As for his method—he has a great voice, and he sings. That's all.

Not the least part of Amato's charm is his graciousness and unfailing ivory smile.

Second honors easily go to Fernando Tanara, a little bearded man, who was Amato's accompanist. Tanara is an exceptional pianist, and upbears, but never buries the voice of his artist.

Mme. Gilda Longari, soprano, is a beautiful young Italian woman—beautiful in the sense of personality and consummate gowning rather than in feature. The Longari is schooled in the impassioned Puccini school, and though she forces her voice at times, it is a soprano of power, sympathetic quality and in general fidelity to pitch and of ample range. Her "Vissi d'arte", glowing, passionate, almost voluptuous, was a sensual delight to the ears. In her French selections Mme. Longari is not much at home. She is Italian and temperamentally direct; not Gallic and ful of artistic dissimulation.

Pantages.

It is easy to say nice things about the Pantages programme this week.

In fact, excepting one number, it is difficult to say anything else.

This leaves eight praiseworthy numbers, of which the first and final are respectively orchestral and pictorial. Valentine and the Pantages

HOME Decoration Consists in Selection

THE rugs and draperies may be ever so costly, ever so individually beautiful,—but if the ensemble complete be not wisely chosen, with a view to perfect harmony in tone, figure and period effects, the result is almost certain to be displeasing. We shall be happy to offer suggestions or to aid you in properly completing your selections for interior decortion.

In Rugs

—Afton Scotch Rugs come mostly in the handsome two-toned effects, and are reversible. Blues, browns, greens and natural shadings, the 9x12 size, priced at $17; 9x10.6 at $15; 7.6x9 at $11.

—A large assortment of genuine Wilton Rugs in all-over Persian designs, and Medallion centers—a wide range from which to select, the 9x12 size being priced at $35.

In Draperies

—Our stock of figured scrims comprises all the late effects in colors and figures. These scrims may be split and used as side drapes if so desired. Priced at 35c, 25c and 20c yd.

—French Bobbinettes in white and ecru, in widths from 36 to 108 inches, priced at 30c and upwards.
—Third Floor, Rear—

Dressy Suits $35

WE are featuring an especially meritorious line of handsome suits, priced at $35 and to $50. Our assortments, of course, include many elegant costumes priced to $125,—but these at $35 to $50 reflect all the latest features in color, style and texture, and are admirably adapted for business and street wear, morning and afternoon occasions.
—Ready-to-Wear Dept., Second Floor, Rear—

Net Over-Drapes

FILMY over-drapes of all-over net are arriving now in many elegantly figured and bordered effects. One series just being shown is in blue, pink and lavender net, bordered with a handsome fern-leaf design in gold. Other charming drapes for evening gowns, etc., come in marquisette and chiffons. Ask to see them. Priced at $2.50 to $4.50 yd.
—Upper Right Aisle, Broadway Annex—

New Wool Challies

THIS season's latest style-changes are featured in the colorings and figurings of these new wool challies, now being shown in our Wash Goods department. Bordered designs are extremely modish, too. Priced at 50c, 60c, 65c and 75c yard.
—Center Left Aisle, Main Floor—

—These Manila Hand-Embroidered Under Garments

GOWNS, drawers and corset covers there are—the daintiest, most delightfully finished undergarments we have EVER shown. We realize that this last statement may appear slightly exaggerated—but we nevertheless repeat it, and emphatically—We have NEVER shown handmade garments the equal of these! —Such needle-work is seldom to be found in the costliest of hand-embroidered French garments,—if ever. The materials are of the softest, sheerest Philippine-woven fabrics. See these garments today—shown here exclusively. Priced at $6.50 to $18.50.
—Second Floor, Front—

The "White Goods and Lace House"—

"CHARMING!"—is the verdict of the many who have visited our new Broadway annex,—the "White Goods and Lace House."
—Here you will find the latest in laces, embroideries, neckwear, trimmings, veilings, etc.,—attractively displayed.
—Come today.

Miss Lotta Young,

Who will entertain a party of friends at Tan-To, the new automobile game to be played at Ascot Park Saturday next. The scholarship fund of the California Woman's clubs will be the fortunate beneficiary.

HON. HENRY LANE WILSON, the American Ambassador to Mexico, was the complimented guest at an elaborate banquet given in the City of Mexico by his American friends at the American Club the evening of September 12. The banquet was planned with the double purpose of extending to him a welcome on his return from this country and to express appreciation of his excellent record during the trying time of the last year in Mexico. Several Los Angeles people were present.

The clubrooms were elaborately decorated with the national colors of America and Mexico. These were gracefully draped and outlined with electric bulbs. A dainty arrangement of beautiful flowers arranged in a low mound decorated the table, together with delicately-shaded candle sticks.

Although given at the American Club, the banquet was a courtesy from Americans generally in Mexico, and not only residents of the capital, but many from the interior were present. Letters of regret were received from others at distant points who were unable to attend, thus showing the high esteem in which the Ambassador is held.

As the Ambassador entered the room with George W. Cook and E. N. Brown, there was not an empty place at the table, and as he took his seat at the head, received an ovation, as the orchestra played the "Star Spangled Banner."

With Mr. Cook as toastmaster the following persons responded to toasts: "The United States—Its Present and Future," the Rev. Sidney S. Conger; "Mexico—Its Present and Future," Paul Hudson; Letters from absent friends, read by E. N. Brown; "Our Guest of Honor," the chairman.

Sweet Charity.

Now that the season is well under way and each hostess has her date book filled, interest will center around the two big benefits to be given in this city.

Tan-To, the new automobile game which will be played at Ascot Park Saturday next, is to benefit the scholarship fund of the California Woman's Clubs. This was arranged at a meeting held recently. The fund is maintained by the Federated Clubs to assist needy parents who are deprived of the services of their children by the State law compelling children between certain ages to attend school.

Then there is the Society Vaudeville, proceeds for which will go to the Children's Hospital. As yet no date has been arranged but it will possibly be given during December. The rehearsals will take place in the new ballroom of the Alexandria. Plans will not be perfected for some time and at present the advisory board includes Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant, Mrs. Huntington Miner, Mrs. Granville MacGowan, Mrs. Joseph Sartori, Mrs. Hancock Banning, Mrs. J. C. Drake, Mrs. Charles Drake, Mrs. Michael J. Connell and Mrs. Mary Longstreet. The executive board is headed by Mrs. Hamilton Bowman Rollins, assisted by Mrs. John G. Mott, Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy, Mrs. Walter Miller Clark and Mrs. Chester Montgomery.

At Hotel Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Tomblin of No. 730 West Twenty-eighth street are domiciled at Hotel Virginia, where they will pass the winter.

Has Returned.

Mrs. J. L. Murphy has just returned from an extended tour through Europe and will be at home to her friends Fridays for the next three weeks at No. 840 South Burlington avenue.

At Home Wednesdays.

After an absence of a year abroad, Miss F. H. Parsons will be at home to her friends Wednesdays at No. 1139 West Twenty-ninth street.

At Arrowhead.

Guests who are sharing the beauties of Arrowhead, include: Mr. and Mrs. George B. Easton, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. R. Meyer, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leeds, Carleton Burke, Miss Louise Burke, C. H. Sessions, Los Angeles; A. S. Benson, S. Benson, Portland; F. W. Returns From East.

Mrs. E. W. Martindale with her two sons, Edward and Howard, have returned to their home at No. 636 Lucas avenue after a pleasant vacation in Boston, Rochester, Chicago and Topeka.

Wedding Anniversary

Mrs W. Z. Lansingh, No. 1317 West Fortieth Place, entertained last evening with a "500" party in celebration of their fifth wedding anniversary. The home was enlivened with large yellow chrysanthemums and chrysanthemum cups were given as favors. About thirty-six guests were present. In receiving Mr. and Mrs Lansingh were assisted by Miss Jessie Gorham of Sacramento and Mr. and Mrs. Dal Jones.

Coming Affair.

The Los Angeles Cadets will entertain Friday evening with a Hobgoblins' Jollyup, at the Goldberg-Bosley Assembly room. Those who will act as patronesses are Mrs. R. M. Walker, Mrs. H. W. Brundige, Mrs. Ruben S. Schmidt, Mrs. J. P. Whitmore, Mrs. E. D. Dake and Mrs. John Holden, Jr. The committee in charge of the affair are C. L. Young, W. Ray Barranger, Phil Conturier, W. Jacobsmeyer, G. W. Young and Harry L. Vines.

At Lakeside.

Aleck Reynolds and C. D. Sprigg have spent the last week at Lakeside Inn, dividing their time between the quail and the duck shooting on the lake.

Wedding Announcement.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Laura Schraeder and Victor Newman, which was recently solemnized at the home of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. J. M. Schaefle.

Mrs. Featherstone Hostess.

PERSONALS.

A. H. Van Slyke, freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, traveling out of Sacramento, is a guest at the Hayward. Another railroad man of the same road at the hotel is S. H. Dado, city ticket agent at San Mateo.

Dr. C. W. Kellogg, who has left his medical practice to take up oil development around Bakersfield, is staying at the Hollenbeck.

Key Pittman, one of the officials of the National Bank of Tonopah, is staying at the Alexandria. He is accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Kirchen.

Lieut. H. T. Swain, U.S.N., and Lieut. C. W. Forman, U.S.N., are guests at the Van Nuys. They are here visiting friends while the fleet is in local waters. R. E. Sells, a Salt Lake mining man, is at the same hotel.

W. W. Wood of Canyon City, Or., is passing a few days at the Hollenbeck. He is a packer of fine apples and is here looking after the distribution of some of his fruit. C. A. Jordan, a San Diego optician, is at the hotel.

John Cordano, Sheriff of Portland, left the Angelus yesterday for home after having secured a prisoner here. He offered one of the bellhops a nice ride in his machine, but the boy balked when he saw the machine was the patrol.

J. Rheinshreiber, one of the pioneer merchants of Salt Lake, with his family, is making his home at the Auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Houser are registered at the hotel from Porterville. Houser is a fruit grower. W. H. Bunce is a Denver real estate man who is at the hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Hickman are passing a few days at the Van Nuys. They are here from Douglas, where the doctor is surgeon for one of the extensive mines. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Colby are guests from Bakersfield, where Colby has oil interests.

J. Sullivan, a successful lumber manufacturer of Traverse City, Mich., is staying at the Lankershim. His family consists of his wife, son and two daughters. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Haynes are passing a few days at the same hotel. Haynes is a broker of Portland.

Fred Hedberg, one of the pioneer mining engineers of Bisbee, is at the Hollenbeck. Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLean are at the hotel for an extended sojourn. McLean is a real estate dealer of Vancouver.

Friedman Messe, a steel manufacturer of Essen, Germany, is registered at the Westminster. He is well acquainted with the Krupp interests, and is in this country looking over some of the great foundries and iron mills.

C. E. Redmon, connected with the Goldfield Consolidated interests at Goldfield, arrived at the Hayward yesterday with his wife. Another guest at the hotel is J. W. Foster, assistant manager of the Del Monte Hotel at Del Monte.

L. M. Markham of Atlanta is making his home at the Auditorium. Markham was formerly connected with the Chamber of Commerce of the southern city, and has been studying conditions of the South and West and publicity methods employed in various sections.

Thomas Judge, a grain operator of Hastings, Neb., with Miss Agnes Judge, is registered at the Angelus. Raymond P. Anderson, an Omaha commission broker, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Leavey of San Diego are also guests at the hotel.

Ray Skelton, a connoisseur of art, arrived at the Lankershim yesterday from Paris, [illegible] a Los Angeles home, and has brought back with him a number of masters by famous artists. Among them a Rosa Bonheur, a Jean Monchoblon, a Henner head and a Franc Charlet. One of the pictures he prizes most is painted by Bartlet, whose pointing, "The Funeral," has received a modicum of praise at the Royal Academy of London, where it is hanging.

J. M. McDonald, a New York clubman, who has a wide acquaintance in Los Angeles, after passing several winters here, arrived at the Alexandria yesterday. He is a manufacturer of hats.

New Yorker Who Gave Lady His Sleeping Car Berth Years Ago Inherits Her Fortune.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because he surrendered a sleeping car ticket to her on a trip from New York to Washington twenty years ago, after she was unable to obtain a berth, Mrs. Helen Amelia Marsh has left the bulk of her estate of $110,000 to Everett W. Marlowe of New York.

At the time he met Mrs. Marsh young Marlowe's ambition was to go to Harvard, and when Mrs. Marsh learned of this she insisted that his education be completed at her expense. Marlowe finished his course in Harvard and later was graduated from the Columbia Law School.

Marlowe is made an executor under the will, which was filed in the probate court today.

COUNT OKU IS FIELD MARSHAL.

EFFORTS TO AID MAY BLIND BOY.

SYMPATHETIC WITNESSES OF ACCIDENT LOSE HEADS.

Seeing Lad Knocked Senseless from Wheel and Lying in Pool of Strong Acid They Hasten to Rub the Deadly Stuff Into His Skin to Restore Sight.

The well-intentioned but misdirected efforts of several persons who found Eugene Jasper, an errand boy, lying in a pool of acid yesterday morning may result in the lad losing his eyesight. In an effort to relieve the lad of his pain they rubbed his face briskly, forcing the burning liquid into his skin.

Jasper was sent by the Off & Vaughn Drug Company to deliver a gallon of lysol, a powerful disinfectant similar to carbolic acid, to the California Hospital. While riding his wheel on South Grand avenue near Tenth street, the boy collided with a sand wagon driven by David Graham, No. 3607 Monroe street. The force of the impact threw the boy from his bicycle to the pavement, breaking the large bottle of acid on him.

Partially stunned by the shock, Jasper was unable to move. Pedestrians hurried to his side and seeking to aid him began to vigorously chafe his face, arms and hands, apparently not realizing the dangerous nature of the liquid, though its odor is sharp and penetrating.

R. S. Lewis, who conducts an auto shop at Sixteenth and Grand, was passing in an automobile and he lifted the boy into his car and, with the aid of J. O. Hasan, took him to the Receiving Hospital.

EXCLUSIVE MEN'S CLUB.

Knickerbocker Is Organized With a Membership of Three Hundred—Plans To Build Ornate Home.

To keep pace with the rapid growth of the city a new exclusive club for men has been organized. It is known as the Knickerbocker Club of Los Angeles, and comes into existence with a membership of more than 300. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday. Temporary quarters have been found at No. 437 South Hill street. Among the charter members are some of the most prominent local business and professional men. B. W. Hahn is president; Richard Ingalese, vice-president; Joseph A. McBride, treasurer. Joseph P. Keogh, George F. Colton, D. H. Schuhman and G. R. Brown are directors.

The club is to be patterned somewhat along the lines of the other exclusive clubs of the city. In addition there will be a literary department and weekly meetings will be held at which current topics will be discussed by speakers. The membership is to be limited to 750. It is the ultimate hope of the charter members and officers to have a home for the club to excel anything here at the present time. A choice site is to be selected and a large, ornate structure built. The quarters on Hill street have been fitted up to care for the needs of the club for some time to come.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

orchestra supply the former and the Biograph the latter. Valentine does not smile like a man in fear of losing his job.

Two pretty girls, Victorine and Zolar, do a dancing and fencing turn in which electrically-charged foils, nifty costumes and unusual stage settings conspire to thrill and please an audience quite ready to render homage to grace and beauty. Archie Onri and his assistant, Miss Dolly, are jugglers with plenty of movement in their act. Their principal source of applause is Onri's invention, the "devilstick," which appears to be a sort of highly-trained "diabolo." Onri's simian make-up also gets him some laughs. Warren and Francis do an acrobatic and dance specialty that goes strong with the audience. The man is clever in eccentric gmynastics, but the chief attraction of the act is the lady member, who literally walks all over her male team-mate. This pleasantly plump little person has a remarkabe facility in the matter of flips and handsprings and the straightest limbs—so far as they are visible—ever seen outside the canvas of Millet or David. When she walks on her hands this fact is excellently in evidence. Black and Jones would probably be still dancing and singing at last night's show if the audience had their way. It took the combined efforts of stage manager and orchestra to choke off the demand for more, and permit the dark-town pair to make their getaway.

"Her Own Mother" meets all the specifications for a first-class farce comedy. It contains an uncle whose tendency—to insanity is demonstrated by a hatred of women and marriage, and a nephew who plays crazy to cure uncle of his monomania. But the rich and rare fun is developed by Alice Lindley in the double role of the wife and mother-in-law of nephew, assumed to save the old man's money from falling into the hands of unappreciative strangers who might waste it. Every word Miss Lindley utters, every look and gesture, inspires laughter. This is Miss Lindley's first vaudeville appearance here—she has found her metier. There is little plot in "Her Own Mother"—why waste a plot on a playlet with a comedienne of the Lindley caliber in the cast? The support is excellent.

Finally there is a trio of heavyweight acrobats called by the programme the Yoscarry Troupe. They do some clever gymnastics and get appreciative laughs for their failures—intended or otherwise—to climb three stories high over their hefty team-mates. Their three-high falls and saults are professionally meritorious and their laugh-making capacity sounds good to the box office. The number that falls short of the average is Dallas Chandler, a good-looking young woman who has voice and gowns, but not the vaudeville vim. It is hard to describe her failure, but she certainly accomplishes a very successful one.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Earl Thompson, formerly a messenger boy in Los Angeles, but during the last two years employed on one of the boats plying between this city and San Francisco, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of having stolen $90 two years ago.

Drive Away Germs with Gold Dust

The modern surgeon carefully cleanses hands and instruments before and after every operation; he realizes the danger both to himself and his patient of any clinging germs.

Germs thrive and multiply wherever they can find a lodging place in grease and dirt, and where things are scrupulously clean they find it hard to live.

The easiest and surest way to keep things clean lies in the use of Gold Dust washing powder. Gold Dust goes deep after dirt and routs out every germ and hidden impurity. It is the sanitary cleanser.

BIG ENTRY LIST FOR LADIES' KENNEL SHOW.

Southern California Association Preparing for Classiest Exhibit of Its Career—Prizes Galore Offered for Best in Each Class—Canines Will Be King Beginning November Ninth at Luna Park.

INTENSE interest centers in the approaching second annual dog show of the Ladies' Kennel Association of Southern California which will be held in Luna Park November 9, 10 and 11.

While the entry list has been open but a week there are strong possibilities of the list even surpassing that of last year, when there were 314 entries in the show.

The fact that a show is to be given in Sacramento one week ahead of the show here has been a trifle disappointing to the ladies in charge of the local show, but the only difference it may cause is in the number of northern entries. Last year this class of entries formed a large proportion of the show.

There are a total of 197 prizes offered for as many classes of dogs and the competition to carry off the blue ribbon in each class is keen.

RUSH TO ENTER.

At the various kennels throughout Los Angeles county and Southern California there has been a breathless rush of work in grooming the canines and training them in the strictly proper dog show habits and department.

Beautiful cocker spaniels, with sad eyes and long, drooping ears, have heroically withstood having their long, shaggy hair combed and washed and combed again for day after day as their owners prepared them for the eye of the judges. Boston bull terriers, the sauciest little canines that live, have been curbed a little and taught how to act before the eye of the donor of the blue ribbons.

The headquarters of the Ladies' Kennel Association has been established at the Pin Ton restaurant on Broadway and Show Secretary Mrs. F. M. Connor is there daily to receive entries. The entry list will positively close Saturday at noon and all those planning to enter dogs should have their blanks filled out and in the hands of the secretary by that time.

Alf Delmont of Devon, Pa., who is considered one of the best officials at a dog show on the Pacific Coast, will act as judge of the coming show. He had agreed to judge the Sacramento show, but when he was informed of the Los Angeles show he canceled his arrangement with the Sacramento people and will come to Los Angeles to judge.

The Bench Show Committee that is handling the arrangements for the big show consists of Mrs. Ella F. Morgan, Mrs. S. Grant Goucher, Miss Lydia Hopkins, Mrs. J. Henry Peckham, Mrs. Frank Moore Connor, Mrs. E. A. McClure, Mrs. A. N. Fairchild, Mrs. E. W. Hopperstead, Mrs. Nellie Winterman and Mrs. R. B. Byles.

The judges of the show will be Miss Jean Forgeus, Williams, Cal., Russian wolfhounds; Alf Delmont, Devon, Pa., all other breeds and classifications.

Prizes have been offered for the classes and breeds of dogs which are approved by the American Kennel Club. In most cases the breeds are divided into classifications of puppies, dogs novice, dogs, limit, dogs, open, dogs, winners, dogs, with the same classification for the opposite sex.

VARIETY OF BREEDS.

The breeds are as follows: Bloodhounds, mastiffs, St. Bernards (rough and smooth coated,) Great Danes, Russian wolfhounds, deerhounds, grayhounds, foxhounds (English and American,) beagle hounds, Esquimaux, pointers, English, Gordon and Irish setters, Chesapeake Bay dogs, Irish, water, Clumber, field, Cocker, black and other than black, spaniels, dachshunds, collies, Belgian or German sheepdogs, poodles, chow-chows, Dalmatians, bulldogs, Airedale terriers, bull terriers, French bulldogs, Boston terriers, fox terriers (smooth-coated and white-haired,) Irish, Scottish, West Highland and Skye terriers, schipperkes, Pomeranians, French toy, Japanese, Pekingese spaniels, pugs, toy poodles, Yorkshire, Maltest and toy black and tan terriers, griffons Brullexoise,) Chihuahuas, Italian greyhounds, papillons and miscellaneous with the breed stated.

In the prize list, which is one of the longest and best ever offered at a bench show, there are 197 prizes in the various classes. Prominent among them are the prizes for handlers, which are in gold coin.

Another of the prizes offered is that by L. C. Brand for the best dog in all-terrier class. The president's cup, which is offered by Mrs. Ella F. Morgan for the best animal in the show, regardless of breed or class, is being eagerly sought by the owners and breeders of fine dogs.

In the unclassified specials, where the greatest leeway is given for showing fine animals, intense interest centers. The prizes offered are:

SECOND GAME OF SERIES IS SURE TO BE HOT.

Pair of Goose Eggs in First Game Leaves Question of Superiority Still Open—High School 'Varsity Will Start Play but Freshmen May Get Chance.

Bovard field this afternoon will be the scene of what promises to be a warm little drama in two acts when the U.S.C. Rugby 'varsity hooks up with the fifteen from the Polytechnic High School in the second game of the present series.

The first game between the pair ended in a 0 to 0 score, but as it was earlier in the season and before the Cards made the showing against Stanford the High School lads will have to get up early and hit the high places to make the boat.

The series is to be for three games and the team having the greatest number of points at the end of the third game will be awarded the trophy.

These games were got up by Warren Bovard, manager of U.S.C., so the students of the Methodist institution would have a chance this season to learn the new game.

The Poly team has been working hard for the past two weeks with this game in view and hope to make the U.S.C. team take water. The Mechanics have not been in organized athletics for the past year, but if they make good this season there is a great probability that the ban will be lifted and once more the Poly battle cry will be hear over the various fields in the South.

The U.S.C. team will start with its regular line-up, but if the games goes against the High School team, too strong, Higgins will pull out some of his first string men and give the freshmen a chance.

NEW BOXING RULES PROPOSED.

Veteran Featherweight Has Drawn Up Set.

Thinks They Are Improvement on Queensberry.

Offers Change in Weights for Classes.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

YONKERS (N. Y.) Oct. 24.—Jacob Skelly, the veteran featherweight, who retired from the ring in 1892, and has recently been apointed an official referee by the State Athletic Commission, has prepared a revision of the Queensberry rules which he hopes to see adopted for American boxing. Some of the more important sections of his revised code are:

The weights for all championship contests shall be as follows:

Each champion shall defend his title at least twice a year, if the challenger post a $1000 guarantee. A champion refusing to make a match shall forfeit his title.

There shall be no continuous clinching, hugging or wrestling allowed by the referee.

If either man goes down through weakness or other causes, he must get up unassisted within ten seconds. The other man meanwhile must step back ten feet. A man hanging on the ropes in a helpless condition, or a man on one knee shall be considered down, and if struck is entitled to the decision.

The referee shall decide all contests on points.

The points to count shall be for attack, direct clean hits with either hand above the belt, defense, guarding, ducking, counter-hitting or side-stepping. Where points are equal on both sides, consideration must be given to

MATHEWSON CRUSHED BY ATHLETIC SLUGGERS.

Connie Mack's Men Win Third Game of World Series With Superb Stick Work and Clever Fielding. Barry and Baker Star Hitters for Victors—Phillies Hope to End Series Today.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Hitting the great Mathewson to all corners of the field, the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the New York Giants at Shibe Park today for the third successive time, score 4 to 2. The American League champions now need but a single game to give them the world's baseball honors for the second year in succession.

The victors not only outbatted the champions of the National League, but also outfielded them and showed more alertness on the bases.

The total attendance was 24,355, and the total cash taken in was $40,957. This was divided as follows:

National Commission, $4095.70.

Today's game ends the players' participation in the receipts. They will receive $127,916.61. Of this amount the winner will receive 60 per cent. and the loser 40 per cent.

Twenty-one men in each team are eligible to participate in the division of the money of each club.

It was a finely played game, sensational in spots, and gave the home crowd plenty of opportunity to cheer. New York, getting the jump in the first inning, the Athletics came from behind, passed them in a fierce onslaught in the fourth inning and were never again headed. Nearly 25,000 persons witnessed the contest.

MATHEWSON CRUSHED.

Mathewson, the mainstay of the Giants, was fairly crushed under the fusillade of hits, and at the end of the seventh inning he retired in favor of Wiltse. The latter pitched but one inning against the heavy-hitting Philadelphia team, and escaped with one two-base hit out of four men up. Ten hits for a total of sixteen bases were made off Mathewson in six innings. In the seventh inning he gave his only base on balls to Baker.

"Chief" Bender, the Athletic's sterling pitcher, while he did not equal the wonderful game he pitched against New York on the opening day of the series, was never in trouble except in the first inning.

New York got but seven hits off Bender, only two of them coming in one inning. He struck out four men and gave two bases on balls.

Barry, the brilliant shortstop of the Athletics, was the star man at the bat. In four trips to the plate he ripped out a single and two doubles, but none of his hits figured in the scoring. The sensational Baker came to time with a pair of two-base hits out of three times up, and Murphy broke loose for the first time in the series, and laced out two doubles that set the crowd wild with cheering.

Capt. Davis, substituting for the injured McInnes, also was in the thick

Athletics passed New York by scoring three runs. It was in this inning that the greatest exhibition of hitting seen in the present world's series was given. The only men on the Philadelphia team who did not get into the hit column were Oldring, Thomas and Bender.

For New York, Devore, Doyle and Fletcher showed best at the plate. Devore got two singles in four times up, Doyle smashed a triple in three times at bat, and Fletcher had a pretty pair of singles, but only Devore's hit and Doyle's three-base drive figured in New York's scoring.

In the fifth inning, Collins singled to right field, and came all the way home on Baker's two-base hit to right center. It was a great exhibition of running, and his head work, coupled with his fleetness, won him a round of cheers.

In the four games so far played, neither Murray of New York nor Thomas of Philadelphia has made a hit.

BRILLIANT FIELDING.

Aside from the exceptional exhibition of hitting, the game was replete with brilliant fielding, both pitchers being backed up in fine style. Herzog and Fletcher for the Giants, and Collins, Barry and Baker for the Athletics, put up a dashing game. Baker had a throw that was a little wide charged against him, and Fletcher fumbled a grounder in his hurry to scoop it up and shoot to Merkle.

The crowd filled Shibe Park, but it did not quite come up to the attendance of the first day. The figures given out by the National Commission showed a total of 24,355 paid admissions, or a total of 126,138 for the series.

The game was cleanly played. Snodgrass, who had expected a demonstration against himself for the spiking of Baker in the game at New York on Tuesday, last, went through the contest with only a few hoots and hisses aimed at him.

The stakes of the series are the richest ever played for by two baseball teams. The players' participation in the receipts ended with today's game. They will split $127,910.61 of which 60 per cent., or $76,746.36, will go to the winners, and 40 per cent., or $51,164.24, to the losers. Twenty-one players on each team are eligible to participate in the money, so that the players on the winning team each will receive $3654.88, and the members of the losing team $2436.26 each.

a long sacrifice fly to Lord, and it looked bad for the Athletics. Murray was an easy out on a grounder to Davis, and Merkle struck out.

STORY OF WORLD-SERIES GAME TOLD BY INNINGS.

Philadelphia: Bender and Thomas.

Wiltse went into the box for the Giants in the last half of the eighth inning.

FIRST INNING.

First half—Devore reached first on an infield single. Bender diverting the course of the ball but was too late for Barry to handle. Doyle drove the first ball pitched to right center for a triple, scoring Devore. On Snodgrass's fly to Lord, Doyle scored. The New York rooters made the stand shake with their yells. Murray was retired at first, Davis unassisted. Merkle struck out on three pitched balls. Two runs. Two hits. No errors.

Second half—Lord fanned on three balls, the first being a foul. Oldring also struck out. Mathewson struck both men out on seven pitched balls. Collins singled to center. Baker was given a rousing cheer when he came to the bat. Mathewson and Meyers held a conference and it looked as if they intended to pass him. Baker struck out on a wide one. No runs. One hit. No errors.

SECOND INNING.

First half—Herzog lifted a fly to Oldring. Fletcher drove a single over Barry's head, his first hit of the series. Meyers's high fly dropped safely between Baker, Bender and Thomas, but Fletcher was thrown out at second, Thomas to Collins. Mathewson rolled an easy grounder to Bender and was out at first. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Second half—Murphy drove the ball over the temporary bleacher in right field for two bases. Murphy took a long lead off second and Mathewson in attempting to catch him made a wild throw to Fletcher, Murphy taking third. Davis dropped an easy one in front of the plate and was thrown out at first on a very close decision, Mathewson to Merkle. It was a pretty play by Mathewson. Murphy attempted to steal home, but Barry missed the ball, and Murphy was run down by Meyers unassisted. Barry made an infield single, the ball rolled along the left field base line, Mathewson and Herzog waiting for it to roll foul, but it stopped on the line. Thomas fouled to Meyers. No runs. No hits. One error.

THIRD INNING.

First half—Devore flied to Oldring. Doyle hit a high one between home and third which Baker took care of. Snodgrass hit a grounder to Barry and was out at first. The centerfielder rounded first base and was hooted by the crowd in the bleachers. He walked to his position. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Second half—Bender was thrown out at first, Fletcher to Merkle. Lord hit the ball the to right field for a single. He was forced a moment later Fletcher to Doyle, on Oldring's grounder. Collins struck out on three pitched balls. No runs. One hit. No errors.

FOURTH INNING.

First half—Murray flied to Baker. Merkle, after fouling a half-dozen balls, struck out for the second time. Herzog bunted toward first but was out by Davis unassisted. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Second half—Baker doubled to left center and was given a great cheer. Baker scored on Murphy's double to left. The stand and bleachers simply went wild. Murphy scored on Davis's double to right. The cheering which began when Baker made his two-bagger's muff of Murray's return of the ball, which was a trifle high, Fletcher not being able to reach the throw. On Thomas's hit to Herzog, Barry was run down between home and third, Herzog getting the putout. Thomas went to second on the play. Bender out to Merkle unassisted. No runs. One hit. One error.

NINTH INNING.

First half—Merkle doubled to right. Herzog went out on a grounder, Baker to Davis, Merkle taking third. Fletcher lifted a fly which Collins took care of. Meyers stepped to the plate. He was out on the first ball pitched, Collins to Davis. Score:

New York—Runs, 2; hits, 7; errors, 3.

ENTHUSIASM TOO MUCH IN RIVERS'S PARTNERS.

The sad things that Joe Rivers has been doing to his training partners is causing consternation at Doyle's camp.

Rivers is very much in earnest in his training. He remembers every time he enters the ring, his defeat at the hands of Johnny Kilbane and he proceeds to take out his feeling of depression on his sparring partners. Yesterday, Charley Picato, who has been the receiving portion of Rivers's training for a week or more, suddenly stopped short. He took off his gloves and announced between gasps that he was through.

"What do you take me for?" quavered Picato, "I ain't no sand bag to be pounded all over this here ring. That man, Rivers, is peevish and I can't stand it," and he looked wrathfully at Rivers out of his one good eye. The other was closed as the result of putting it against Rivers's gloves too often.

Rivers is not at all gentle in his handling of his partners, and while he is not intentional rough with them, the young Mexican is so deadly in earnest and so fearful that he will not get in the best of condition that he is working like a steam engine, and necessarily his sparring partners bear the brunt of it. Picato left Doyle's yesterday and said that he would not be back.

Also there is kind Brother Andy of the abundance of avoirdupois, who is beginning to tire of his battles with his fire-eating brother. Andy has stood the gaff like a Trojan, and has willingly struck Joe on the gloves with almost every portion of his soft anatomy.

But the pace is telling, and, yesterday, after a gruelling four-round bout, in which he was hammered and pounded all over the ring, he sought out Joe Levy, manager for Rivers, and leading him to one side, explained that he would like to secure a lay-off of a few days if he expected to live much longer.

"You see, I like Joe and Joe likes me," said Andy Rivers, "but he forgets that we are only training and not fighting, and he hits me first in the eye and then in the stomach, and then the bastes me in the other eye and knocks me on the jaw.

"I am sore all over, and I have got to stop for a whil . Don't tell Joe about how sore I am physically, for he might feel badly and let up on his other sparring partners. It is doing him good the way he is whaling into us, but I am too sore and bruised to keep at it."

Levy agreed that Andy should have a two-days' rest and immediately closed arrangements with Battling Chico to spar with Rivers for the remainder of his training period.

OPENING DAY OF S. C. WHIST TOURNEY.

The Southern California Whist Club starts today on its great elimination series of games at the Hayward Hotel. There will be nearly sixty players seated at tables at one time and the first day will be a free-for-all match. According to R. D. Richards, president of the club, the number of players will be narrowed down each day as they lose, the final Saturday games being to decide the champion whist devotees in this section of the country. The entire mezzanine floor of the hotel has been given over to the card players, and all scores will be kept by the secretary of the club, Richard Nevil, during the contest.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

By Owen R. Bird

THINGS are booming along right merrily for the Stanford-Berkeley excursion among the southern football fans. Meserve and Taggart, two Rugby boosters from the law school, have planned to take a big bunch of local collegians to see the big game in the North this year, and, for this purpose have chartered the good ship, Harvard. Up to the present writing the going for the trip has been good and about one hundred have signed up. The fare has been put within the reach of every one and before the sailing day, Taggart says, he expects over 400 on the books.

A great many of the Stanford and Berkeley alumni are going and there should be some warm times aboard both coming and going. On the way up the various supporters of the two teams will probably spend their time making wagers as to the respective merits of the teams, and on the way home these will be settled, and if this is not enough to warrant a hot time, will some one please write.

Jimmy Clapp, left halfback on the Oxy scrub team is rapidly coming to the front as a foot ball star. Jimmy's rise is an example of what a college course in coaching will do for a man. One year ago he entered Oxy the greenest of green freshmen, but was brought out as a basketball possibility. At this time, no one had the slightest idea that he would ever be seen in a football suit.

When the season opened, this fall, Jimmy got out with a few of the rooters before the regular practice and was punting the ball around the field. Coach Pipal noticed that he was booting long spirals, which carried true and high. He strolled up to the boy and asked him if he had ever played any football.

"Nope," said Jim.

"Where did you learn to boot," said the coach.

"Always knew how," says Jim.

"You report for practice tomorrow night," said the coach and now Jimmy is making good.

"Chunky" Foss, the little five-eighths on the U.S.C. team, who, in the Stanford game was taken from the fray with his dome queer is O. K. again and in the practice last night showed all his speed and cleverness. Chunk got an awful swipe on the head in one of the grand scrambles in this gentle game of Rugby, about five men, according to his statement, booted him in the head while he was holding the ball on the ground, after being tackled.

During the spring months of the intercollegiate year, there will be a college swimming tournament held at one of the beach resorts. Wallace Robb, president of the Southern California Association, has taken the matter up and will have his plans ready by the time the spring term rolls around.

There are some good men in the southern colleges in this line of athletic activity and they should have a chance to let their light shine and not keep it hid under the bushel.

In the game, last Saturday afternoon, between Oxy and Pasadena High School, the college aggregation showed a lack of fighting spirit, which nearly spilled the beans. The score was 6 all when the last quarter opened and had not Dury Wieman, the human switch engine, been rushed to the rescue, the game would probably have ended with the score a dead heat. The Tigers have every possibility to make good this season, but at the present time, are subject to lapses in this fighting stuff and if a lapse should occur in one of the big games it would prove costly, as Pomona and Whittier are noted for the fighting spirit in an important game. Let's hope a word to the wise will be enough.

The gloom that pervades the local Stanford alumni and friends over the unexpected poor showing of their team in the contest with U.S.C. last Saturday need not be without some ray of hope. Comparative scores, unless most carefully balanced and due allowance made for all conditions, are not the very best means for measuring the strength of two football teams.

Two years ago the California and Stanford teams both played the Castaways in Los Angeles, the State university men coming out with a poorly played tie game, 0 to 10. The following week Stanford sailed in to the same team, and, when the dust had cleared, they had about fifty points to their credit.

To most of the sage prophets, the result of the game up North was a foregone conclusion, but California scattered all the dope to the winds by outclassing the favorites two to one in the annual clash, breaking the long string of Cardinal victories on the gridiron.

Most football teams have a slump some time during the season, arising from unaccountable sources and in a good many cases is not without profit. The famous Stanford spirit will not let a momentary weakness affect the team's chances when it comes to the supreme test. The supporters of both institutions can confidently look forward to another battle royal on November 11, in which the outcome may be ungertain until the final gun.

Poly High and U.S.C. will clash in the second game of the Rugby series being played by the two schools, Wednesday afternoon on Bovard Field. The first game of the series went to a 0 to 0 tie, but since the little affair out on the Methodist acres last Saturday we are inclined to think that the Cards will come home on the long end of the bacon tomorrow.

The U.S.C. varsity will have an easy time Saturday, as there is no game scheduled for them. The freshman team will travel to Santa Barbara, where the High School team of the Channel City will be offered up.

Intercollegiate football has not yet had its inning in the South this season. Starting November 11 the first good American game will be played on the Oxy field, when the Quakers and the Tigers lock horns. These Poets are bad men to meet in a pinch and this game will not be any walkaway for the Presbyterians if the showing of the Quaker team last year can be taken as any criterion. They have all last year's team back this fall with the exception of Morris Bogue at quarter-back, and at the present reading of the minutes the Quakers are going well. They gave Redlands an awful drubbing last Saturday in the first thirty minutes of Redlands ran up ten points, but the first string men had far and away the best of the argument.

Oxy will meet the Redlands men Saturday on their grounds and a line can be drawn on the Whittier-Oxy affair after the Presbyterians have had their little throw with the Baptists.

There will be a battle royal out on Baer field tomorrow, when the varsity and the second team meet in a regular match game. The scrubs have been making it warm for the varsity for the past three weeks and last Saturday asked for a chance to play them. Coach Pipal jumped at the chance and the game is on.

During the past week the scrubs have scored repeatedly on the big team and there has been much chortling in the gym on their part, now the varsity are going after them. Outside of this feature it will be a good practice for the entire squad before the Redlands game.

Tsung-Fah-Liu,

The first Chinese to participate in college football and one whose activities on the gridiron will be witnessed by thousands of football enthusiasts this fall, is Tsung-Fah-Liu of Brown University, Providence, R. I. So far as is known Liu is the first and only Chinaman to play on a college eleven in this or any other country.

It has been remarked in these lines before that there is a great fight for positions on the Occidental team this season and yesterday the reason for this leaked out.

On November 30 the Tigers are going to Tucson to play the University of Arizona and only fifteen men can go with the team, so the fifteen best will naturally be taken and all of the fifty men out want to be numbered among the favored ones for the big trip, it being the ambition of every college athlete, great or small, to take a long trip with a varsity team.

Pat Higgins was so elated with the game Saturday that he is now writing signs on the wall; he is all swelled up and rightly so.

Warren Bovard is also painting a few of these little marks after the affair Saturday. He can talk of nothing else and many of his friends have grave fears for his reason.

CHESS NOTES.

In the free-for-all chess tournament of the Cabrillo Club, San Diego, the four-round fight between the leaders is very warm, with definite results likely to be held in the balance until the close at the end of the month. Rev. E. B. Adams, the club champion, had, at the last report, won three games from E. Rohde, one from Dr. H. Stephen Smith, the club president, and two from A. P. Williams, with one loss to A. G. Pearsall and one to Williams.

Dr. Smith, who holds third place in the club chess classification, succeeded in taking one game and a draw out of his four with Pearsall, who was runner-up to Adams in past club tourneys.

Three players are started in the finals of the Southern California correspondence tournament, J. E. Woodbury of Los Angeles, and A. G. Pearsall of San Diego having drawn their personal game in Section III, and by virtue of winning all their other games in the preliminary round, qualified for the finals. The first-round trophy will go to the winner of their personal game in the final round. V. Asher of Redlands has also made a score of three and one-half games in Section IV, and is playing against Woodbury and Pearsall.

All games in Section III are finished, but the first round in the other sections seems destined to last through the year.

Section I: Adams, won 2, lost 2; Barnett, 0-2; Stone, 2-0; Hazen, 1-0; Rohde, 0-1. Section II: Dr. Smith, 2-0; Holt, 1-0; Leipsic, 0-1; Williams, 1-0; Lanigan, 0-3. Section III: McWhorter, 1-3; Woodbury, 2½-2½; Pearsall, 2½-2½; Hart, 2-2; Grinnell, 0-4. Section IV: Smith, 1-2; Ruth, 2½-2½; Asher, 3½-2½; Struve, 0-2; Frasier,

STORY OF WORLD-SERIES GAME TOLD BY INNINGS.

New York: Mathewson and Meyers.

Philadelphia: Bender and Thomas. Wiltse went into the box for the Giants in the last half of the eighth inning.

FIRST INNING.

First half—Devore reached first on an infield single, Bender diverting the course of the ball but was too late for Barry to handle. Doyle drove the first ball pitched to right center for a triple, scoring Devore. On Snodgrass's fly to Lord, Doyle scored. The New York rooters made the stand shake with their yells. Murray was retired at first, Davis unassisted. Merkle struck out on three pitched balls. Two runs. Two hits. No errors.

Second half—Lord fanned on three balls, the first being a foul. Oldring also struck out. Mathewson struck both men out on seven pitched balls. Collins singled to center. Baker was given a rousing cheer when he came to the bat. Mathewson and Meyers held a conference and it looked as if they intended to pass him. Baker struck out on a wide one. No runs. One hit. No errors.

SECOND INNING.

First half—Herzog lifted a fly to Oldring. Fletcher drove a single over Barry's head, his first hit of the series. Meyers's high fly dropped safely between Baker, Bender and Thomas, but Fletcher was thrown out at second, Thomas to Collins. Mathewson rolled an easy grounder to Bender and was out at first. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Second half—Murphy drove the ball over the temporary bleacher in right field for two bases. Murphy took a long lead off second and Mathewson in attempting to catch him made a wild throw to Fletcher, Murphy taking third. Davis dropped an easy one in front of the plate and was thrown out at first on a very close decision, Mathewson to Merkle. It was a pretty play by Mathewson. Murphy attempted to steal home, but Barry missed the ball, and Murphy was run down by Meyers unassisted. Barry made an infield single, the ball rolled along the left field base line. Mathewson and Herzog waiting for it to roll foul, but it stopped on the line. Thomas fouled to Meyers. No runs. No hits. One error.

THIRD INNING.

First half—Devore flied to Oldring. Doyle hit a high one between home and third which Baker took care of. Snodgrass hit a grounder to Barry and was out at first. The centerfielder rounded first base and was hooted by the crowd in the bleachers. He walked to his position. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Second half—Bender was thrown out at first, Fletcher to Merkle. Lord hit the ball the to right field for a single. He was forced a moment later Fletcher to Doyle, on Oldring's grounder. Collins struck out on three pitched balls. No runs. One hit. No errors.

FOURTH INNING.

First half—Murray flied to Baker. Merkle, after fouling a half-dozen balls, struck out for the second time. Herzog bunted toward first but was out by Davis unassisted. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Second half—Baker doubled to left center and was given a great cheer. Baker scored on Murphy's double to left. The stand and bleachers simply went wild. Murphy scored on Davis's double to right. The cheering which began when Baker made his two-bagger did not stop until Marquard and Ames began warming up. Davis reached third on Barry's hit to Herzog. Barry was out at first. Davis scored on Thomas's fly to Murray. Bender was out at first on a pick-up and throw by Fletcher. It was the prettiest play of the game this far. Three runs. Three hits. No errors.

FIFTH INNING.

First half—A wonderful pickup and throw of a slow grounder by Baker retired Fletcher at first. Meyers hit the ball to right field for two bases. On the short passed ball Meyers attempted to take third, but was out on a beautiful throw, Thomas to Baker. Mathewson was given his base on balls the first of the game. Devore raised a fly to Lord and was an easy out. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Second half—Lord was out at first on an easy run, Merkle to Mathewson. Herzog made a pretty stop of Oldring's hard grounder and got the runner at first. Collins drove a single to right field and Baker came to the plate. On the first ball he hit to right center for a double, scoring Collins. Baker took third on the throw in. Murphy struck out. One run. Two hits. No errors.

SIXTH INNING.

First half—Doyle was given his base on balls. Snodgrass was called out on strikes, not hitting at a single ball. On Murray's foul fly to Baker Doyle was doubled up at first. It was a very stupid play by Doyle, partially due to bad coaching. Barry was partly responsible for the play, as he made a bluff to scoop an imaginary grounder. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Second half—Herzog made a sensational pickup of Davis's hard grounder and got the runner at first. The New York third baseman was given a great hand. Snodgrass misjudged Barry's long fly, and the Athletic short stop was credited with a two-base drive. Barry reached third on Thomas's hit to Fletcher. Thomas died at first. Herzog threw Bender out at first. No runs. One hit. No errors.

SEVENTH INNING.

First half—Athletics had hit Mathewson for ten hits, while the Indian had held New York to four. Merkle struck out for the third time. Herzog lifted a high fly to Oldring and sat down. Fletcher drove a single to center. Meyers was an easy out, Collins to Davis. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Second half—Fletcher fumbled Lord's grounder long enough to allow the batter to reach first. Oldring placed a pretty bunt down first base line. He was out, Merkle to Doyle. Collins bunted and was out by Merkle unassisted. Baker again stepped to the plate and there were cheers for him to knock the ball over the fence. Four wide ones in succession were given to him and he walked to first. Murphy drove a hard grounder to Merkle and was out. No runs. No hits. One error.

EIGHTH INNING.

First half—Becker went in to bat for Mathewson. Becker was thrown out, Collins to Davis on an easy chance. Devore drove a beautiful single to left field and Doyle stepped to the plate. Doyle hit to Collins, forced Devore at second, Barry getting the putout. Baker fumbled Snodgrass's hard grounder and the runner was safe at first. Murray lifted a high foul which Thomas took care of. No runs. One hit. One error.

Second half—Wiltse went into the box for the Giants. Davis was the first man to face the New York left-hander. He fetched Barry doubled er's muff of Murray's return of the ball, which was a trifle high, Fletcher not being able to reach the throw. On Thomas's hit to Herzog, Barry was run down between home and third, Herzog getting the putout. Thomas went to second on the play. Bender out to Merkle unassisted. No runs. One hit. One error.

NINTH INNING.

First half—Merkle doubled to right. Herzog went out on a grounder, Baker to Davis, Merkle taking third. Fletcher lifted a fly which Collins took care of. Meyers stepped to the plate. He was out on the first ball pitched, Collins to Davis. Score:

ENTHUSIASM TOO MUCH IN RIVERS'S PARTNERS.

Rivers is very much in earnest in his training. He remembers every time he enters the ring, his defeat at the hands of Johnny Kilbane and he proceeds to take out his feeling of depression on his sparring partners. Yesterday, Charley Picato, who has been the receiving portion of Rivers's training for a week or more, suddenly stopped short. He took off his gloves and announced between gasps that he was through.

"What do you take me for?" quavered Picato, "I ain't no sand bag to be pounded all over this here ring. That man, Rivers, is peevish and I can't stand it," and he looked wrathfully at Rivers out of his one good eye. The other was closed as the result of putting it against Rivers's gloves too often.

Rivers is not at all gentle in his handling of his partners, and while he is not intentional rough with them, the young Mexican is so deadly in earnest and so fearful that he will not get in the best of condition that he is working like a steam engine, and necessarily his sparring partners bear the brunt of it. Picato left Doyle's yesterday and said that he would not be back.

Also there is kind Brother Andy of the abundance of avoirdupois, who is beginning to tire of his battles with his fire-eating brother. Andy has stood the gaff like a Trojan, and has willingly struck Joe on the gloves with almost every portion of his soft anatomy.

But the pace is telling, and, yesterday, after a gruelling four-round bout, in which he was hammered and pounded all over the ring, he sought out Joe Levy, manager for Rivers, and leading him to one side, explained that he would like to secure a lay-off of a few days if he expected to live much longer.

"You see, I like Joe and Joe likes me," said Andy Rivers, "but he forgets that we are only training and not fighting, and he hits me first in the eye and then in the stomach, and then the bastes me in the other eye and knocks me on the jaw.

"I am sore all over, and I have got to stop for a while. Don't tell Joe about how sore I am physically, for he might feel badly and let up on his other sparring partners. It is doing him good the way he is whaling into us, but I am too sore and bruised to keep at it."

Levy agreed that Andy should have a two-days' rest and immediately closed arrangements with Battling Chico to spar with Rivers for the remainder of his training period.

OPENING DAY OF S. C. WHIST TOURNEY.

The Southern California Whist Club starts today on its great elimination series of games at the Hayward Hotel. There will be nearly sixty players seated at tables at one time and the first day will be a free-for-all match. According to R. D. Richards, president of the club, the number of players will be narrowed down each day as they lose, the final Saturday games being to decide the champion whist devotees in this section of the country. The entire mezzanine floor of the hotel has been given over to the card players, and all scores will be kept by the secretary of the club, Richard Nevil, during the contest.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

By Owen R. Bird

THINGS are booming along right merrily for the Stanford-Berkeley excursion among the southern football fans. Meserve and Taggart, two Rugby boosters from the law school, have planned to take a big bunch of local collegians to see the big game in the North this year, and, for this purpose have chartered the good ship, Harvard. Up to the present writing the going for the trip has been good and about one hundred have signed up. The fare has been put within the reach of every one and before the sailing day, Taggart says, he expects over 400 on the books.

A great many of the Stanford and Berkeley alumni are going and there should be some warm times aboard both coming and going. On the way up the various supporters of the two teams will probably spend their time making wagers as to the respective merits of the teams, and on the way home these will be settled, and if this is not enough to warrant a hot time, will some one please write.

When the season opened, this fall, Jimmy got out with a few of the rooters before the regular practice and was punting the ball around the field. Coach Pipal noticed that he was booting long spirals, which carried true and high. He strolled up to the boy and asked him if he had ever played any football.

"Nope," said Jim.

"Where did you learn to boot," said the coach.

"Always knew how," says Jim.

"You report for practice tomorrow night," said the coach and now Jimmy is making good.

"Chunky" Foss, the little five-eighths on the U.S.C. team, who, in the Stanford game was taken from the fray with his dome queer is O. K. again and in the practice last night showed all his speed and cleverness. Chunk got an awful swipe on the head in one of the grand scrambles in this gentle game of Rugby, about five men, according to his statement, booted him in the head while he was holding the ball on the ground, after being tackled.

During the spring months of the intercollegiate year, there will be a college swimming tournament held at one of the beach resorts. Wallace Robb, president of the Southern California Association, has taken the matter up and will have his plans ready by the time the spring term rolls around.

There are some good men in the southern colleges in this line of athletic activity and they should have a chance to let their light shine and not keep it hid under the bushel.

In the game, last Saturday afternoon, between Oxy and Pasadena High School, the college aggregation showed a lack of fighting spirit, which nearly spilled the beans. The score was 6 all when the last quarter opened and had not Durr Wieman, the human switch engine, been rushed to the rescue, the game would probably have ended with the score a dead heat. The Tigers have every possibility to make good this season, but at the present time, are subject to lapses in this fighting stuff and if a lapse should occur in one of the big games it would prove costly, as Pomona and Whittier are noted for the fighting spirit in an important game. Let's hope a word to the wise will be enough.

The gloom that pervades the local Stanford alumni and friends over the unexpected poor showing of their team in the contest with U.S.C. last Saturday need not be without some ray of hope. Comparative scores, unless most carefully balanced and the allowance made for all conditions, are not the very best means for measuring the strength of two football teams.

Two years ago the California and Stanford teams both played the Castaways in Los Angeles, the State university men coming out with a poorly played tie game, 7 to 10. The following week Stanford sailed in to the same team, and, when the dust had cleared, they had about fifty points to their credit.

To most of the sage prophets, the result of the game up North was a foregone conclusion, but California scattered all the dope to the winds by outclassing the favorites two to one in the annual clash, breaking the long string of Cardinal victories on the gridiron.

Most football teams have a slump some time during the season, arising from unaccountable sources and in a good many cases is not without profit. The famous Stanford spirit will not let a momentary weakness affect the team's chances when it comes to the supreme test. The supporters of both institutions can confidently look forward to another battle royal on November 11, in which the outcome may be ungertain until the final gun.

Poly High and U.S.C. will clash in the second game of the Rugby series being played by the two schools, Wednesday afternoon on Bovard Field. The first game of the series went to a 0 to 0 tie, but since the little affair out on the Methodist acres last Saturday we are inclined to think that the Cards will come home on the long end of the bacon tomorrow.

The U.S.C. varsity will have an easy time Saturday, as there is no game scheduled for them. The freshman team will travel to Santa Barbara, where the High School team of the Channel City will be offered up.

Intercollegiate football has not yet had its inning in the South this season. Starting November 11 the first good American game will be played on the Oxy field, when the Quakers and the Tigers lock horns. These Poets are bad men to meet in a pinch and this game will not be any walkaway for the Presbyterians if the showing of the Quaker team last year can be taken as any criterion. They have all last year's team back this fall with the exception of Morris Bogue at quarter-back, and at the present reading of the minutes the Quakers are going well. They gave Redlands an awful drubbing last Saturday in the first thirty minutes of Redlands ran up ten points, but the first string men had far and away the best of the argument.

Oxy will meet the Redlands men Saturday on their grounds and a line can be drawn on the Whittier-Oxy affair after the Presbyterians have had their little throw with the Baptists.

There will be a battle royal out on Baer field tomorrow, when the varsity and the second team meet in a regular match game. The scrubs have been making it warm for the varsity for the past three weeks and last Saturday asked for a chance to play them. Coach Pipal jumped at the chance and the game is on.

During the past week the scrubs have scored repeatedly on the big team and there has been much chortling in the gym on their part, now the varsity are going after them. Outside of this feature it will be a good practice for the entire squad before the Redlands game.

Tsung-Fah-Liu,

The first Chinese to participate in college football and one whose activities on the gridiron will be witnessed by thousands of football enthusiasts this fall, is Tsung-Fah-Liu of Brown University, Providence, R. I. So far as is known Liu is the first and only Chinaman to play on a college eleven in this or any other country.

It has been remarked in these lines before that there is a great fight for positions on the Occidental team this season and yesterday the reason for this leaked out.

On November 30 the Tigers are going to Tucson to play the University of Arizona and only fifteen men can go with the team, so the fifteen best will naturally be taken and all of the fifty men out want to be numbered among the favored ones for the big trip, it being the ambition of every college athlete, great or small, to take a long trip with a varsity team.

Pat Higgins was so elated with the game Saturday that he is now writing signs on the wall; he is all swelled up and rightly so.

Warren Bevard is also painting a few of these little marks after the affair Saturday. He can talk of nothing else and many of his friends have grave fears for his reason.

CHESS NOTES.

In the free-for-all chess tournament of the Cabrillo Club, San Diego, the four-round fight between the leaders is very warm, with definite results likely to be held in the balance until the close at the end of the month. Rev. E. B. Adams, the club champion, had, at the last report, won three games from E. Rohde, one from Dr. H. Stephen Smith, the club president, and two from A. P. Williams, with one loss to A. G. Pearsall and one to Williams.

Dr. Smith, who holds third place in the club chess classification, succeeded in taking one game and a draw out of his four with Pearsall, who was runner-up to Adams in past club tourneys.

Three players are started in the finals of the Southern California correspondence tournament, J. E. Woodbury of Los Angeles, and A. G. Pearsall of San Diego having drawn their personal game in Section III, and by virtue of winning all their other games in the preliminary round, qualified for the finals. The first-round trophy will go to the winner of their personal game in the final round. V. Asher of Redlands has also made a score of three and one-half games in Section IV, and is playing against Woodbury and Pearsall.

All games in Section III are finished, but the first round in the other sections seems destined to last through the year.

Section I: Adams, won 2, lost 2; Barnett, 0-2; Stone, 2-0; Hazen, 1-0; Rohde, 0-1. Section II: Dr. Smith, 2-0; Holt, 1-0; Leipsic, 0-1; Williams, 1-0; Lanigan, 0-3. Section III: McWhorter, 1-3; Woodbury, 3½-2½; Pearsall, 2½-3½; Hart, 2-2; Grinnell, 0-4. Section IV: Smith, 1-2; Ruth, 2½-2½; Asher, 3½-2½; Struve, 0-2; Frazier,

DE WITT VAN COURT'S COLUMN.

The question is asked every day, when and where are we going to get a hope of the white race. A fighting young fellow won the lightweight championship of Southern California in the amateur class last night at the L.A.A.C.

He is a clerk in a railroad office in this city. I don't believe he ever thought of becoming a professional fighter. Today I was asked what the boy would be to manage him and I told him in the professional class by the sporting man of Los Angeles.

This particular sporting man is a personal friend of mine and would make a first-class manager for any boy. He is enthusiastic over this boy's chances to make good as a professional, and sees a possible chance to make a lot of money for himself and the young boxer as well.

I told my friend that this boy would be a mighty good as a professional and he get very much stronger and faster. If he could not win in a match of three or four rounds he could win at all. If this young man with the fighting bee in his bonnet and chip on his shoulder is ready he will go the way of hundreds of others that I have known.

It takes years to develop a champion in any class. And one reason we have so few promising hopes is because we have so few good boxing managers in the country.

Most of the promising young fellows who have had for the past five years been taken in hand by some manager who is anxious to get rich quick, matches the undeveloped fighter with some experienced one with a reputation, gets him licked and that is the end of the "hope." I have developed a number of fighters in my time and never saw it fail when a boy was sent out too soon.

Abe Attell, Ad Wolgast, Joe Gans, Sam Berger won the world's championship at St. Louis; he was offered a $10,000 purse, win, lose or draw, to fight Kid McCoy in San Francisco. He was strongly tempted to take it, but was advised not to, as McCoy would have surely defeated him, and that would have been the end of him as a fighter.

He accepted the advice offered, and refused; then turned around and made $7000 fighting four-round goes inside of two years, never meeting defeat and without any manager to share his money. Later on he made as much more fighting longer bouts.

Jimmy Britt had many offers to fight while he was young in the amateur game, but stuck to the amateurs until he had a knowledge of boxing. The first professional contest he had he made $1700 for a fifteen-round fight. From that on he kept going to the top until he made about $200,000. Berger and Britt both worked and practiced for four years before they turned professional.

The promising amateurs of this city will have the same temptations as they have in other places. As soon as a young fellow looks good and has any kind of a following he is offered a small purse to box at some professional club. The offer is often accepted, never looking ahead of the first match.

He is often lauded to the skies in the papers, patted on the back and made all kinds of promises if he makes good, never dreaming that the promoters only want him as long as he is a drawing card.

The offers are as often accepted, he tries his hand and generally fails, is just as quickly dropped by both his manager and the promoter, gets disgusted and quits the whole thing or never gets beyond the cheap preliminary class.

White hopes or champions of any class will never be developed in this way. The amateur has a much better chance of making good than the preliminary professional. He usually has better men to practice with and learn from; is given a thorough knowledge of training, and comes in personal contact with a better class of people. His surroundings make his chances better to get good matches to start with, and seldom starts out without a pretty thorough knowledge and experience in the tricks of the game. No white hope will ever be developed by sending him along too soon.

AT STANFORD AND CALIFORNIA

TWENTY-ONE varsity Rugby candidates at Stanford were installed in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity house Monday, where the team will live until after the intercollegiate game with California. The number of men at the training table will be gradually increased as others get the required form. The Rugby-ites who were in at the opening of the training quarters were A. Sanborn, '12; Partridge, '12; Woodcock, '11; Neal, '14; Watkins, '14; W. L. Smith, '14; Dole, '11; Boulware, '14; Corbett, '13; Frank, '13; Schaupp, '12; T. Sanders, '12; Geissler, '14; Harrigan, '14; Hall, '14; Worswick, '13; Kern, '13; Burke, '13; Risling, '15; Reeves, '14, and Brown, '11. Eleven of the men are registered from Southern California.

The California varsity has struck a usual mid-season slump. The last football was off color Saturday. "Tiny" Allen being the only player who was in form. Capt. Elliott was tried at halfback and showed that he is not cut out for the place. The team only was able to run up four-teen points on the Barbarians. Stanford emerged from its slump and it is hoped that the southern trip the first part of this week will serve to work off another period of demoralization by giving the men a change of scenery.

Ward Dawson, '14, and V. Sheldon, '13, both former students at Los Angeles High, were victorious in the singles in the interclub tennis tournament at Stanford, and will meet in the final round the latter part of this week. Sheldon beat "Sid" Morgan, '12, of San Diego, 6-3, 11-9, and Dawson defeated Murray, '13, varsity captain, 6-2, 8-3. Dawson's playing is the best that has been witnessed at Stanford for many years.

California freshmen are to receive class numerals for playing against Stanford last week. The "babies" at Berkeley who played against Santa Clara Saturday also are to be given class numerals like those that have been awarded in former years to the men who played against the Blue and Gold freshmen.

The Stanford soccer team was defeated by San Francisco, 2 to 1, Saturday.

Al Frank, '13, and Reeves, '14, are the only varsity men on the crippled list at Stanford, at present.

J. W. Vickers, '12; T. M. McCreary, '14, and Don Case, '14, of Los Angeles, were among the seven men elected to membership in the Stanford "gym" club this week.

PIONEER BOWLERS MAKE RECORD SCORE.

On the Majestic alleys last night in the Southern California Bowling Association, the Pioneer Commercial Auto Company team bowled the Los Angeles record for tenpins 2074 and defeated the Harding's Colts, taking all three games.

BEGS MOTOR TRUCKS FOR LOS ANGELES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] P. A. Renton of Los Angeles was in this city today, the guest of Will H. Brown. Mr. Renton is the agent in his territory for the Mais motor truck and came to the factory in person to "beg" for more cars.

The Mais factory is working day and night, but this enterprising agent is enjoying such a good business that he is eager to get more cars as soon as possible. He says that the hills around his home do not retard the success of this Indianapolis-made machine. Mr. Renton was given three cars today. One is an extra long chassis and will be used as a sight-seeing car. It is a duplicate of the Mais car now held by the Chicago fire

Big Game Saturday.

L. A. TEAM STILL IN THE MAKING.

WORKING HARD TO WIN GAME FROM POMONA.

Heavyweights on Squad Being Supplanted by Lighter but Cleverer Players—Game Should Be Hard One and May Decide Championship of Southern California.

In preparation for their important game with Pomona High School next Saturday the Blue and White squad have been putting in some of the hardest work of the season in their daily practice. The team as a whole realizes how vital the result of the coming contest is in regard to their season's standing.

If the hill-toppers cannot defeat Pomona High they will not stand much of a chance for the Southern California championship, as from the present outlook, the Pomona bunch are very liable to win out in the Citrus League and the final game will have to be played with them.

Last year the Citrus belt contingent seemed to have the jinx on the city team, for it took three games to decide which one was the better. In both of the first games the heavier Los Angeles boys had all the advantage of play, but could not put across the necessary score to clinch the game, and they only won out in the final contest by the small score of 3 to 0.

With eleven of the same men on the squad this year, Coach Fritch is confident that his men will put up a hard struggle, although they have lost their star player, McKim, who made most of the scores for them. The Pomona team has always been a good defensive team, but was never able to do much scoring, and their coach has spent a great deal of his time in perfecting this department, this year.

L. A. LINE-UP CHANGED AGAIN.

Every change in men from the first of the season has resulted in a still further lightening of the team as a whole, and still the little men seem to be making good. The coach has been replacing the heavier men who have not the speed or the proper kind of fighting spirit in them, by the lighter, but clever players, and as a result the local High School will probably turn out the lightest team in Southern California.

Two of the most recent changes in position seem to be quite an improvement.

Patterson at half has been playing a splendid game for the last week and is now giving the signals for all plays from the scrums. He is the coolest man the local squad has had directing their formations thus far, and it looks like "Pat" would be a fixture at half.

Captain Conoway has been making a big improvement in his first five play and the change has added considerable speed to the back field, as he generally gets the ball away at full tilt.

On the wing the places are still up in the air, and will not be definitely decided until later in the week. Johnson, the speedy little track man, has been out of the game for a week on account of an injury to his knee, and will not get back for some time, as Coach Noble does not wish to take any chances with this valuable hundred yard man in the football game.

Hill has not been showing any improvement over his early season form and will have to work hard to hold his place. The Maguire brothers have been given a chance the last few days, and they give promise of good work after the place becomes familiar. However, this last change leaves the full-back berth again vacant, and the team can better afford a poor wing than an indifferent full-back.

The scrum remains the same although Fisher and Nelson are about as good as the regulars, and will get in the game before the final whistle Saturday.

On Thursday afternoon at Fiesta Park the Hollywood team will come in for another practice game, and are anxious to make a better showing than they put up last week. Webster's men had a bad case of stage fright and could not get started in the last encounter, and they all want a chance to redeem themselves.

BOULEVARD IMPROVEMENT.

It is expected that definite signs of improvement will shortly be seen in the Minnetonka boulevard in Minneapolis, Minn., as the result of a friendly controversy between the local road authorities and the good roads committee over the best method of treating the highway. Both are making experiments. One mile of oil road is being laid by the County Commissioners, and another of tar preparation by the Automobile Club members, and considerable interest is taken by automobilists and other users of the road in watching the

That was a great race meet Saturday and Sunday. The record for attendance was broken and I think I know the reason. The public wants to see motor racing. The public likes a fast racing car, but the public has demanded the right kind of a price. Saturday and Sunday the right price was given and the crowd attended.

Nearly $3000 in prizes proved to be worth fighting for Sunday. What would a $25,000 prize be worth. Ralph Hamlin has an idea. Yes, he really has one. The Franklin man thinks it would be possible to hold a real western grand prize motor race about May with a prize that would be larger than any ever offered. Well, the entry list would be at least fifty fast cars. That would mean a race meet for which we would be obliged to enlarge the grand stand.

A. M. Young is taking his first rest this week. That is the kind of manager I like. He is resting on his laurels and if you happened to notice he did not boast while he was at the helm. Hate to hear a man tell of what he has done and what he expects to do. Young just did it. Call on him today and I will guarantee that he will talk, not about himself, but about the race. It was the greatest race ever pulled off in this country and we'll have another just like it and A. M. Young will run it again.

Ralph Hamlin is the favorite in the Phoenix race. He has a right to be. His air-cooled six-cylinder is here and it looks great. It's an even chance the Franklin against any other car in the race. Ralph expects to drive all the way himself. He knows the course. His car is fast enough to win, and, barring accidents, the Franklin should be the first to reach Phoenix.

Louis Nikrent will be in the Phoenix race. He will handle a Buick. Well you know the Buick won the race two years ago and was not in the race last year. Perhaps, the car that won the Santa Monica road race can have for its sister prize winner a Buick "Forty" winner of the desert sand battle.

George Purdy Bullard is waiting for entries. He expects twenty. We have thirteen. Let's not forget the entry list closes at noon today and J. S. Mitchell says there will be no post entries. It was a concession on the part of the A.A.A. to extend the entry list closing time because of the Santa Monica road race. Now let's be sure to have our checks signed this morning. You will find Mitchell at the Hollenbeck Hotel.

The Rohrbacher marine air pump is something new on the market. Seems to me its worth investigating. It will pump up your tires if you let the motor run and will do several other things. It is built by the Rohrbacher Air Pump Company of Portland. It is excellent for use in small garages or for supplying whistle tanks on boats and launches.

Bill Bramlette entered the Phoenix race yesterday. He waited until the last day and then swung into line right. Look out for the Cadillac and also look out for the driver who smashed a few road records. Looks as if this car is a good one to choose, even against the Franklin. I like Bramlette and so do you. Pin your faith to that fellow and he will see you through, right.

Lewis Schwaebe is going to the bat right with that Reo line. If I had my way I would see the Premier and Reo agent handling about 300 of these cars this year. Well, he will handle enough as it is, and when the season is over, I believe he will have a record to show for that handsome low-priced car, which is making such a hit already.

Let's see. Tan-To is to be played on Saturday at Ascot Park. Believe it will make a hit. I know I'll be anxious to see the game if it's only from curiosity. Some of the fats and several of the leans among the dealers will be out ready to do stunts and we will have a chance to watch them in action.

Clark Gilhousen is figuring up how many cups he has. The Santa Monica road race added to the long list of Marmon trophies and the prize money boosted the list to an even higher figure. This has been a great year for the Marmon and other victories are in store for this handsome car.

FRANKIE BURNS IS LOOKING FOR MATCH.

Burns says that Uncle Tom could promise him nothing definite until after the Wolgast-Welsh match on Thanksgiving Day. He agrees to give Frankie the first open date, an opponent to be agreed upon later.

Frankie hopes to get a match with either Joe Mandot or Young Seylor, both of whom appear to have drifted into the lightweight class. He intends then to go to New York for a fall campaign against whichever boxers he can get dates with.

He states that he has had several offers, but has declined to make any contracts in advance until he gets to the biz town and has a chance to see which of the fight clubs are live ones.

Frankie should be a good card, as he is a real fighter with cleverness and brains, with a punch that is hard enough to knock a man's head off. Of all the fighters now before the public he is one of the most gentlemanly and well-mannered.

MAXWELL PERFECT IN GLIDDEN SCORES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CORDELE (Ga.) Oct. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the end of the ninth day of the Glidden tour, after a run of 167 miles from Atlanta to Cordele, the scores remained unchanged and the Tarrytown team of Maxwell cars, driven by Harry E. Walls, E. C. Gager and Thomas Costello still remain the only perfect team score.

Not a single demerit has been placed against this combination and the manner in which these cars have withstood the terrific punishment of their 1100-mile run over the national highway has thrown consternation in the ranks of the competitors. Perfect scores for today's runs were made by all the tears cars and consequently their standing has not been affected.

Most of the tourists, however, look forward to startling changes tomorrow when they begin their two-day plug through the deep sands of Southern Georgia and the northern part of Florida.

For Desert Grind.

PHOENIX ROAD RACE ENTRIES.

Cadillac and Cole Stripped for Road Duel.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

Sixteen entries in the Los Angeles-Phoenix road race is the prospect when the entries close at noon today. Thirteen cars are now on the list. The Cole "Thirty," entered by A. M. Young, was the last to enter yesterday and this brought the total to the odd number. At least three, and possibly five, more cars will be in this morning.

Bill Bramlette entered the Cadillac yesterday afternoon. He has spent the last month on the road practicing for the desert grind and when he starts Bramlette will get away a favorite in the long run across the plains of Mexico. The car will be stripped just as it was when the Los Angeles-San Francisco road record was smashed.

Leon T. Shettler entered the Mercer yesterday. This was a surprise, as Shettler was expected to enter an Apperson. At the last moment the Apperson man changed his mind and his hopes will be pinned to the handsome little car for which F. W. Force is agent.

Since losing the Reo agency Shettler has been up in the air regarding his entry. He expected to start a Reo, but when he resigned in favor of Lewis Schwaebe, who is now the Reo agent, Shettler had to hustle. He chose the Mercer as one of the likely cars and joined forces with Force.

E. E. Hewitt was one of the first to enter a car. He believes the Fiat will win and with Teddy Tetzlaff to pilot the fast red racer over the roads, the high-powered car has a chance. The Fiat is the favorite for the San Diego $1000 purse it is likely that Teddy will tear away with this one prize nailed firmly in his weather eye.

The National is to be driven by Harvey Herrick. This is one of the high-powered cars in the big road race, and it will be a fight for the Yuma and El Centro prizes. Purses of $500 are up for each city, and Herrick expects to annex this $1000, as well as the $2000 at the Phoenix end.

BABY MOTORS ENTER.

Out on the road is a Stoddard-Dayton, with E. Roger Stearns at the wheel. This fast car is entered and Roger expects to capture the big prize. He has an excellent chance and after his practice stunts it will be easy to get a line on this nervy driver, who is willing to take a chance if he has the opportunity to win.

There are two Buicks entered, one to be driven by Louis Nikrent and the other by J. Ferguson of Bisbee. These two fast cars are stripped and ready for the race, and will be out to capture the prize which belonged to the Buick until the Kissel Kar captured the honors.

Ralph Hamlin on the Franklin, is the favorite in the race. The six-cylinder air-cooled roadster is chosen as the car that will reach Phoenix in the shortest time. Hamlin was second last year and this year, not only his closest friends, but a host of dopesters expect him to win handily. The Franklin has a right to be the first choice.

The Midland is to be driven by Frank Siefert, and Tom Carrigan will ride on the car with him. This is a fast machine and may surprise a large number. The Case car is another entry which may prove the dark horse of the long entry list. The Lexington, with Charles Bigelow in command, is entered, and now is on the road trying the bumps. Watch the handsome car which made such fast time at Santa Monica. Bigelow is the choice of all the drivers for this desert grind.

W. D. Tremaine, on the Pope-Hartford, which won third place last year, is another entry on which you must figure when watching the list. Tremaine is prepared for a dash that may surprise the most sanguine. The race last year showed us many things. It proved that with a little more experience, Tremaine would have won.

The E.M.F., to be driven by Bill La Casse, and the Flanders are two interesting entries. This pair of small cars will certainly be in the running all the time, and the practice stunts pulled off by La Casse show that he has an excellent chance. La Casse was the first to cover the road with the E.M.F. and he may be first in the big race.

There is a possibility today that the Maxwell, to be driven by Clarence Smith, will be entered in the lists. This handsome little car, which made such an excellent showing on the Motordrome, will be out with a defy which should be even stronger than the one made on the boards of the pienan when Clarence won the tenmile bout in fast time.

J. S. Mitchell will be on hand until noon today, when the entries close. No extension of time will be made. The cars not entered today will not be in the race. It is expected the entry list will be the largest ever and the prospects are that all records for numbers will be broken when the clock strikes 12 at the Hollenbeck, where the finish of the long list will be made.

FRENCH BOXERS COMING.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A party of French boxers will seek international honors in the United States this winter. They will be brought here by Richard Bennett, the English promoter.

Golf Dope.

SLOW GOLF PLAYERS AND TRIALS OF OPPONENTS.

WHEN the Oxford and Cambridge golfers toured this country in 1903 the speed at which the men played was a matter of general comment among the American players, most of whom had started the game after having attained their majority. Their own styles were laborious, and it was a matter of wonderment to most of them to see the British players size up each shot and play it with the same kind of instinct a hunter uses in shooting at a moving bird. There was a refreshing absence of a multiplicity of waggles and of unnecessary contortion in the play of the visitors.

On his recent visit to this country Harold H. Hilton, now the holder of both the British and American amateur titles, commented on the faster play of British players and right on his heels comes George Duncan, the famous Scotch professional, who appears destined some day to win the British open championship.

Duncan's rapid style of play was a revelation to those who watched him. On the tee he steps up to the ball, gets his distance in an instant, and in as quick time his club swings and away goes the ball. Through the green and on the putting green his actions are just as fast, and it is only when results are reckoned that the spectator realizes that the Scotchman, instead of playing a careless game, is getting better results than the studious performer, who takes much longer to size up each particular shot.

Duncan can be compared to Jake Schaefer, the billiard wizard, whose speed and brilliancy were the marvels of the green cloth game. Jake played by instinct and Duncan apparently does the same.

A few seasons ago while playing for the championship of Southern California at Los Angeles a player of the younger Chicago school was opposed by a Western veteran, who seemed determined to worry the younger player by dilatory tactics. He would size up his putts, both from the ball to the hole and from the hole to the ball.

The Chicago boy stood this for awhile, but finally, when a putting green was reached he would lie flat on the grass and wait for his opponent to make his putt, then he would proceed to make his own in leisurely fashion, and by meeting fire with fire he eventually won.

One of the most fantastic players in a national championship was H. H. Cumming of the Swannanoa Club of North Carolina, who competed in the title event at the Onwentsia Club of Chicago in 1899. This was prior to the advent of the young Americans who have performed so brilliantly in recent years, and correct form was possessed only by a few.

Mr. Cumming had a style peculiar to himself. He would address the ball for a few seconds, and then putting his club on the ground close to the ball would give himself an encore, going through the same motions again. It was not hard to imagine the gutta percha pill shivering with excitement, but the Southerner eventually brought his exercises to a finish and away went the ball. His form was so crude he gave Bill Marshall, the home professional, a bilious spasm, but he plodded along and qualified in a tie for eighth place with a total of 176 in a field of 112. In the first round he had the misfortune to draw David R. Forgan, players, who had learned the game as a boy in Scotland. The swarthy Southerner made a good fight, but was beaten 2 and 1.

This was the tournament in which Herbert Harriman of the Meadow Brook Club of New York scored the first success recorded by an American player in the national event, beating Findlay Douglas, the Scotch player, 3 and 2 in the final. Since that time until the present year, when Harold Hilton, the British champion, won, the title has been taken by American players, as Walter Travis, although of Australian birth, never played the game in his own country.

Miss Dorothy Campbell, holder of the British, United States, and Canadian titles, is a type of the fast player and her great round of 78, made during the woman's national championship at Homewood, Chicago in 1910, was made in exactly two hours. This generally is conceded to be the best golf ever played by a woman in this country, being ten strokes under bogey for the 6080-yard course, and within eight strokes of the record held by Warren K. Wood.

HAHN AND DENNIS MAY CLASH IN VERNON RING.

Louie Hahn, the 126-pound boy from San Francisco, is in our midst, looking for trouble under the able guidance of Harry Burns. The coming of Louie solves to a certain degree, the question of a fight for Eddie Dennis, who has been running loose in these parts for the past month looking for a fight. Both these boys work at 126 at ten, and the fight, should they come together, promises to be a warm one as both are real mixers.

Uncle Tom McCarey knows the lads and is anxious to give them a chance to show here. In the case of Dennis, he thought some of putting him on the map with Danny Webster, but Danny wants 122 for the weight limit. As Dennis has always worked at 126, this was too much of a drop for him, but he showed that he was willing to come to terms when he stated that he would be glad to make 124 and if he found he could go at this figure, the 122-pound stuff would be next in order.

This Dennis party is a great boy; he is his own trainer and press agent and the stuff he hands out in the latter branch is more than good.

Louie Hahn was offered a semi-wind-up event in the fight Saturday, but his manager Harry Burns, put on the brakes.

"The boy has a cold and has just come off the boat after a trip, and a fight within four days is too much," said Burns. "We are going to be right before we start anything, as we know that this is a great fight town and the public knows when a man is right, and will not stand for any of the bunk stuff, so we are not taking any chances."

The roads across the western prairies are always in very good traveling condition in the dry season, but the wet weather makes them so muddy that it is often difficult for the machine to get through. The road dries rapidly, however, under a few hours' sun, and transcontinental tourists are advised generally to wait for clear weather if they happen to be in the prairie district during a

Contestants are especially cautioned to mark very plainly on every subscription slip whether the subscription is new or old, as in order to draw commissions it is necessary that this office should have the slips made out in detail by contestants.

On November 1 contestants whose net subscription scores do not total 4000 points each, will be temporarily dropped from the Contestant's Bulletin until such time as their scores reach the required amount.

One month from today the greatest newspaper subscription contest ever held will come to a close.

In June, July and August the leader averaged in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million points each month, with the next few in line very close to that mark.

During the month of September and up to date in October the average has been much smaller owing to the fact that contestants have had no daily, weekly or monthly prizes to strive for, and the further fact that they have all preferred to hold everything for the grand finish. Yet, with all of that, the receipts in subscriptions and points have been coming in every day, of course not so fast as in the previous months, but making a very good average.

What will this last month bring forth? With the accumulation of points in September and October, and another month to run, the grand total will doubtless be in immense figures. With the promises that have been made by hundreds of possible subscribers to all of the contestants that they would see them through on the finish, this last month should be really as big in receipts as any two or possibly three months that have gone before.

A fulfillment of many promises was made Tuesday night at the Auditorium, when the members of the I.O.O.F. tendered a benefit to A. S. Burns, the blind participant in this contest.

It was a great gathering of several thousand people, some of them friends of the blind man and others who knew him only by hearsay. It was a gathering of people who met with one idea, that of assisting in some way this blind man, not necessarily in his quest for a prize in this contest, but to render such cheer and assistance as was in their power in other ways.

A musical programme was presented, which, though good, was merely the occasion for a meeting of much deeper significance than listening to the good songs and good music rendered. It was an occasion upon which these people expressed in substantial manner the best sentiment that there is in good citizenship — the brotherhood of man. It was a time and place arranged when those who were able and willing were given opportunity to demonstrate that best of all human feelings—charity, one for another.

It would be unfair to Mr. Burns's candidacy in this contest to publish the number of subscriptions that were given him upon this occasion; and, as a matter of fact, we do not know what they amounted to, nor did the secretary of the meeting make the amount known.

Other work, probably just as effective as Mr. Burns's benefit, is being done by other contestants, though not in the same way.

John Scott is in all probability closing up his canvass and reminding those who promised him early in the action that the time for fulfillment has arrived.

Mrs. Tout, in the Imperial Valley, has her own little programme, which includes the hearty co-operation of the newspaper press of all the valley and the women's clubs, of which there are a number there.

Lieber, the railway man, who is at the head of an organization composed of nearly 5000 street railway employees, is systematically drawing in his many lines and getting ready to make a bull's-eye shot at the prize target. His organization is composed of men who are alert and alive to the chance of winning a good prize in this contest. Mr. Lieber's candidacy is representative, in that he will receive no prize individually, for he agreed at the beginning to donate anything that he might win to the Railway Men's Recreation Society, which is in need of suitable quarters suitably furnished.

And so on down the line. Each contestant has unquestionably a well-formulated plan to consummate by the finish of this enterprise. Each plan takes the shape that seems most reasonable, consistent and productive to that particular candidate, whether it be a musical benefit or a co-operation of club members, who work along other lines.

HEADGEAR FOR CHANCE FOR NEXT SEASON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. — Manager Frank Chance of the Cubs announced yesterday that he proposes to resume his old position at first base when the season of 1912 opens.

As a protection against "close balls," Chance has arranged with a sporting goods manufacturer to make him a special headgear. During his career with the Cubs Chance has been hit on the head more than five times by pitched balls and last August he was compelled to retire from the game for the remainder of the season as the result of stopping a ball with his head in Cincinnati.

Where rubber hose is used to make connections in the water circulating pipes of a gasoline motor, and has bends in it, a good plan is to reinforce it by a brass ball spring which is a good fit inside. This prevents any flattening at the bend and cutting resulting eventually in a leak.

Very many amateur motorists delight in always taking a hill on high speed, not realizing that too often strains a motor or renders a car to go too fast up grade over rough places and could be taken with less strain and slower on the intermediate speed.

The second conviction in Wisconsin, under the new State law placing a penalty upon obstructing the public highway, was made at Cashton recently, when Walter Jones, a farmer, was fined $100 for unnecessarily obstructing the highway by having M. Culber of Cashton to trail his heavy on low gear for two and one-half miles.

METHOD OF AWARDING PRIZES.

The Times Greater Contest will close on the stroke of midnight, Saturday, November 25.

It is well for contestants to understand that this does not mean five minutes after twelve or any time after midnight.

You are given this warning ahead in order that every one may be on hand with final scores before the close.

Out of town contestants, who mail points in before the hour of midnight on Saturday, November 25, must furnish postmark or other evidence that the letter was mailed before the close.

All communications mailed to The Times in the territory now covered by contestants should reach The Times office on Monday following the close of the contest.

Telephone messages from contestants that they have a certain number of points and asking an extension of time to reach the office after midnight will not be entertained.

Subscriptions are not likely to be gotten after 9 or 10 o'clock at night, and there is positively no reason for a contestant to make a report later than midnight.

While an endeavor will be made to enforce these rules strictly, allowance will of course be considered for automobile breakdowns, street cars going out of service, and other accidents which might prevent contestants from reaching the office before the specified hour. But in all cases of this kind the reason for being late must be something that is entirely beyond the control of the contestant.

The contestant receiving the highest total score will have first choice of all the prizes. The second highest, second choice, and so on down the line.

It will probably be two or three days after the close of the contest before definite results can be announced. When these results are announced, a certain time will be set aside for awarding the prizes either at The Times office or in some suitable building large enough to accommodate the contestants and their friends. When this announcement is made, sufficient time will be allowed to contestants to reach the meeting from any point in the territory covered by them.

At this meeting the contestants will be allowed to choose and, should a contestant not be on hand to make a choice when his or her turn comes, that contestant will have to take the prize that falls to that number.

Should a contestant desire to choose any prize lower in the list than the score calls for, that is purely a matter of option upon the part of the contestant. When your turn comes, you will have the choice of anything that has not been already selected up to that time; but, should you fail to appear when your name is called, then the next prize in rotation will be assigned to you.

Contestants are requested to cut out these rules and preserve them in order that no error may occur and no misunderstanding be had.

Not far from the nursery is the model cottage where two of the teachers live and where a dozen of them take their noon-day lunch—prepared by the little girls who here receive their lessons in housekeeping turn about. Sitting on the shady porch was the sewing class and out in the model kitchen were the little cooks looking as happy as queens in the delightful occupation of housekeeping which is made as interesting and fascinating as if it were a pretty game. Imagine the helpful hints these embryo housekeepers carry home and incidentally put into practice there.

IN THE PENNY KITCHEN.

Right in this vicinity is the Maternity Cottage, which was also inspected by the interested visitors, and then the string of automobiles headed for the Castelar-street School and its wonderful penny kitchen. Here Superintendent Francis joined the party, and members of the Board of Education. It was worth while to watch the youngsters fall in line—each with the precious penny in his fist—and file past the revolving gate into the open-air dining-room, whence came the savory smell of soup and where one could have all the bread one wanted—and sometimes fruit as well.

From there it is but a block or so to the clinic at the Children's Hospital, and here the association had assumed to do a most extraordinary thing—to feed the multitude of visitors. And it was successfully accomplished, too. Hot coffee, sandwiches and pickles were served to the crowd, whose appetites had been sharpened by the whisking about in automobiles from place to place. Here at the clinics, the children's eyes, ears and teeth are kept in order by specialists. Rooms fitted up for the purpose and equipped with every modern medical device offer treatment for little folks who enter with pain, and depart in peace. Dr. Berdine King presides over a dental chair and she manages her small patients with such tact and skill that they appear never to realize that they are hurt.

The last stop was at the Chamber of Commerce, where the emergency rooms of the association were inspected. This tour of inspection, which was so cleverly managed by these wise women, is preliminary to the benefit cantata which will be given at the Auditorium the last of this week, and I venture to say that all of the hundreds who saw the demonstration yesterday of the work these women are doing will be impelled to patronize the benefit, and thereby add their mite to the general fund.

CHARGES NON-SUPPORT.

Woman in Complaint Against Husband Alleges He Sold Their Property and Pocketed the Proceeds.

Mary Wellmuster has filed a complaint against her husband, J. C. Wellmuster, alleging failure to provide.

Mrs. Wellmuster asserts she was induced by her husband to take a trip East with her children about two years ago. As soon as he could dispose of property here and elsewhere he was to join the family at their old home in Connecticut, she says.

Mrs. Wellmuster declares that she gave her husband a power of attorney, and that he disposed of all the property, worth about $40,000.

When it came time to return, she says, she was unable to locate her husband and she worked to obtain money to get home, and has not since seen him, she avers.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN AND MEN

BY OLIVE GRAY

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: The elbows should be given attention, as the approach of age is heralded there more quickly than in almost any place.

Every woman is called upon at some time to expose her arms and at present, with the vogue of short or elbow sleeves, a lack of attention to these members is most apparent. The elbows should be treated with a pure and softening cream and skin food, quite as regularly as should the face and hands. The emollient should be well massaged into the skin and there will be displayed there few if any of the tell-tale marks of the great destroyer of woman's beauty, Age.

However, you may have felt about the ballot, it is now one of your privileges and as such, you must give it proper attention.

The first duty is that of registration. It is the duty of every right-thinking woman to do this and it is best to register early, as there will undoubtedly be a great rush, at the last hour.

"Well, but I have not had time to think the matter over and I do not know the issues, nor how I want to vote!" exclaimed a woman, whom I know. It does not matter about this—register first and think about the issues afterward. Do not spend time thinking how you will do something until you have the facilities for doing it. In this instance, the facility happens to be registration. It will not matter how you want to vote, if you have lost your opportunity to do so.

Every woman who wanted the ballot should register, if for no other reason than that it would be inconsistent for her to fail to do so.

Every woman who did not want the ballot should register, because if she fails to do so, her claims that it would be a burden will remain unverified. Whether or not you wanted the burden, there it is and it must be shouldered as any other burden should be. So far as I have been able to learn, life is beset with many duties, some of which we did not deliberately seek, but that fact does not absolve us from meeting them as best we can.

* * *

Baby Bonnets.

Have you noticed the adorable bonnets for little girls, which are in the stores this season? I think they were never so bewitching.

Of light blues in silks or velvets, with tiny wreaths of hand-made flowers, and with the brims in the poke fashion, "like mamma's," these little "head-wears" are too quaint for words.

Another fad, in such articles is to have them fashioned from black velvets or silks, quaintly shirred and trimmed with bright hand-made flowers.

At one store, especially, where they make a point of carrying the very latest styles in clothing and accessories for little ones, I noticed a full line of these bonnets.

* * *

Blankets.

Although it seems almost too warm to believe that we shall ever be in want of real woolly blankets, still it is well to bear in mind that certainly cold nights will soon be here, and a whole window filled with genuine bargains in high-class goods of this character reminds us that it is well to "prepare for a rainy day" and a rainy night as well.

* * *

Ribbons Which Command.

Ribbons this season occupy a commanding position in the world of dress.

Quite in contrast to the modest nearly invisible strings, which were at one time considered to fill the place of ribbons, are those of today.

Extremely wide, of heaviest and richest material and of intricate weave, with designs which would do credit to any artist, these accessories form in many instances entire panels to gowns, or complete the bodice, or else they become deep borders upon skirts or overdrapes.

* * *

Eggs Gourmet.

The following recipe is one just at present in season, as egg plant is at its best and the combination of eggs and the plant bearing their name is a happy one.

Prepare six slices of egg plant in the usual way, roll in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat, until delicately browned. On each slice of egg plant arrange a thick slice of hard boiled egg and pour over all a rich brown gravy or sauce sprinkled with finely chopped parsley.

* * *

Pretty for Christmas.

I saw in a Broadway store which always has the best of everything, in its bric a brac department, some very pretty frames which would make appropriate Christmas gifts for girls. They were oval in shape and were finished in enamel in dainty shades such as rose, light blue, and lavender. For one girl to give to another—these would be first-class, and all the better if her own picture were enclosed, as there is something "girlish looking" about the frames themselves.

* * *

"Tan-To" Bows.

The revival of the tulle or maline bow for wear under the chin has been named locally the "Tan-to." I saw a window display of these in a certain Broadway store. They were in the most dainty of colors, and will be popular with those who recall the fact that a soft daintiness was always the result of placing one of these "fluffs" in juxtaposition to the face.

* * *

All In Brown.

"I am looking for a beau who matches my new tailored suit," said a girl whom I know.

I think she selected brown for her suit on purpose, for certainly she cannot go very far without finding a man clad in the same color and even in the same shade; for brown seems to be quite as much a fad for men's wear as for women's this season. I have never especially cared for unusual colorings in men's clothing, but brown is getting to be usual—almost as usual as blue, or gray, or smoke—well no, not quite as usual as smoke. But anyhow, I think that so that it would be easy for her to be "matched." In shoes, in hats, in gloves, in suits, all the shades of brown are worn by men and they are most becoming.

* * *

Fashion Whispers.

Those sets of bonnets, neck piece and muff, in ermine and braid embroidery upon white broadcloth. These are extremely chic and particularly becoming to young faces.

Pink quartz is made into hatpins, desk ornaments, cuff links and studs. It is a clear, pale pink, with a streak of white here and there, and is not expensive.

The plastron has been making a pronounced bid for favor for some time past, and at present many very handsome blouses and corsages show this effective detail.

Heavy fancy suitings are very popular for tailored skirts. The English tweeds and mixed suitings are having a tremendous favoritism shown them by the leading houses.

Large collars in round, pointed or hood effect are much in evidence in new coats. They are usually finished off with long, narrow revers, ending below the waist line.

Chantilly lace in both black and white is used to form scant ruffles on silk evening gowns. Black over white mousseline, the whole falling over white satin, is quite popular.

A FORECAST.

BY LILLIAN COLLINS.

A dainty little woman stood looking out of the window of a stuffy back room in which five other women sat or stood in various attitudes of dejection. Directly opposite a tall, commanding figure guarded a door, the upper part of which separated the room from a similar one by means of a strong iron grating. Receding footsteps sounded down the corridor. A discontented silence settled upon the group.

The woman at the window impatiently tapped her heel on the floor to the tune of nervous fret. At intervals she consulted a jeweled watch. Suddenly she turned toward the stern-faced woman. "I tell you, Mrs. Meeker, I've got to go. I can't spare another minute." Anxiety showed plainly under the thin veneer of bravado.

"Very well," the big woman responded. "If you are disposed to be reasonable—"

"Yes; yes; anything! It's 8 o'clock. I must go at once." She jabbed a jeweled pin through an immense willow-plumed hat and ran toward the door.

"Stay!" the tall woman commanded, looking up from a notebook in which she was writing. The other collapsed into a chair with a groan.

Across the room from the corridor a meek little woman huddled in a corner. Her hair was drawn back tightly from a care-lined face, and patient tears coursed slowly along tiny channels worn by persistent weeping. She was nervously twisting a thin gold ring around a bony finger. At intervals her pale lips broke into a moaning cry: "My baby—my baby—"

Inspired by the spirit of revolt displayed by the other woman, she struggled to her feet and approached the grating with words of pleading: "Oh, please, Mrs. Meeker—"

"Yes—yes! I know it isn't right—but my baby is sick—I must go to him!" She headed toward the corridor, but the woman flung out a forbidding hand, and she crept back to her corner.

The guardian of the grated door jotted a few more notes in her book, then glanced casually at the apathetic figures of the other three occupants of the room whose faces spoke eloquently of mental pliancy. Her eyes silently questioned. Affirmative nods answered her unspoken interrogation. She approached the grating and hurled a single word at a strong-faced man who stood on the other side of the grated door. Her challenging eyes rested upon six men in that mildly profane state of mind known as "fuming."

Exactly! Six fuming, smoking, profane men occupied the cage adjoining the compartment in which the six ladies abode in enforced agreeable companionship. Perfectly agreeable companionship—now!

The hard-faced man shook his head; the stern-voiced woman hurled a string of vituperative language through the grating. The man turned his back and rejoined his companions. The woman faced about and the other five clustered around her in eager protest.

"Oh, we are all right," she assured them with a shrug of her square shoulders, "but the men in there are all wrong. We'll have to wait until they wake up."

What's that, you say? A ward in a lunatic asylum? Oh, no; not quite, at least, not yet. It was merely a hung jury in the State of Washington, where they enjoy woman's suffrage.

SEEKS HABEAS CORPUS.

J. A. Woods, charged with having made an assault with intent to kill, whose motion for a writ of habeas corpus on appeal from the court of Justice Forbes, on the ground that amendment No. 26 of the Constitution of California abolished the justices of inferior courts of the State, was denied by Judge Willis last week, is seeking freedom through a second writ of habeas corpus in the District Court. The case is set for hearing tomorrow, on the grounds that the stenographer who took the evidence had not been sworn.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The feature of the market was an advance in all quotations on strictly fresh eggs. Best stock went up a cent, bringing the top figure for the season, and 1 cent more than at the corresponding time a year ago. Cases counts showed an advance of 2 cents and sold at 45 cents a dozen. That the prevailing high cost of eggs is not confined to the local market is shown by the reports from all the Coast cities. San Francisco quoted candled eggs at 50 cents a dozen, with a firm market. Other grades were not affected, and the market all the way round was reported as ruling firm. There is a scarcity of hens on the market, and dealers have had to depend upon the East for their supply. Egg arrivals were 65 cases.

No change was noted in dairy products. Butter was well received at the revised figures, and a firm market was noted on the better grades. Unattractive stock was inclined to be weak. Most of the offerings were of the better grades, and there was a good outlet for most all grades. Receipts were 47,583 pounds.

The light offerings of cheese for the past week served to strengthen the market generally, but with the exception of northern fresh and eastern twins, no changes were noted. Northern fresh advanced 1 cent and jobbed in a general way around 17 cents a pound. Eastern twins sold at 16½ cents. Arrivals were 189 pounds.

Continued warm weather has stimulated the demand for most descriptions of deciduous fruits, and the market has shown a steady tone, with the better quality offerings at the maximum figures. Receipts generally have been well up to current needs. Apple quotations, notwithstanding the heavy receipts, have been well sustained. There was a good call for most varieties. Arrivals were 11,671 boxes.

Offerings of peaches showed a material shrinkage, and the market as a result developed a firmer tone. Most of the peach offerings sold around $1.00 a lug box.

Grapes continued in free supply. The demand was fairly active at the prevailing rates, and first quality lots kept well cleaned up. Cornichons were quoted around $1.50 a lug box.

Some fancy strawberries were on the market, and quoted at 10 cents a box. Most dealers were skeptical about handling the stock. It was such that it had to be moved fast, on account of spoilage.

Pie pumpkin offerings were liberal, but received little attention; most of the stock was quoted at 1½ cents a pound.

Potatoes showed little change from last quotations, the market maintained a steady tone under moderate offerings, and a limited demand. Receipts were 5776 sacks.

There was considerable outside call for onions, and the quoted price showed a market firmness. Arrivals were 7 sacks.

Palmer Oil Hits a New Low Mark, Closing at Sixty, Bid—California Midway Makes Gain.

California Midway made a gain of 2½ points on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, and Palmer Oil made a new low mark by closing at 60 bid, 80 asked. The Palmer stock that changed hands sold around 85. The blowing up of this company's gusher well several months ago, and the consequent loss of production is the real reason for the slump in the price of the stock. The proposition to merge the Palmer and Palmer Union would not have such an effect. The stock has been gradually going down for months.

California Midway made a spurt and was active for the first time in several weeks. Union was bullish, Mexican Petroleum common was bearish, and Consolidated Midway made a slight gain. This about tells the tale of the day on the exchange.

SAN FRANCISCO EXCHANGE.

Tonopahs Are Active but Slightly Reactionary on the Market—Other Mining Stocks.

[Special Service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, 118 West Fourth street, Los Angeles.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Tonopahs continue active but slightly reactionary today. Tonopah Ex. dropped back 2½, Belmont 15, West End 3, Jim Butler 1. North Star and Rescue were each up a point, Tonopah was unchanged.

Mexican was up 5 points, Union 7½, Nevada Hills held its own. Manhattan Big Four was wanted at 20.

There wer eall kinds of rumors afloat regarding Florence. One telegram said that the shaft had caved in, another that all the miners had been laid off, and the mill would be run one shift on the ore above ground.

The quarterly statement of the Tonopah Mining Company ending August 31 shows net profit $432,585, with a surplus after deducting a dividend of $400,000 of $32,585. The statement shows cash on hand August 31, $612,058, and total quick assets after deducting the dividend payable October 31, $1,576,910.

A matter of considerable disappointment in the Nevada Hills property has been the failure up to the present time to cut the ore body on the 570-foot level. The ore chute is very badly faulted on the 470 level, and in all probability the vein has been displaced on the 570, and sufficient distance has not been driven to cut the ore. The encountering of the ore body on the 570 is a matter of great importance to the company, for this chute is by far the richest and most valuable of any in the mine. It is developed on the 370 and 470 levels above; on the latter it has been opened for a distance of 250 feet, 200 feet of which averages 10 feet in width, and runs $60 per ton.

The production of the Comstock mines for the past week amounted to $42,158, which is an increase of $

LITTLE DOING IN WALL STREET.

MOTIVE OF TRADING TAKES A BRIEF REST.

Outside Participation Is Small and London Is Only Casually Interested in the New York Exchange—Increased Expenses of American Railroads Shown by Report.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—In the absence of an impelling motive for trading on either side of the stock market today's movements were of the narrow and fictitious character of recent sessions. Trading, in fact, fell to even smaller proportions, with a total of 195,000 shares for the day's session. Outside participation is as small as at almost any time during the year. The standard stocks ended at about where they began. London took only a small part in the day's trading. The rise of the September railroad reports were available today, Lehigh Valley showing a $600,000 increase in operating revenue, which was balanced by an increase in expenses of almost the same amount. The Rock Island Railroad showed a heavy gain in expenses, although it was more than balanced by the increase in the gross earnings. The uniformity with which the railroads of the country up to a few months ago at least showed their expenses was shown by the combined figures of seventy-eight roads for their last fiscal year. While operating revenue gained less than 1 per cent, the increase in expenses was more than 4 per cent. Only eleven roads revealed a reduction in expenses. Bonds were relatively more active on the exchange than were stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,680,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

New York Curb Stocks.

[Special Service to The Times by E. F. Hutton & Co., Members N. Y. Stock Exchange, 111 West Fourth street, Los Angeles.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The mining list was irregular today. Trading was on a fair scale, but the aggregate sales were not large. Greene Cananea was the strong feature, on rumors of a dividend. Inspiration was steady. The market closed quiet, but with a good tone.

The Boston coppers were strong, especially Lake, which closed at the best prices of the day. The market acts as if there were good prospects for the advance continuing through the week.

Following are the closing bid and asked prices:

THE COPPER INDUSTRY.

[Special Service to The Times by E. F. Hutton & Co., Members N. Y. Stock Exchange, 111 West Fourth street, Los Angeles.]

In the exploitation of the Braden Copper property, which is located in Chile, S. A., more than seven millions of dollars have been expended and six years of time consumed. While active development was not begun until 1905, the mine was worked as far back as the early eighteen hundreds, when large tonnages of high-grade ore carrying from 5 to 8 per cent. copper were transported by mule-back to the Pacific Coast, a distance of 120 miles. Since 1905 the work which has been done by the Braden Syndicate will be ample to produce 50,000,000 pounds of copper annually for many years to come. The property consists of 250 acres of claims, which have been proved by 20,000 feet of tunnels, crosscuts and raises, and 10,000 feet of diamond drill holes. The ore bodies are of huge proportions, and the ore is of a character which will permit of its being mined and milled at a very low cost

A Crawl.

SHOAF CASE IS EXPLODED.

'APPEAL TO REASON" MAKES AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Now Declares that Shoaf Was Neither Murdered Nor Kidnaped. The Story of His Alleged Revelations a Hoax—Preposterous Canard Is Dissipated Into Thin Air.

"The Appeal to Reason," the red newspaper, which is so anxious to have Job Harriman elected Mayor of Los Angeles, has made a ludicrous crawl as to the Shoaf case.

It will be remembered that The Appeal to Reason has repeatedly charged that a certain George Shoaf was in possession of evidence that the proprietors of The Times deliberately blew up their own building; that Shoaf was preparing a convincing statement to that effect, supported by the evidence, and that on a certain date the whole expose would be printed in The Appeal to Reason.

Of course it was all a hoax. George Shoaf had no such narrative to relate; there was no such evidence in existence; there was nothing to it. When the date came for the appearance of the alleged Shoaf article, The Appeal was in a hole. It had nothing to divulge. So it resorted to a sensational story to the effect that George Shoaf had been kidnaped for the purpose of suppressing his evidence. The fake was pushed so far that detectives were notified of the "mysterious disappearance of Shoaf," with the intimation that he was either murdered or spirited away. The canard was kept going for weeks.

Now The Appeal is forced to backwater. It acknowledges that the Shouf story was a hoax and withdraws its pretentious offer of $500 reward for information leading to his discovery. The Times quotes the following from The Appeal to Reason of October 14:

The Appeal has definite information which makes it certain that George H. Shoaf is not dead or injured, neither was he kidnaped. His disappearance had nothing whatever to do with the McNamara cases or with his duties toward the Appeal, being merely a matter personal to himself.

The Appeal is in possession of a letter written by him to a young woman in New York City, dated September 21, just one month after his disappearance. This letter was mailed from Los Angeles. There is no doubt about the authenticity of this letter. In view of the situation the Appeal withdraws its offer of $500 reward for information that shall lead to the finding of Shoaf.

From the first we have suggested that three possibilities presented themselves: Assassination, kidnaping, a frame-up on his part alone. In its issue of September 16 the Appeal gave preference to the idea of kidnaping, basing its theory on letters that had come from three sources bearing practically the same information. The source of at least one of them was so good, being from two socialists of national reputation, wholly reliable, too friendly and never connected with the Appeal, that it was taken as the most plausible then received. This letter, which has not to this time been printed, was signed by Julius Gerber, organizer of Local New York, and Algernon Lee, secretary of Rand school, New York, and was as follows:

"Information here, from high financial circles, is to the effect that George H. Shoaf was not killed but was taken from Los Angeles on a private yacht. Instructions were given to put the prisoner through the most extreme third degree and inquisition to determine how much information he had really obtained concerning the Times affair.

"The yacht is said to have proceeded from Los Angeles to a point in Nicaragua Bay, where it was to meet another vessel to which Shoaf was to be transferred. This latter vessel had orders to coal and prepare for a voyage of six weeks or more into the South Pacific. At last advices—11:30 p.m. August 24—this vessel had not yet completed coaling. It was anchored outside the bay at some distance from the promontory which encloses the lower end of the bay.

"Shoaf's transfer to this vessel had not yet been reported last night, although sufficient time had elapsed for the Los Angeles vessel to reach Nicaragua Bay. The impression here, however, is that Shoaf had been transferred.

"The name of the vessel at Nicaragua Bay was not known with certainty here, but it was thought to be the 'Veruna,' or some such name. A reference to Lloyd's register or similar roster of merchant vessels will give either this name or one very similar to it.

"It is understood here that the orders for Shoaf's kidnaping proceeded directly from the office of the chief detective agency of the prosecution. This is partially confirmed by the familiarity which the head of that agency displayed with the disappearance when he confidently announced that Shoaf would be found in some of the local jails.

"It is also understood here that the proprietor of the Los Angeles daily was instrumental in securing the yacht for taking Shoaf to Nicaragua. It is said by some that this proprietor personally accompanied the yacht for at least a part of the distance and directed the inquisition which had been ordered, but this lacks confirmation.

"The destination of the 'Veruna' is said to be certain South Pacific Islands, the name of which will be available later.

"The parties giving this information urge the necessity of the most extreme secrecy and caution in whatever proceeding may be taken for Shoaf's release, as any belief in upper circles that his whereabouts and the method of his kidnaping had become known would probably lead to his immediate death. It is unsafe to trust the telegraph, as all wires bearing upon the McNamara case are duplicated to the Burns Agency. Also it is unsafe to use the mails, save by roundabout processes, as the postal inspectors are in many instances in the Burns employ and are instructed to open and vise all letters addressed to influential persons connected with the McNamara case.

"It is doubtful if the 'Veruna' can be intercepted before it departs. If not, a communication to the sender of this notice will disclose the destination of the ship.

"Meanwhile some careful preliminary detective work by the McNamara defense will probably yield enough information to justify proceedings against the head of the detective agency above alluded to and will enable a strong aggressive attorney and fighter to force a mild hand to make a clean breast of the whole proceeding."

Later the Appeal investigated the matter and discovered that the report lacked confirmation. Gerber and Lee did the same. The Appeal also ran down various other clews to no effect. Some ten days ago it received information as to the existence of the letter now in its possession, and sent a man to New York City to investigate, with the result that the letter was secured and all doubts as to Shoaf's being alive were removed.

Doubtless there will before many days be further developments. In the meantime let it be remembered that the Appeal said several weeks ago: "If it be proven that Shoaf deliberately planned his disappearance for the purpose of creating a sensation, it will be among the first to repudiate and denounce his action," and it was the first to print the facts about it so far as it has discovered them. In the meantime it awaits from Shoaf, who will doubtless see this paper, an explanation of his action.

Obviously it became evident that the lies printed week after week by The Appeal were hurting the defendants in the dynamiting cases, and a tip was passed out to the editors of the irresponsible sheet to subside.

NO END OF TROUBLE.

Ray A. White, charged with forging a draft for $300, was ordered committed to jail by Justice Reeve in default of $5000 bail yesterday. When this charge is disposed of White will be taken in hand by the Federal authorities on the allegation that he forged a signature to a money order.

URGES TO GET BUSY.

beginning of dredging in the inner harbor, nothing has been accomplished. This lack of progress may possibly be condoned by legal difficulties in the way of a bond issue, but these difficulties were removed some months ago, and for the last few months nothing has apparently stood in the way of adopting and proceeding to carry out definite plans for the adequate improvement of our harbor.

It is unfortunate that the conditions of titles to the harbor frontage of the inner harbor make it impossible at the present time, and probably for some years to come, to plan and carry out any extensive scheme of improvement in that area.

MILLION FOR IMPROVEMENTS.

The sum of $1,000,000 of the original bond issue set aside for the inner harbor would appear to be ample for making all the improvements which the city will be able to make in that harbor between now and the opening of the Panama Canal. These improvements, however, should, in our judgment, be proceeded with the utmost possible dispatch to the fullest extent that conditions will admit of. Fortunately, however, no such difficulties are encountered in improving the outer harbor, as the city has on that portion of the harbor ample frontage for making all improvements necessary to accommodate all commerce which the Panama Canal will bring to it when it is opened, and for several years thereafter.

It will take time and money to make these improvements. It is estimated by the legal department of the city of Los Angeles that of the $2,000,000 of the authorized bond issue devoted to the outer harbor, $750,000 will be required to pay the cost of condemning land necessary for opening the 130 feet wide boulevard extending around the front of the outer harbor, and which is needed to constitute proper and adequate approaches to that portion of the harbor. This will leave $1,250,000 for the construction of quays, piers, wharves, warehouses, handling machinery and necessary railroad tracks. This, of course, is an amount entirely inadequate for making the improvements necessary to handle the commerce which should come to our harbor as the result of the opening of the Panama Canal. The people of the city of Los Angeles have expressed by their votes upon annexation a determination to fully improve the harbor. They have never failed to vote favorably upon bond issues for any necessary public improvement which promises to benefit their city. Certainly no public improvement ever suggested for the city of Los Angeles ever carried a greater promise of immediate benefit to the city than does the improvement of the harbor. Any effort on the part of officials charged with the improvement of this harbor to confine the plans for it to the sum already provided would necessarily mean making plans for a ridiculous and inefficient improvement.

In our judgment, plans should be made immediately for improvements of the highest and most efficient character on sufficient of the city's frontage in the outer harbor to accommodate the great commerce which will certainly come to our harbor as a result of the opening of the Panama Canal, if our harbor is prepared to receive it. This improvement we cannot expect to get under several millions of dollars, but in our judgment, the plans should be made upon an adequate basis, and then the people of the city should be asked for funds necessary to carry them out. Any failure to do this will, in our opinion, subject the body responsible for such failure to serious and just criticism from our citizens, and it is to relieve ourselves of any possibility of being subjected to this criticism that we are addressing this communication to your board.

We believe that the engineers should be instructed to immediately prepare plans for the improvement of the outer harbor in the form of quays, wharves, warehouses and their appurtenances for expeditiously and cheaply handling commerce that the public may understand the extent and character of the improvements necessary, and that, when this is ascertained the people should be asked to take immediate steps to provide the funds necessary for these improvements. We believe no other course will satisfy the people of Los Angeles, and we believe that any other course will be fraught with ultimate disaster to the highest and best interests of the city.

We would therefore respectfully but most earnestly suggest to your body:

EARNEST SUGGESTIONS.

First—That an early decision should be arrived at as to the amount of frontage in the outer harbor necessary to be improved in order to accommodate the commerce that the opening of the Panama Canal will bring to our city; and in making this estimate that the Huntington concession be considered as the first unit of the frontage necessary to be improved, and that in making estimates provision should be made for the probable increase of commerce for some time to come.

Second—That having decided upon the amount of frontage necessary to be improved, which in our judgment, should include the entire Huntington concession, plans should be at once made and adopted for improving this frontage with the most modern, permanent and efficient construction for accommodating vessels and receiving and handling freight, and the first plans adopted shall be those providing for the improvement in the most permanent and efficient manner of the said Huntington concession.

Third—That such plans having been adopted, the work should be proceeded with as rapidly as is possible, and that the citizens should be called on for any additional bond issue that may be necessary to complete the work in time to get the issue out and have the bonds marketed by the time the money will be needed.

It is apparent to us from statements made by experts who have recently inspected our harbor, and especially by Mr. Bush, who is at the head of the most modern and up-to-date harbor improvement that has been made in America, that it will be most important to have our harbor fully equipped for transacting the business which it should receive when the Panama Canal is open for traffic, for any of this business which cannot find accommodation at Los Angeles harbor will certainly seek other ports, and, when once established at these other ports, it will then be very much more difficult to recover it than it would be to secure it in the first instance.

NEIGHBOR LOSES.

The battery charge against John Wilson, a ranchman at Burbank, was dismissed in Justice Forbes's court yesterday. The complainant was Martha E. Thompson, a neighbor, who objected to Wilson punishing his son in what she considered a brutal manner. Under the law the mother of the boy could not testify against her husband and neighbor Thompson suffered a lapse of action, resulting in the accused being liberated.

Carleess About Appendicitis In Los Angeles

Many Los Angeles people have stomach or bowel trouble which is likely to turn into appendicitis. If you have constipation, sour stomach, or gas on the stomach, try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the new German appendicitis remedy. The Sun Drug Co., 214 S. Spring st., states that A SINGLE DOSE of this simple remedy relieves bowel or stomach trouble almost INSTANTLY.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

The investigation at the scene of the wreck, yesterday, brought out, yet more clearly, the horrifying circumstances under which Omans acted, on the notice of an infinitesimal fraction of a second. The tower-house stood in the narrow triangle east of the point where the Santa Fe main line turns southeast and the Los Angeles-Monrovia branch of the Southern Pacific to the northeast.

At 4:44 o'clock Omans was making ready to set his signal at "clear" for the west-bound Santa Fe passenger train, due at Monrovia station at 4:45 p.m.

Roaring masterless down grade from the west at a mile a minute came a million-pound projectile of death. It was barely thirty seconds away, yet in that time the towerman saw the train laden with human freight at Monrovia, one mile east, the engine at a stand-still and the train crew unwarned of the monster flying toward them.

Without an instant's hesitation he turned the runaway into the ditch, knowing that it must inevitably strike the switch tower.

There was about the same chance for him to escape alive as if he had stood before the muzzle of a fourteen-inch gun at the moment of firing.

Waiting to see the first car take the switch Omans jumped for the stairway. A clock's tick later he was hurled through the air. He landed over thirty feet from the tower and was but slightly injured. The explanation offered by eye-witnesses is that the first car struck the tower just as he jumped, and he was carried out by the great air cushion caused by the collision.

"I MUST DITCH HER!"

The shock of the wreck was felt for hundreds of feet. The first person to reach Omans was a young Jap. The towerman was dazed and was gathered tenderly up muttering over and over again: "My God, I must ditch her! My God, I must ditch her!"

What was recognizable of the tower was piled in a shattered mass on the derailed cars. An arm chair rested jauntily on the roof of a box car, which, though torn from its trucks, remained upright. The tower clock, the hands still pointing to 4:44 o'clock, was unearthed from the debris yesterday.

The runaway freight consisted of nine cars which had been set out at Lamanda Park, four miles west of Arcadia, and about 250 feet higher. All except two were loaded with crushed rock and cement for the work being done on Foothill boulevard. The combined weight of cars and loads exceeded 500 tons.

From Arcadia to near San Gabriel River, three miles east, there is a heavy down grade and the speed of the runaway would have increased enormously had it been allowed to pass the tower. The cars were so dismantled that it is impossible to determine why the air brakes did not hold, but it is believed that the main air line leaked, allowing the standing cars on the siding to start.

The telegrapher at the Arcadia station says: "There was nothing due before the westbound passenger, and I was just going for the mail. Joe stood at the tower window and, as I came near, we both heard the rumble of a train from the west. He called out 'What's due?' and I said 'Nothing.' Then he caught sight of it and said it must be a runaway. I ran back a little to command a view of the curve and yelled back to him: 'There's no engine!' and just as we saw it coming it was here. Omans stayed with his lever until the first car took the switch. I felt as if I had seen him die."

HE IS MODEST.

Said Omans yesterday: "Any man would have done the same thing. It just seemed to me to be my duty. That's all there is to it."

He is 54 years of age and is not of strong physique. For forty years, since he was a boy of 14, he has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific. The switch tower was operated jointly by the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific Company and Omans is an employee of the latter. For a number of years he was an engineer on the Espee line between Los Angeles and Yuma. He is lame from being pinned under his engine in a washout on the Colorado Desert in 1886, and has been towerman at Arcadia fourteen years.

DESPONDENT, TAKES LIFE.

Ill for Several Months, Housewife Ends Afflictions With Pistol Bullet Through Her Brain.

Despondency caused by ill health led Mrs. Mary Yarter, 43 years old, to shoot herself in the head yesterday morning at her home, No. 2220 Baxter street, Edendale. She died almost instantly.

Mrs. Yarter had been ill for several months. She is survived by her husband, Edward, a carpenter, a son of the same name, 21 years old, and a son, Raymond, 19 years old. The body was taken to Bresee Bros. A suicide report was returned to the Coroner yesterday afternoon and a certificate will probably be signed today.
